BETTER FEELING IN CUBA. Leader of Moderate Party, However, Exaggerated When He Made Report. PRESIDENT HAS MADE NO STATEMENT. Secretary Loeb Makes Formal Denial of Reports Regarding Mr. Roosevelt's Policy Toward Island in Trouble.

HAVANA, Aug. 28.—Investigation shows that the statement made by Senator Doña, a leader of the moderate party, at the conclusion of a conference with President Palma at midnight, to the effect that practically all the insurgent leaders of consequence except Pino Guerra had signified their willingness to disband their forces if all were positively guaranteed immunity for their insurrectionary acts, was an exaggeration, but the impression is very general today that the insurgents, with the exception of Pino Guerra, will shortly lay down their arms. Meanwhile, it is asserted, all recruiting will cease.

Acting Secretary of the Interior Montalvo had a long conference this morning with General Rodriguez, commander of the rural guards, and directed him to continue the enlistment of recruits and to push the pursuit of the insurgents in all directions.

The only details received this morning by General Rodriguez of yesterday's engagement between the government forces and the insurgents at Cienfuegos, province of Santa Clara, were contained in a dispatch from Colonel Valle, who commanded the detachment of rural guards and volunteers engaged. The dispatch says the insurgents were completely routed, leaving many killed on the field. According to the report the insurgents were encountered at the towns of Abrams and Rodas, Guns, horses and ammunition were left by the fleeing rebels, who were commanded by the insurgent portela. The report concludes as follows:

"Our forces fought valiantly throughout the engagements. Later the enemy returned and rushed the town, but the revolutionaries were scattered by our machine guns." Colonel Valle expresses the opinion that the engagements fought yesterday in Santa Clara will be of great importance toward ending the insurrection in that province.

OSTEEN, Aug. 28.—In view of public statements that President Roosevelt had made known his intended policy toward Cuba in the present revolution in that island, Secretary Loeb said today that any such statements were entirely without foundation, as the president has indicated to no one any determination in the matter.

MILLIONS ARE GONE. (Continued from First Page.) the close of business on Friday. A meeting of the board was hurriedly called and it was decided to instruct the officers of the bank that all deposits received after the opening of the bank on Saturday morning should be set aside and deposited with the Franklin National bank in the name of the individual presenting the money. This was done to obviate the directors from criminal proceedings for receiving money after they had been removed from the bank.

White the depositors were supposedly placing their money with the Real Estate Trust company, the directors were making strenuous efforts to tide the institution over the difficulty. All day yesterday they were busy in the office, and they were not seen today; that the crisis was inevitable. Application papers for a temporary receiver were prepared and left at the office of the trust company, after the directors went to the meeting of the Clearing House association to make a last appeal for the aid of the clearing house.

Smith Admits Killing. PIERRE, E. D., Aug. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—On preliminary hearing today the man who did the killing here yesterday said his correct name is Frank Smith, and his home is at Atlanta, Ga. He admits going after the man for the purpose of killing the man he was after, and after he had been called a vile name for refusing to drink with his victim. The name of the dead man is now believed to be Joseph Barry instead of Fitzgerald, as he was known on the pay roll. Smith was bound over without bail.

Application for Receiver. The application for the receiver of the company has a paid up capital of $1,000,000, and apparent surplus of an equal amount and deposits of about $100,000. The assets consist of real estate in Philadelphia, loans on collateral on demand and on time and other securities. President Hippié, the applicant says, by false reports to the directors of the loans made by him brought about the condition of the company which was first discovered by the officers of the bank subsequent to the death of the president.

Local Securities Worth Little. John H. Michener, president of the Clearing House association, in an interview tonight said that the failure of the association to subscribe the $7,000,000 guarantee fund requested by the Real Estate Trust company was due to insufficient security. The trust company, he said, offered $2,000,000 in gilt edge securities, a two-thirds interest in the trust company's building, valued at $2,000,000, and $3,000,000 securities from Adolph Beck, valued by the director of the trust company at $1,000,000. The Clearing House association did not regard the Beck securities worth more than $1,000,000 and declined to subscribe more than a

PROF. FRYE'S ONAWA RECORD. Troubled Chicago Teacher Forced to Return from Iowa School. IDENTIFIED BY FORMER ASSOCIATE. Eighteen Years Ago Secretary of School Board Knew Frye Was Living Under an Assumed Name. ONAWA, Ia., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—Prof. Charles H. G. Frye, who stepped into the limelight a short time ago by returning to Chicago after thirty-one years absence, and handing his former wife $5,000 in crisp new $100 bills, the only consideration being that she should "look pleasant and ask no questions," is quite well known at Onawa, even after the long absence. In 1888, Charles H. G. Frye was elected principal of the Onawa schools, going into the brick school house as the first teacher there. It was understood then that his wife was in Chicago and would join him later, but she never came and he said they had separated when questioned later about it. For a while his school work was fairly successful; afterward trouble arose. It was more apparent to the boys, who were generally on the inside when it comes to news, that Prof. Charles Horace Greeley Frye was paying altogether too much attention to some of the larger female pupils. Investigation fully confirmed the rumor and other things developed that showed the school board just what many of the business men had known for some time, that Prof. Charles H. G. Frye was a first-class fraud, and not the man to preside over the Onawa schools. Prof. Frye was allowed to "resign."

