

STARTS FOR WEST

W. J. Bryan, escorted by Home Folks, Leaves New York in Special Train.

FIRST STOP WILL BE IN DETROIT Men from Antelope State Will Spend Today in City of Straits.

TUESDAY WILL BE SPENT IN WINDY CITY Party Will Reach Omaha Wednesday Morning at 2:30.

MR. BRYAN'S TRIBUTE TO MR. ROSEWATER Nebraskan Says Founder of the Bee Always Made Courageous Attack Against Things He Believed to Be Wrong.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Tired but exceedingly well satisfied with their visit to the nation's metropolis, Mr. Bryan's home folks left Jersey City at 5:30 today over the Lehigh Valley railroad, with Mr. Bryan, W. J. Bryan and Miss Grace Bryan on the train which will reach Omaha, was made a buffet and baggage car, four seats, and a private party car "Sunset."

From the moment of his arrival, Wednesday Mr. Bryan has had but little time to rest. Whether he will or will not be a candidate for the presidency in 1908, one thing is certain, the "Peerless" leader is looking after his interests as a candidate for the presidency in 1908, and wherever possible is endeavoring to close up gaps in rival camps.

Mr. Bryan's reception in both Newark and Jersey City yesterday was extremely pleasing to him. While he did not desire to be quoted, he made it plainly understood that he was greatly touched by the warmth of the greeting accorded to him, and privately could not say enough in praise of Jersey men.

First Stop at Detroit. The train which is carrying the happy band of sterling Nebraskans to their homes will make its first real stop at Detroit, Mich., and it plainly understood that he was greatly touched by the warmth of the greeting accorded to him, and privately could not say enough in praise of Jersey men.

Mr. Bryan's trip across North river from New York to Jersey took occasion to speak of Edward Rosewater and the things he stood for. He said to me that immediately upon learning of the death of the editor of The Bee he had wired Mrs. Rosewater his condolences.

After his reception at Lincoln Mr. Bryan will have ten days' rest, but on September 11 he will have a meeting at St. Louis, on the 13th at Louisville and on the 15th at Cincinnati.

BATTLE WITH THE BLACK HAND

Attempt to Arrest Alleged Murderer Leads to Death of Two Pennsylvania Officials.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., Sept. 2.—In a bloody battle this evening between foreigners and the twenty-one members of Troop D, state constabulary, in which fully 50 shots were fired, two troopers were killed and one fatally wounded, while three other persons received bullet wounds.

Private John Henry, aged 26 years, home, Philadelphia. Private Frank Zehring, aged 26, home, Conshohocken, near Philadelphia. Privately wounded: Private Homer C. Chambers, home, Rochester, Pa.

The trouble began late this afternoon when Sergeant Logan went to Florence to search for Leopold Scarlat, who is charged with shooting his brother-in-law, Bruno Traxone, Friday night. Logan was in the boating house to provide good character of the most desperate members of the Black Hand, started to fight with a countryman in front of the house where Waltoch boards.

Private William A. Mullen of Harrisburg, First Sergeant Joseph Logan of Dubois and George Feltsak, aged 12, received minor wounds.

On Saturday, at Oyster Bay, President Roosevelt will attend the ceremonies in celebration of the 26th anniversary of Christ church, Oyster Bay, and will deliver an address on the following dates: Monday, September 3; Tuesday, September 4; Wednesday, September 5; Thursday, September 6; Saturday, September 8; Sunday, September 9.

One of the most important events in the prize ring in recent months will be decided Monday, when Joe Gans, the negro lightweight, will meet "Batling" Nelson at Goldfield, Nevada.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—An experiment with a view not only to the saving of expense, but to the economizing of time is being conducted in the Chicago postoffice. It is the elimination of the use of the back stamp on letters which indicates to the recipient of a letter the precise time of its arrival in the delivering office from the sending point.

FORECAST OF WEEK'S EVENTS

President Will Review Great Fleet Off Oyster Bay Today.

