

returning, saying there may be wounded persons in there. The premier's face was bespattered with ink, thrown there by the force of the explosion.

M. Stolypin is greatly grieved at the death of the old hall porter, who had served the ministry of the interior for forty years.

In the evening Madame Stolypin went to St. Petersburg aboard a small government boat.

It appears that the assassins were well supplied with funds. They paid $15 in advance for the rooms they engaged. Before leaving they disguised themselves and made the house porter drunk.

The extraordinary power of the explosion may be judged by the fact that houses on the opposite side of the river Neva were shaken and windows broken.

A painful feature of the tragedy was the delay in securing medical aid for the injured. Over an hour elapsed before an ambulance arrived to take the wounded.

M. Stolypin's only thought was for his daughter, and he kept exclaiming: "For God's sake fetch a doctor for my poor girl."

It was fully half an hour before a beginning was made, systematically, to clear the wreckage. During which the injured suffered agonies. At dusk torches were lighted, and by the fitful light from these the work was continued and the walls were supported up with strong beams.

Many trees in the avenue were blown down by the force of the explosion and the aspect of the house's grounds was one of complete desolation. Paris of human bodies were thrown a great distance. An officer chanced to knock against a small tree and a bloody, dust-covered hand that had lodged among the branches fell at his feet.

Industry at the Calmer hospital today elicited the statement that Premier Stolypin's daughter was still alive, but that her condition was critical, and it was feared gangrene would set in. She is under the care of the famous surgeon, Dr. Pavlov.

M. Stolypin has received touching telegrams of sympathy from the grand duke, grand duchess and former Premier Witte and other persons.

Mlle. Stolypin is one of seven daughters of the premier. The wounded boy is his only son. Mrs. Stolypin, who was driving at the time of the explosion, is constantly at the bedside of her daughter.

M. Stolypin removed his light to his town residence in Moskva street, which is almost next door to the house where the assassins had their lodgings. The premier frequently visits the latter house, which is the property of Princess Meshchersky, and is devoted to furnished rooms of the highest class.

The Associated Press representative revisited the wrecked villa today and found fresh traces of the shattered walls. An imposing force of police kept all comers, even high officers, at a distance from the villa.

Disgraceful scene at hospital. At the hospital of St. Peter and St. Paul there was a disgraceful scramble of thousands of curiosity-seekers around the mangled remains of twenty-six of the victims of the explosion, which had lain exposed on the grass in the hospital yard the whole of last night and today and which were still in the hospital.

Thoughts of suspected revolutionists were gathered in today in the hospital, no important arrests have been made. The police have been successful in getting on the real track of the conspiracy, beyond establishing, from the test of the death sentence on the body of one of the dead assassins that the band belonged to the Maximists, better known as the "Flying Group" of the social revolutionists. This band is a secret society which operates on an unlicensed basis. It has been responsible for most of the recent assassinations, not having accepted the dictum of the larger "fighting organization" of the social revolutionists to discontinue activity during the session of parliament.

Among the revolutionists, a few hundred, were M. Spiridonov, who was shot at Chief of the Secret Police Lushenko, who committed suicide after the premature explosion of a bomb intended for Governor General Kaubars; the slayer of General Kaubars; the slayer of the premier's staff, who was murdered in the park at the Premier's residence; the principal of the great Moscow bank robbery. The group is financed largely with the proceeds of the Credit Mutual bank robbery. A peculiarity of its workings is that its decrees are never executed in the city of St. Petersburg, where the victims live, but are drafted from other localities, which diminishes the chance of police detection.

Talk of Dictatorship. Talk of a military dictatorship is again in the air. According to a report current at a meeting of the camarilla discussed the question tonight at Peterhof and a majority was in favor of such steps. Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasievich, who had just returned from exiling on Premier Stolypin, was especially in favor of the plan. It is said that after the meeting Grand Duke Nicholas and others of the grand dukes went to the emperor to demand his authorization, but up to the present moment this has not been received.

London Comment. LONDON, Aug. 27.—Dispatches from St. Petersburg to the newspapers this morning supply some further details concerning the attempt on the life of the Russian premier M. Stolypin. It is stated that the men who threw the bomb were named Morozoff, and that he was a native of Rysan province. Among the killed were nearly all the agents of the secret police in the house, including four women detectives. Several persons were warned beforehand that an attempt on the life of the premier would be made. Mme. Stolypin, who was in the court chamberlain who was killed, said that her husband received a postcard Friday saying: "Do not go where you intend going." Another official named Uvinsky received a similar warning. He resigned illness and thus escaped.

