

MAYOR FIGHTS FOR TOM LEE

Dahlman, Overridden by Council, Resists Its Appointment for City Prosecutor.

SAYS HE WILL CARRY CASE TO COURTS

Daniel Proceeds to Qualify, but Chief Executive Notifies Police Judge and Office to Recognize Present Incumbent.

As a sequel to the election of H. E. Daniel to the city prosecutorship by the city council at a special meeting...

"I certainly shall resist the election of Mr. Daniel by the city council Thursday afternoon," said Mayor Dahlman.

It is the contention of the mayor that in view of no appointment having been received from his office by the council Tuesday evening the council had a right and should have proceeded to elect a city prosecutor...

Lee Insists on Staying.

The mayor feels confident he will win out in his fight against the action of the council Thursday afternoon.

There is much difference of opinion regarding the legal status of the case and present indications are that it will take a judge to declare who will be city prosecutor.

City Attorney Burnam is of the opinion that the council could not have taken any action Tuesday evening...

Connell's Views of it.

W. J. Connell, who was questioned on the subject, said several legal points were involved in the matter.

"If, as some contend, both mayor and council allowed the appointment to go by default last Tuesday evening, then Mr. Lee will continue in office as a 'holderover,'" said Mr. Connell.

Mr. Connell is inclined, however, to the opinion that the council proceeded irregularly Thursday afternoon by not considering the mayor's appointment which was before them and in the hands of the city clerk.

Mr. Connell did not think the council could properly have made an election Tuesday night and also thought the special meeting out of order inasmuch as the mayor's appointment was in the hands of the city clerk before that meeting was called to order.

Herbert B. Daniel said Friday morning he would proceed to file his bond and qualify in the usual manner and meet developments as they arise.

Mr. Daniel's bond will be before the council for approval Tuesday evening at the regular meeting.

In the event of Mr. Lee refusing to surrender the office to Mr. Daniel on demand, the latter will, it is reported, institute quo warranto proceedings in the district court.

LOOKING GLASS IN HIS HAT

Mirror in Headgear Problem for Two Nebraska Cattlemen at Hotel.

Charles Conway, a Cheyenne man, and T. K. Anderson, a stockman from out about Sidney, put in an appearance at the Merchants a few days ago, both wearing new Stetson hats of identical color and shape...

Both hats were placed on the hat rack and the two went into dinner, where it says, "Not responsible for lost hats."

In the shifting around of other hats the two Stetsons became changed in their positions and, as is the usual result, Anderson got Conway's hat in the wind-up.

Anderson took off the hat and saw his own reflection in the little round glass and admitted that he didn't know how homely he was until he got a short range look.

The hats were exchanged, but Anderson insisted on exchanging the coin for the drinks instead of having Conway do it.

DIAMONDS AND MONEY GONE

Valuables of Hotel Guest Supposed to Have Been Taken by Bell Boys.

A couple of bell boys are missing from the Millard hotel and also a diamond shirt stud valued at $100, and $105 in money from one of the guests, named Harry Oliver, a jewelry salesman from New York City.

Thursday afternoon about 8 o'clock Mr. Oliver went to the hotel desk, took out his money, placed his diamond stud with the money and handed them to the person behind the desk at the hotel for safe keeping.

Mr. Oliver was given an envelope to put his valuables in and was told he would not be given a receipt for them.

When he called for the envelope about 9 o'clock Thursday night the package was not to be found and none of the employees of the hotel knew anything about it.

It is presumed Mr. Oliver handed the envelope containing the diamond and money to one of the bell boys, who took advantage of the absence of the regular clerk from behind the desk, received the package and appropriated the contents.

All the bell boys at the time of the occurrence remained on duty for their full time and the absence of the two boys in question was not noticed until it came time for them to report again.

GOOD RAIN ON ROCK ISLAND

Ample Moisture Insures Bumper Corn Crop and Helps the Pastures.

Since the last Burlington soil and crop report was issued the Rock Island has had word that the whole state along its line has had a good soaking, putting corn and pastures in fine condition.

Some time, Nebraska is quite liable to be blessed with a bumper crop of corn. Considerable of this corn was planted late and with the recent rains and the continuance of the present fine weather should return a bumper crop.
