Retailers Say They Will Be Unable to Turn Out in the Forencen.

OUESTION IS TO BE SETTLED* TODAY Association Members Have Been Too Busy to Prepare Booth for Carnival and Will Make Donation.

The Retail Grocers' and Butchers' associa tion, all the members of which are anxious to make a big display in the street fair and settle at once. carnival parade Monday, desire that the parade shall be changed from the morning to the afternoon. At the meeting of the association last night a committee consisting of President John T. Mulqueen, Secretary R. H. Huntingtop and Councilman Knude-son was appointed to confer this morning with the executive committee of the Commercial club and the Street Pair and Carnival company with a view of having the time of the parade changed.

The members of the association suggest that the parade be held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon instead of in the morning at 10 o'clock. The morning is the busiest time for the members of the association and they would be unable to turn out in the numbers that they would like at that time. If the parade is held to the afternoon, however, they will close their stores at noon wagons and teams in the procession.

The association offered to take a boom in the street fair and one was assigned ing and the fact that all the members have been otherwise busily engaged it has been found impossible to decorate this booth or prepare any display. At the meeting last ight it was decided to donate the rental of the booth to the carnival company and permit it to make such disposal of the booth as it deemed best.

VETERANS FLOCK TO OAKLAND Ten Thousand People Present on Sec ond Day of Reunion.

OAKLAND, Ia., Aug. 20,—(Special Telegram.)-Today was the second day of the reunion of the Pottawattamie County Veterans' association. The crowd was immense. Good judges estimate about 10,000 were on the reunion grounds and at the ball game in the forenoon. An address was made by Superintendent K. W. Brown of Ames. His speech was an eloquent and being its main feature. In the afternoon Rev. Orrin W. Fifer of Des Moines and Hon. H. W. Byers of Harlan were the speakers. Mr. Fifer dwelt on the patriotism of peace and stirred the audience with Preparations for the conveyance of the his firey eloquence. Mr. Byers, who is the of the state, made a masterly talk and won the hearts of the old vets as well as all who heard him.

A base ball tournament is a feature of the reunion, teams of Carson, Macedonia, Traynor and Hancock taking part. In the afternoon Carson won a spirited game of ten innings from Macedonia, the score being 6 to 5, placing that team in the lead. Tomorrow will be the last day of the reunion. The weather is fine and everything in pleasant, barring the dust, which is impossible to keep down.

CEDAR COUNTY TAKES THE PRIZE ON CORN

Custodian of Capitol Building Has Miscellaneous Collection of Valashles Dropped by State Fair Visitors.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Aug. 30.-(Special.)-The actual attendance at the state fair yesterday was 50.401, and the estimated attendance for today 45,000. Including the estimate for today the total attendance, beginning with Sunday, has thus far been 195,000. There will be 25,000 or 30,000 tomorrow. The total attendance for the week will exceed probably by 20,000 that of any other year. The fair directors are jubilant and there is now known to be a good profit in sight from the receipts for the fair. These profits will all go into permanent buildings and improvements on the grounds and serve to make next year's fair better than ever. There is annually carried over a balance of $20,000, but as that was carried over from last year, all of the profit this year will go into improvements. last day. Saturday will be devoted to removing the exhibits.

Mrs. F. L. Forney of Perry, Ia., was overcome by fright in the stock pavillon today when a big bay stallion broke its halter and went cavorting around the circle. She was taken to the hospital on the grounds and soon recovered. The stallion was captured before it had done any damage. Mrs. R. Vanderbender of Webster City was overcome in the same building by the close air and was taken to the home of friends in the city. She will probably be able to return home tomorrow. A man giving his name as Seikirk tried to sell a Pottawattamic county farmer one of the teams in the six-horse prize Armour team today for $200. neers Will Probably Be Adopted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 .- Locks for the Panama canal probably will be built ac cording to the specifications recommended by the majority of the consulting board of engineers, which favored the construction of a sea level waterway instead of the smaller type, as planned by the minority of the board. Under the plan of the mi nority the locks would be 100 feet wide with usable lengths of 1,000 feet. The plans adopted by congress provide for locks ninety-five feet wide, with usable lengths of 900 feet. With this exception it is said the minority plans will be followed. If a change is made in the size of the locks the Isthmian Canal commission takes the position that it will be acting within the discretion authorized by congress. As ships are now being built which would test the capacity of the 900-foat locks if offered for conveyance through the canal, Chief Engineer Stevens is of the opinion that I would be wise to increase the dimensions. Mr. Stevens is computing the additional amount of cement which will have to be purchased for the changed plans. He said that to assemble the amount of cement needed would require 125 carloads a day for two years. This would amount to 91,350 carloads. As the climate of the Isthmus killing his wife and several children, is a of Panama is such that cement cannot be kept in good condition for more than three wife and five children with a hatchet, the or four months, the problem of shipping is

It will be about two years before the work of constructing the locks will be begun. The Association of Cement Manufacturers in the United States has shown considerable activity in getting more advantageous shipping facilities between the isthmus and ports on the coast of the United States, and may therefore be prepared to compete with foreign cement One thing of which the cement manufac turers of the United States have complained is the stipulation made by the canal commission that cement shall be shipped to the isthmus in steam-propelled vessels, bacause it is claimed that cement deteriorated in damp holds of slow-going schooners. When specifications are made it is nor thought they will provide for the delivery up to a certain standard and bidders therefore would be able to make their own ar rangements for shipping.