PRIZEFIGHT AT GOLDFIELDS, NEVADA Gans and Nelson Will Meet Today—Negro Is Favorite in Betting.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Tomorrow, Labor day, what will probably be the greatest assemblage of war vessels to the history of the western hemisphere, will be reviewed by President Roosevelt in the waters of Long Island Sound, off Oyster Bay.

On Saturday, at Oyster Bay, President Roosevelt will attend the ceremonies in celebration of the 26th anniversary of Christ church, Oyster Bay, and will deliver an address on the following dates: Monday, September 3; Tuesday, September 4; Wednesday, September 5; Thursday, September 6; Saturday, September 8; Sunday, September 9.

One of the most important events in the prize ring in recent months will be decided Monday, when Joe Gans, the negro lightweight, will meet "Batling" Nelson at Goldfield, Nevada.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—An experiment with a view not only to the saving of expense, but to the economizing of time is being conducted in the Chicago postoffice. It is the elimination of the use of the back stamp on letters which indicates to the recipient of a letter the precise time of its arrival in the delivering office from the sending point.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—An experiment with a view not only to the saving of expense, but to the economizing of time is being conducted in the Chicago postoffice. It is the elimination of the use of the back stamp on letters which indicates to the recipient of a letter the precise time of its arrival in the delivering office from the sending point.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—An experiment with a view not only to the saving of expense, but to the economizing of time is being conducted in the Chicago postoffice. It is the elimination of the use of the back stamp on letters which indicates to the recipient of a letter the precise time of its arrival in the delivering office from the sending point.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—An experiment with a view not only to the saving of expense, but to the economizing of time is being conducted in the Chicago postoffice. It is the elimination of the use of the back stamp on letters which indicates to the recipient of a letter the precise time of its arrival in the delivering office from the sending point.

PRESIDENT'S SPELLING REFORM

Roosevelt Says Change Will Be Dropped if It Does Not Meet Popular Approval.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 2.—In a letter to Charles O. Smith, public printer at Washington, made public today, President Roosevelt wrote that if the changes in spelling advocated by the simplified spelling board and put into use in official documents meets popular approval they will be made permanent, but that if they will be dropped. The president's letter follows:

Hon. Charles A. Stillings, Public Printer, Washington, D. C.—My Dear Mr. Stillings: I am glad to hear that you are in favor of the simplified spelling board, which can be obtained free from the board at No. Madison avenue, New York City.

Hon. Charles A. Stillings, Public Printer, Washington, D. C.—My Dear Mr. Stillings: I am glad to hear that you are in favor of the simplified spelling board, which can be obtained free from the board at No. Madison avenue, New York City.

Hon. Charles A. Stillings, Public Printer, Washington, D. C.—My Dear Mr. Stillings: I am glad to hear that you are in favor of the simplified spelling board, which can be obtained free from the board at No. Madison avenue, New York City.

Hon. Charles A. Stillings, Public Printer, Washington, D. C.—My Dear Mr. Stillings: I am glad to hear that you are in favor of the simplified spelling board, which can be obtained free from the board at No. Madison avenue, New York City.

Hon. Charles A. Stillings, Public Printer, Washington, D. C.—My Dear Mr. Stillings: I am glad to hear that you are in favor of the simplified spelling board, which can be obtained free from the board at No. Madison avenue, New York City.

Hon. Charles A. Stillings, Public Printer, Washington, D. C.—My Dear Mr. Stillings: I am glad to hear that you are in favor of the simplified spelling board, which can be obtained free from the board at No. Madison avenue, New York City.

FAMILIAR FIGURE ABSENT

Knights of the Key Will Miss the Face of Edward Rosewater.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

NEBRASKA WEATHER FORECAST

Fair Today and Tomorrow.

Table with 4 columns: Hour, Deg., Hour, Deg. Rows include 5 a.m., 8 a.m., 11 a.m., 2 p.m., 5 p.m., 8 p.m., 11 p.m.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

NOW AT FINAL REST

Edward Rosewater Consigned to Earth in Presence of Many Thousands.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The face of Edward Rosewater, for many years a familiar feature of the reunions of the Old Time Telegraphers and Military Telegraphers Association, and the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, will be missed when these bodies meet in Washington this fall.