I pointed out to him that as he held his seat by fraud, there could be no harmony in the democratic party in the state until he, by resigning, showed his respect for the wishes of the majority at the last state convention. Instead of resigning he asked for an endorsement from the state convention. He charged that I was deceived by Mt. Damilap. The charge was so obviously nature that it ought not to have deceived anyone.

At the flational convention in St. Louis I had in writing a request for his repudiation signed by more than half of the delegates to the state convention. Had Mr. Sullivan any of the instincts of a democrat; had he the first conception of what democracy means, he would not have consented so hold his place against the wishes of the convention. McGarvie, former manager of exloitation at the Transmississippi exposiion, has organized a company to run "The Water Belt Line" around Hampton Roads during the Jamestown exposition which is to be held next year. Boats will leave the starting point, Norfolk, at regular hours and will touch at Portsmout! Newport News, Old Point Comfort and other places, passing around the war fleet at anchor in the Roads and then stopping at the exposition grounds. The boats will land at these points hourly and passengers will be permitted to stop over or make a continuous trip. The boat line, it is said, will afford a good view of the war ships which are to be a big feature