Railrosa Laborers Wanted.

ABERDEEN. S. D., Aug. 30.—(Special.)—
The scarcity of labor is proving a serious handicap in the railroad extensions in this vicinity. The Minneapolis & St. Louis has large forces of men at work on each of the three divisions, but the road could handle many more workmen. The same condition is true with the Milwaukee in its coast extension and the Chamberlain-Rapid City line.

Me have not come hither to awaken in any ungenerous sense divisions which made this spot historic, but rather to contrast the present with the past, to recall the hereic service of men in the interests of home and country, to kindle anew our patriotic zeal and to glory in the triumpis of freedom in America.

The contest which followed the passage of the Karsas was unique in our national experience. The war which waged here was its natural fruit. The engagement was a sporatic outburst—a stray shot upon the picket line—and truly presaged the larger engagements of the mighty armies of the north and the south.

FAIRBANKS ON JOHN BROWN

Vice President of United States Delivers Address at Csawatomie.

CELEBRATION HELD ON BATTLE GROUNL

Semi-Centennial of First Armed Conflict Over Slavery Question is Observed at John Brown's Old Home.

OSAWATOMIE, Kan., Aug. 30.-Here oday on the battlefield where half a century ago the first armed conflict over slavery took place, Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks delivered a stirring address to 6,000 persons. The occasion was the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Ossawattomie, in which John Brown was a central figure.

Mr. Fairbanks was given a rousing reception at the train upon his arrival this morning from the east. He was escorted to the Masonic temple, where a reception was held, and later an excursion made to the state insane asylum and that institution inspected. After luncheon he was escorted by two companies of cavalry the famous battle ground. There military salute was fired in his honor an he was cheered by the crowds. On the stand with Mr. Fairbanks were Governor Hoch, United States Senators Long and Benson and several other prominent sans. Tommorrow Governor Hoch of Kansas will be the principal speaker.

Address of Vice President. Vice President Fairbunks said in part Vice President Fairbanks said in part:

This occasion takes our minds back to a period of dramatic interest in American history, to a time when the passions among the people were deeply stirred. The times then were ominous. The people could see the fast gathering clouds of an impending contest, a contest between the friends of freedom and slavery for ultimate supremacy. It was a day of acrimony, of bitterness, of sharp impeachment of the motives, the purposes and the patriotism of mea.

Shadow of Disunion Passes. The day of slavery is fast receding. Its stories and tragedies seem almost to be part of mythological lore. The present wears such a different aspect from the strained and tragic past. The and shadow of disunion has passed and the north and the south are knitted together by mutual been vouchsafed to us through the sacri-fice of those who have achieved it. The weak must be safeguarded against the un-weak must be safeguarded against the unjust encroachments of the strong. All must be protected to the utmost in the opportunity to enjoy the privileges which were intended to be and are of right theirs under the genius and spirit of American institutions. We face the future minimum with golden promise, resolved to make our country greater than it greater in material power, but greater; all in the splendid character of its a hip; a country where the dominant ... mall be fair play for all the forces which make for the advancement of a great, righteous people.

Mr. Fairbanks left; late in the day for Mr. Fairbanks left late in the day for Dodge City, Kan,, where tomorrow he is to speak at a Grand Army of the Republic reunion. From Dodge City he will go to Bolse City, Idaho, as the guest of the National Irrigation congress.

ANSWER DIRECTORS MUST New York Court Holds Suit Against Insurance Men Good In Part.

NEW YORK, Aug. 39.-The Equitable Life Assurance society and its directors, according to a decision by Justice Bischoff n the supreme court today, must defend the suit brought against them by State Attorney General Mayer to compel an accounting as to the management and disposition of the funds and praperty of the society. The suit also demands that the directors be compelled to repay any of the society's money which may have been lost or wasted by a violation of the duties of the directors.

The court uphoids a demurrer interposed by the attorney for the defendants that there was improper joinder of causes of action, but rules that the directors must answer the complaint of the attorney general insofar as it may be effected by the sustaining of the demurrer as to improper joinder. 'Twenty days is allowed the defendant in which to make answer

In addition to demand an accounting of funds, the attorney general's suit also asks that any defendant now a director or officer in the society shall be removed upon proof of misconduct.
