With only two general officers and four vice presidents of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs eligible to re-election, club women are naturally looking to the election of officers as one of the important features of the annual convention to be held at Kearney in October.

There is very little settled talk of other candidates and Mrs. Keefe seems to be generally popular. Chief among the matters that the convention will be called upon to consider is an amendment to the constitution providing that the state meeting be held biennially instead of annually.

There is a possibility that Mrs. Emma Fox, partly instrumental in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, may be another attraction at the Kearney convention of the Nebraska Federation in October.
