

HILLS TYPICAL OF TRUE LIFE

Rev. Thomas Anderson Declares They Are Aid to Spirituality.

EFFORT NECESSARY IN REAL GROWTH

Tells Congregation to Leave Materialism of Infidelity and Climb to Spiritual Mountain Tops.

Rev. Thomas Anderson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Wheeling, Va., occupied his old pulpit at Chelvey Baptist church, Twenty-sixth and Hamilton streets, Sunday morning.

"The Man of Nazareth was passionately fond of the hills where He found refreshment and rest for the soul and body by breathing the pure atmosphere of those regions," said Dr. Anderson.

Life is Constant Climbing

"Life is but climbing to greater heights, the evolution of mind, and all things of earth are on the upward march. Have we but the confidence to ascend the confidence increases as we mount to greater heights."
