Fire Rains a Church.

The imposing church building, once owned fatuated with any young man. by the congregation of the First Christian church, located at the northeast corner of Fourteenth and K streets, caught fire this morning and is now in ruins. It was frightened last night, and had it not been erected seventeen years ago at a cost of $50,000 or $55,000 and was at one time re- might have resulted. garded as one of the finest places of worship in the city. Over two years ago it was bought at foreclosure sale by Bishop Bonacum, of the Catholic church, for $14,-000. Two weeks ago the work of remodeling the structure was begun and it was expected to complete the work early next year.

It is charged by Father Shine, rector of St. Theresa's pro-cathedral, and Father is named for the late General John M. George Agius, secretary to Bishop Bona-oum, that the building was set on fire by some fanatic who did not want to see the Catholics secure for their use a sanctuary that had once been devoted to Protestant service.

At 6:30 o'clock this morning John A. Delany, engineer of the Sawyer flats now under construction across the street, saw smoke coming out of the upper window over the south entrance. He ran over to investigate. Then he saw flames licking the windows. He ran to L and Fourteenth streets and turned in the alarm.

When the fire department reached the scene flames were shooting from a number of places under the roof. The water pressure was so feeble that it was about ten minutes before a stream could be thrown on the fire.

Before 8 o'clock the department had the fire under control. The great mass of ma-terial which had formed the support of the slate roof was still sending out great volumes of smoke and streams of water were playing over it.

Bishop Bonacum is out of the city, having gone east for a vacation trip and to escape the hay fever. Father Shine and George Agius, his private secretary, were seen at the cathedral house.
