Neither of the Three Bullets Strikes John Dolson, the young man who after a quarrel with a young woman acquaintance Wednesday night at the street fair and carnival grounds went to his home at 1412 Avenue B and attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself, was reported to be doing well at the General hospital yesterday, with every prospect for his recovery. Young Dolson, who is about 21 years of age, fired three shots, but his aim was poor. He intended evidently to send a bullet through his heart, but two of the bullets entered the left shoulder, the third went into a hole in the atmosphere only.

At the Dolson home the members of the family declined to discuss the young man's case, the supposed case leading up to it. The young woman with whom Dolson is said to have quarreled is said to be acting as cashier at one of the concessions in the street fair and carnival.

Hooker Booked for Knoxville. Fred C. Hooker, who conducts a grocery store at 1506 High street, kicked over the traces again Wednesday night and is now booked for a sojourn at the State Hospital for Insane at Knoxville. About two weeks ago Hooker was committed by Judge Wheeler to Knoxville for a term of eighteen months, but the commitment was suspended on his promise to behave himself and refrain from liquor. Wednesday night, however, Hooker was drinking heavily and his wife feared to return home while he was in the house. The police were sent for and Hooker spent the night behind the bars at the city jail. Yesterday in the absence of Judge Wheeler the district court Judge Scott placed Hooker in the custody of his brother-in-law pending Judge Wheeler's return.
