

GOV. MICKEY DEFERS ACTION

Date of South Omaha Police Board Await New Hearings.

HAS LONG CONFERENCE WITH BOARD

Listens to Evidence of Two Witnesses and Then Adjourns Hearing in Office in Lincoln.

Behind closed doors Governor Mickey spent three hours hearing evidence concerning the members of the South Omaha Board of Fire and Police Commissioners Saturday afternoon at the Millard Hotel in an investigation of the charges made by Joseph Spelts that the commission permitted saloons to remain open Sunday in violation of the law.

Those who attended the conference were Governor Mickey and A. B. Allen, the governor's secretary, Chief Briggs of the South Omaha police, and the members of the commission. Mr. Spelts appeared at the request of the governor and renewed his charges that the commission was permitting saloons to remain open on Sunday.

After Spelts and Braden had left the room the conference and the governor remained in conference for an hour. At the conclusion of the meeting Governor Mickey declined to discuss the evidence he had listened to.

"I will hear some more witnesses in my office at Lincoln next week," said Mickey. "I will not decide until then. I do not care to discuss the evidence now."

Thomas Nolan, a member of the commission, said: "The hearing was a farce. Spelts, who made the charge, admitted he had piloted stockmen from his restaurant to disorderly houses and had been stopped by the chief of police. He seemed to have more of a grievance against Chief Briggs than against the members of the board. There was no evidence that an ordinary person would give much weight. I think the whole thing is over."

Mr. Nolan said the members of the board neither admitted nor denied that the South Omaha saloons have been running on Sunday. Who the witnesses are that will go to Lincoln is not stated.

Braden and his wife, it is charged, formerly ran a disreputable place in South Omaha and were closed out by the board. The members accuse him of trying to get revenge now by making an ordinary person state that Governor Mickey said there would probably be some on both sides.

Saloons Ordered to Close. In accordance with the wish of Governor Mickey the South Omaha Board of Fire and Police Commissioners promptly issued the order for Sunday closing.

Orders Not New in Omaha. Omaha saloon keepers will be held to a strict observance of the prohibition closing orders issued to the department some time ago. Saloons must be closed at 1 o'clock on all nights except Saturday nights, when 12 o'clock is the limit.

Woman Is a Poor Marksman. Misses Her Husband and Shoots Man in Alley in Near of House. William Schwartz, 146 South Thirtieth street, was shot in the right shoulder Saturday evening while whitening a team of horses in the alley adjoining the home of John Hart, 1817 South Twentieth street.

OUR LETTER BOX.

Whereas I have been asked to issue a license to the editor of the Omaha Bee, in answer to the query I have received a great many times during the last day or two as to my being a member of the Dalmatian Democracy, I wish to state that I am not only a member of this organization, but one of the incorporators thereof, and I believe this club is intended to sustain and hold up the hands of the best city administration Omaha has ever had, and I believe that all democrats should unite in the support of an administration that, to my mind, is honestly and conscientiously trying to carry out the plank of the best democratic city platform ever written.

Cut-Out Lake Editor of The Bee. Lying right in the city's lap, so to speak, well stocked with fish, free from destructive storms and an ideal body of water for bathing and boating. Few people of Omaha realize what a prize the city has in this lake, right at the city's door, with fast street car facilities. A boulevard around the lake would help more than any one thing to popularize this much neglected body of water.

These at Conference. Those who attended the conference were Governor Mickey and A. B. Allen, the governor's secretary, Chief Briggs of the South Omaha police, and the members of the commission. Mr. Spelts appeared at the request of the governor and renewed his charges that the commission was permitting saloons to remain open on Sunday.

GOVERNOR VISITS CITY JAIL. Comes Unannounced and Officers on Duty Fail to Recognize Him. Governor John H. Mickey and Lieutenant Governor McClung called at the Omaha city jail Saturday evening for the purpose of going through the lockup.

Seasonable Fashions. The most popular mode at present in Paris is that of the corselet skirt, and a very attractive new model for an outfit of this kind is shown. The blouse is one of those fetching little affairs of soft filmy fabric, which are not difficult to make and yet serve for any sort of nice occasion.

NO. 54 AND 56-A NEW CORSELET EFFECT.