Goddard Identified as Frye. In 1888, or thirteen years afterwards, the secretary of the school board, who by the way has a record of thirty-eight years service as secretary of the school board, something unique in the history of Iowa, concluded he would look at some South Dakota lands. Among other points visited was Hurley, S. D. As he was at the station preparing to leave town, he was introduced to an attorney, C. H. Goddard. The minute the secretary saw him he knew that Charles Horace Greeley Frye, as the boys used to delight to call him, was still on this mundane sphere and was now known as Goddard. The secretary on his return to Onawa told a few of his confidential friends that he saw Frye in South Dakota, but no one cared enough about the matter after thirteen years to look him up, and it was soon forgotten, only to come up again a short time ago.

SAYS BOYCOTT IS UNLAWFUL. Racine Court Defines Act of Trades Council as Actionable Conspiracy. BAKER IS GIVEN JUDGMENT FOR $6,000. Man Who Refuses to Sign Contract for Closed Shop Awarded Damages for Loss Caused by Boycott.

RACINE, Wis., Aug. 28.—Unlabeled labor was dealt a heavy blow by the decision of Judge Chester A. Fowler in the boycott suit for $6,000 damages brought by Baker Otto B. Schultz against the Trades Labor Council, Benjamin Dressman and others. By the decision the contract exacted from the boycotters by the union men in an effort to enforce the closed shop is held illegal, the trades council and the individual members are enjoined from using the "unfair list," the boycott is declared an actionable conspiracy to accomplish a criminal act, and the full power of the law is allowed to be used to cover damages of $2,500 for the loss of profits from the time of the trial and $3,500 in damages for the amount of injury to his business and property in relation to its selling value.

What the Judge Says. All boss backers of the city signed this agreement except the plaintiff, who has steadfastly refused to do so. Upon the plaintiff's refusal to sign, concerted attacks upon his business was begun by organized labor with the object and purpose of compelling him, against his will, to sign the contract and has been maintained with malicious intent up to the present time. The plaintiff has suffered a permanent and all but destructive injury to his business and property by the malicious and concerted attacks of organized labor.

Injury to one's business and trade is on the same footing as an injury to his tangible property, and the law furnishes a remedy for the one as well as the other. The acts complained of are, in my view, plainly in violation of section 984, Wisconsin statute of 1898, as construed by the supreme court. This statute makes any two or more persons who shall combine, maliciously, mutually undertake or concert together for the purpose of willfully or maliciously injuring another, his trade or business by any means whatsoever, or for the purpose of maliciously compelling another to do or perform any act against his will, guilty of an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment.

The contract was in itself an illegal contract in that it would by its terms obligate the plaintiff to employ union labor only as distinguished from non-union labor, it would obligate him to maintain a "closed" shop distinguished from an "open" shop. FARMERS TURN OUT TO PICNIC. Listen to Addresses on Farm Topics and See Ball Game. CLARK, Neb., Aug. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The joint picnic of the farmers' institutes of Clark and Silver Creek, held midway between the two places in Mockridge's grove at Haven'siding, was attended by 800 people today. Prof. A. E. Davison of the University of Nebraska gave an address on "Agricultural Education," and Hon. A. C. Stallenberger of Alma talked on "Advantages of Improved Lays Stock." Two bands discoursed music and a match game of base ball between Clark and Haven resulted in the score of 12 to 3 in favor of the former. Seven head of Shorthorn cattle from the Willow Springs stock farm of I. C. Lawson and several pens of pure bred Jersey Duroc hogs, from J. E. Armstrong, of Senn, were on exhibition. The picnic continues Friday.

Distillers Not Wanted. NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—M. F. Elliott, general counsel for the Standard Oil company, denounces as absurd the report that the Standard Oil company had taken steps to acquire all of the principal distilleries in the United States recently introduced by the denatured alcohol law by congress. He said the Standard Oil company had no interest whatever in buying up distilleries.

tomorrow when a larger attendance is expected. Mayor of Schuyler Assailed. SCHUYLER, Neb., Aug. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Mayor Rathbun was tonight assailed by J. W. Bingham, and knocked down. J. W. Bingham was a number of times arrested for taking water from the city pump without privilege, to fill his water barrels for his hay field. After these arrests the key for the pump was taken away from him and given the mayor. Bingham hearing of this demanded the key of Mayor Rathbun, and being refused knocked him down. Bingham will be arrested.
