f. G. Cometock of the big cattle and land hat of Richards & Comstock, was in Omaha Saturday morning to give his testimony in the civil case brought against his company for illegally enclosing government lands in Cherry and Sheridan coun-His testimony and that of one or two of the secret service officials of the government was taken before D. W. Dickinson, special examiner in the office of the United States district attorney.

Mr. Comstock sald: "Mr. Bartlett Richards and family are still at the ranch near Elisworth and Mr. Richards' health is improving slowly since his return from France."

The presence of Mr. Comstock in the elty has nothing to do with the conspiracy case against himself and Mr. Richards, which is set for trial for November 12, in the United States district court.