Some of the accounts suggest that the explosion was premature and that there for the escape of the premier was due to the fact that the assassins were partly intoxicated.

Marshalltown, Ia., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Following are the results in the Iowa League baseball game today. Marshalltown, 8; Waterloo, 1. Ottumwa, 1; Keokuk, 0. Ten innings. At Rock Island—Bloomington, 3; Rock Island, 1. Second game, Bloomington, 4; Rock Island, 1.

ing attacked by a mob for carrying out orders that aroused their resentment. Stolypin, seeing what was happening, rushed up between the superintendent and the angry crowd, exclaiming: "If you want to kill the responsible official it is I. The superintendent is but doing his duty by executing my orders. He has no choice but to carry them out. It was I alone who issued them, and here I am."

The crowd surprised, at Stolypin's courage, silently stalked away. The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent, commenting on the outrage, said: "No political reforms can heal the present moral gangrene which is eating away the soul of the nation. Political motives play hardly any part in the epidemic of loathsome crimes. The ideas of right and wrong are wholly perverted. Hostility and humanity are now struggling for the upper hand and the chances are on the side of hostility. If the constitutional democrats were in power tomorrow, the epidemic of crime would continue, for the struggle is not between this party or that, but between rapscallion and men of law and order."

Girl Drops Bomb. ODESSA, Aug. 26.—Late Saturday evening a girl dropped a bomb in the Nicholas boulevard, fifty paces from the palace of Governor Laubars. There was a deafening detonation and a wild stampede of the promenaders. No one was injured except the girl, who dropped the bomb. Her hand was shattered.

It is supposed the bomb accidentally fell from her hand before she had reached the entrance of the palace. She and another girl and a university student who was accompanying them, were arrested.

Explosives in Room. HAMBURG, Aug. 26.—A search of the room occupied by a young Russian, who was arrested here in connection with the explosion, disclosed quantities of explosives, a number of revolvers and bills of lading for shipments of ammunition and explosives to Russian Baltic ports.

Deplore Bomb Outrage. PARIS, Aug. 26.—Most of the newspapers today deplore and criticize in the severest terms the bomb outrage at the residence of the Russian premier, M. Stolypin, last Saturday and agree that it will act only as a setback to the cause of reform. The socialist organs, however, seek to palliate the offense by contending that the government is guilty of a number of crimes, and that the bomb outrage is a just retribution for the crimes of the government.

Temp in an editorial says: "The universal reproach which these political crimes arouse is increased by the fact that the government is called either an uncompromising reactionary or a bloodthirsty bureaucrat. We always contend that it is with remarkable faith that he devoted himself to what he believed was for the good of Russia, though he may have been mistaken in the means he chose. It is to be feared that this statesman whose fine simple will and clear vision were his chief assets, and who worked out, as quickly as possible, the best of constitutional legality, thus replying to the charges of the social revolutionists, is the victim and spare the country further of these reprehensible deeds and misdeeds."

YUDOKA, Russia, Aug. 26.—After a meeting of workmen today which was addressed by Ex-member of Parliament Michalichenko, shots were fired. This resulted in an encounter between the workmen and Cossacks and police, the latter firing nine volleys, which killed eight persons and wounded thirty-three.

Heavy Hitting in Second Game. The second game was characterized by heavy hitting on both sides, Omaha making eleven and Pueblo nine. Omaha had a comfortable lead until the eighth when two hits and a couple of errors put the game in danger, but Corps refused to soar high enough for the Pubs to get under, and two games were won by the Colts. Seise's men made three runs in the first inning and many a fan thought it was all day with the home team.

Omaha Goes to Front. Omaha went nicely to the front in the sixth inning by a sweetest. Runkle doubled and Gending popped out to Fiske. Long captured the out to Fiske and Cook walked. Here again was Autrey the right man in the right place for he hit a nice single which scored Runkle. Howard was passed and Ferring's double scored Autrey.

That was all for Omaha, but the Pubs began to get tremulous in the eighth inning and did not stop until the last man was out in the ninth. Melchior singled in the eighth, went to second on Elwert's out and scored when Howard hit Hill's grounder through him.

Omaha Wins Both Games. OMAHA WINS BOTH GAMES. Seise's men made three runs in the first inning and many a fan thought it was all day with the home team.
