

MARY AND HER LITTLE LAMB

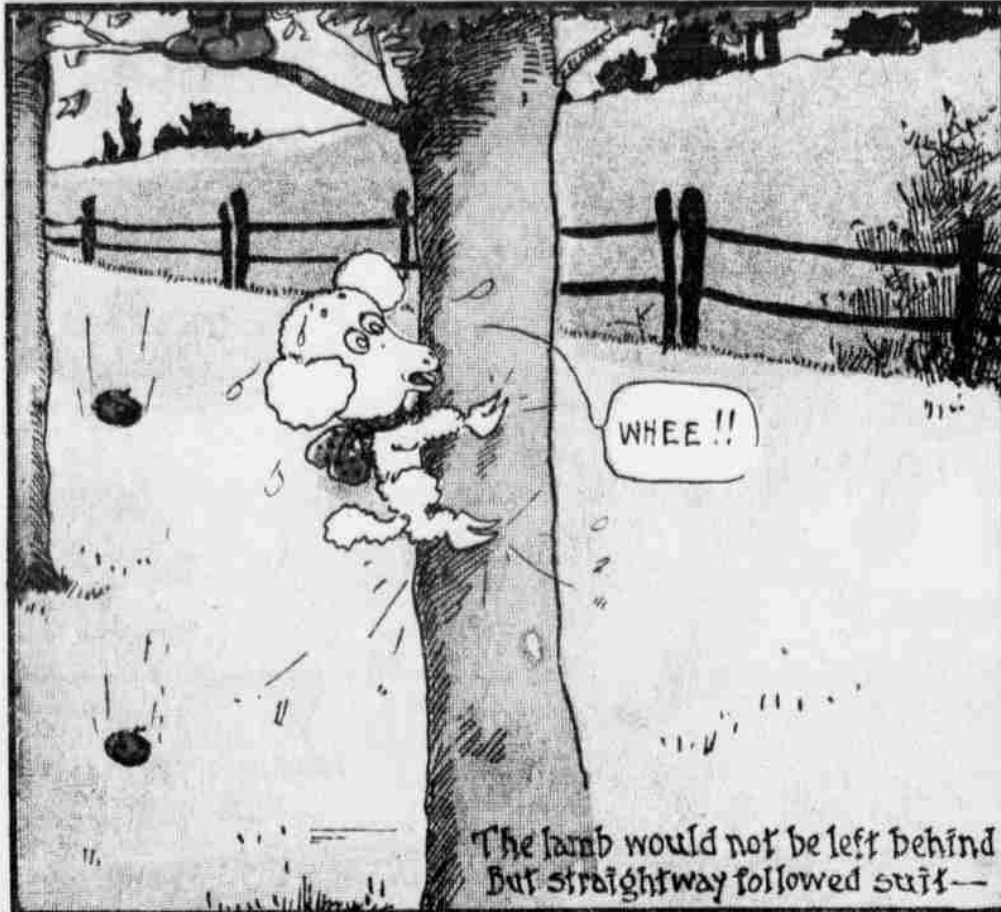

The little lamb that Mary had Would never stay at home—

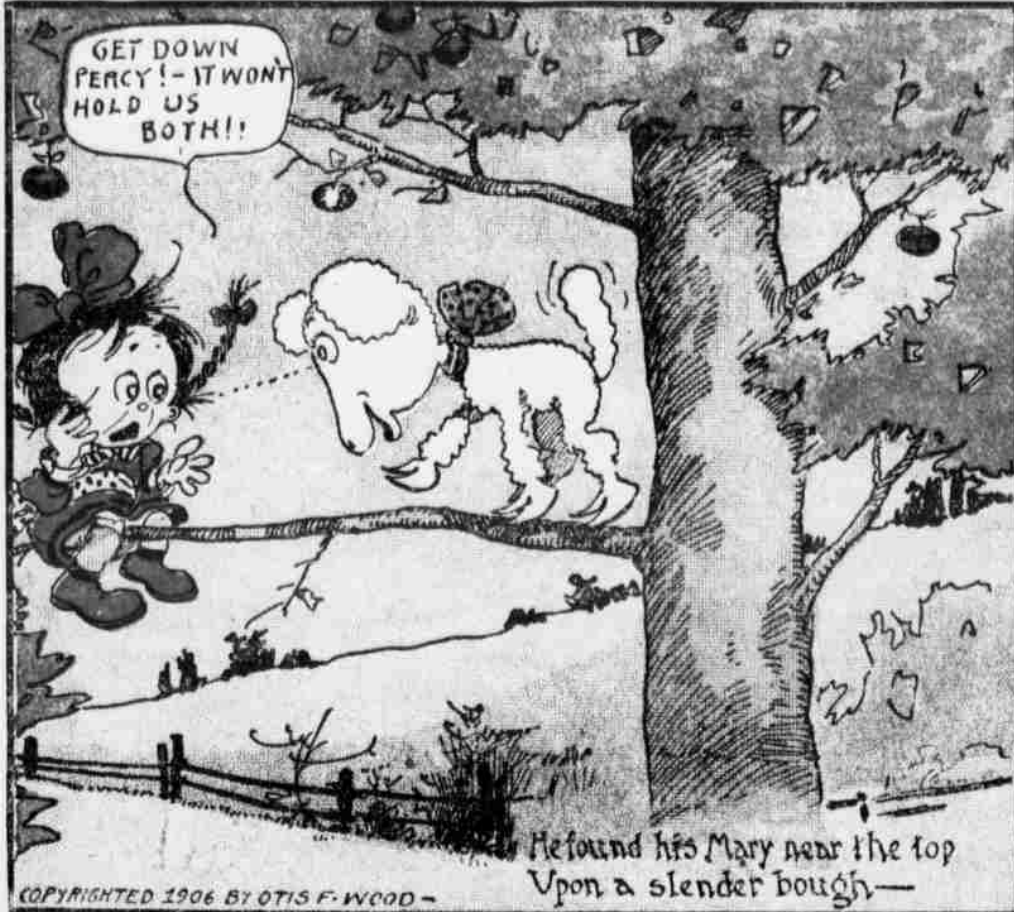

But followed up his mistress dear Wherever she did roam—

When Mary sought an apple tree To pluck some luscious fruit—

The lamb would not be left behind But straightway followed suit—

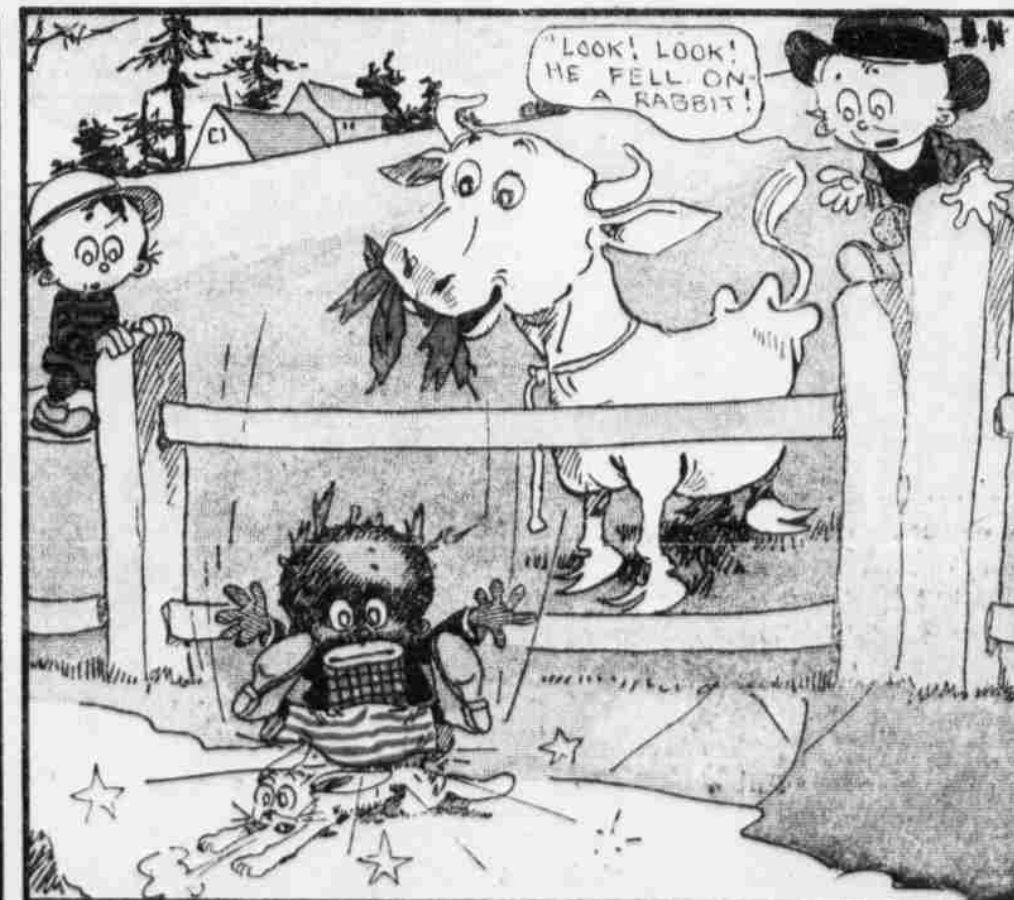

He found his Mary near the top Upon a slender bough—

A-fack-a-day—the limb gave way That lamb is sorry now!

COPYRIGHTED 1906 BY OTIS F. WOOD

SAMBO AND HIS FUNNY NOISES

COPYRIGHTED 1906 BY OTIS F. WOOD