

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Connell Meets and Awards Contracts for Construction of Sewers.

NATIONAL CONSTRUCTION GETS BIG END

Hannan & Craig and James Jensen Awarded the Other Portions of the Work—Construction to Stop When Money is Gone.

The city council Thursday night let the contract for the sewers as provided for in the $200,000 bond issue as follows: National Construction company, Mad creek sewer, $148,178.29; Jetter creek sewer, $46,954.54.

Hannan & Craig, N street creek sewer, $22,550.19; north branch N street sewer, $17,227.97; Highland park sewer, $11,983.23.

James Jensen, Twenty-first street main, $7,415.62.

These were considered the lowest and best of all the bids filed as heretofore published. When the money on hand runs out work is to stop under the contract until more funds are provided.

It took the council only a few minutes to award the contracts and with the exception of allowing some minor claims no other business was transacted. The bids accepted were recommended by the committee on viaducts, streets and alleys as a substitute for the report of the committee filed at the last meeting of the council.

The law under which the bonds were issued to pay for the construction of these sewers was enacted by the last legislature, the bill being introduced by Senator Gilson of South Omaha.

Several women appeared to protest against the grading of Twenty-seventh street, from F to I, but as this matter had not been presented to the council there was no need for the protest at this time.

The papers said that already under orders from the city, put down brick paving and to grade the street would necessitate the relaying of the paving. The council adjourned early so the members could attend the carnival, and will meet again Monday night.

Little One with Whiskers. Deputy Labor Commissioner C. Burnett Bush has spent the last few days going through the packing houses.

Mr. Bush, under the law, is directed to see that the child labor law is enforced, and with child labor is going through the big institutions here, searching for an infraction of the law.

Of course, the coming of the governor's representative has not been heralded with a brass band, and neither is he disguised as a working man, but, nevertheless, unknown to the packers, he is "doing" their establishments.

This inspection of the packing houses is an annual stunt for the labor commissioner and it is pulled off usually about the time school begins, so that those of school age may be discovered and forced to attend school.

Just what Mr. Bush discovered he will not say, but it is the general belief the packers have been very tender not to employ any children of too tender years to work in their establishments.

A somewhat humorous incident occurred Friday morning during Mr. Bush's excursion through the buildings. He saw a party about the size of a flat bottle working away for dear life.

"How old are you, sonny?" said the big commissioner, as he touched the little one on the shoulder.

"What's that?" snarled the little one, as he whirled around and his popliteal whiskers shot up under Bush's chin.

"Nothing at all, nothing," said the big commissioner, as he brushed away the whiskers. "How old are you, sonny?"

BRYAN TALKS TO LABORERS

Agrees to Speak Monday at Labor Festival to Be Held in Krug Park.

GOMPERS AND DEBS COME LATER IN WEEK

Candidates for State Offices and Congress Will Also Address Meetings—Series of Questions Being Prepared for Candidates.

William Jennings Bryan, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Eugene V. Debs are three speakers of national prominence who have promised to be at the Labor Festival to be given at Krug park beginning next Monday.

Mr. Bryan's consent to take part in the program was secured by Secretary Hansen of the Central Labor union yesterday. He will deliver the principal address Monday afternoon. Mr. Gompers and Mr. Debs have both promised to deliver addresses Saturday, the closing day of the festival.

A nominal charge of 10 cents will be made for the exercises Monday afternoon, the proceeds to go toward the labor union building fund. Mr. Bryan will speak at 8 p. m.

The program was announced last night at a meeting of the Central Labor union. The principal features are as follows: Monday, September 18, opening day. Mayor J. C. Dahman, master of ceremonies; William J. Bryan, principal speaker.

Tuesday, South Omaha day. Mayor Thomas Hoctor, master of ceremonies; Congressman John A. Kennedy, master of ceremonies; William J. Bryan, principal speaker.

Wednesday, Council Bluffs day. Mayor Donald Macrae, master of ceremonies; G. M. Hildebrand, principal speaker.

Thursday, Lincoln day. Bert Cox, master of ceremonies. Principal speakers, Senator George B. Steiwer, candidate for United States senator, and J. S. Schallenger, democratic candidate for governor.

Friday, Omaha day. Mr. Simon, master of ceremonies. John O. Yelzer and others will speak.

Saturday, Organized Labor day. John Pollan, master of ceremonies. Speakers, Samuel Gompers, Eugene V. Debs and others. Athletic contests will be held in the afternoon.

The program has been arranged by a committee of which L. V. Guze is chairman.

Questions for Candidates. The Central Labor union decided to ask all candidates for office some pertinent questions as to their position on questions of interest to the organization.

The matter was brought up by President Pollan, who suggested that the candidates for congress be asked where they stood on the eight-hour law and the anti-trust bill.

It was decided to broaden the scope of the questions and ask them of all candidates. The law committee was directed to draw up the set of questions.

The members of the city council came in for a vigorous roasting for failure to pass the initiative and referendum bill, which was introduced into that body. The law committee, in its report, scored several of the members for going back on alleged promises to support the measure.

The central body will continue the campaign and direct the law committee to bring before the council again, this time independently of the improvement clubs, with which they worked before.

The fact that Ed. Leeder, a candidate for the legislature and a member of Engine company No. 3, had been cited to appear before the Finance and Police commission for violating the rules by running for office, brought out protests from several members.

On motion of Mr. Guy, the law committee was authorized to assist Mr. Leeder before the board and employ an attorney to defend him.

The union took no action on an invitation to send a representative to Chicago to attend the ceremonies attending the dedication to the cause of union labor of the infant son of President H. G. Creel of the International Labor News bureau, which will take place at the middle of September. The ceremony will be held in a church in Chicago. The invitation was placed on file.

Warren K. Wood is the holder of the north and south golf championship title which he won at Pinehurst, N. C., last spring. He won the open tournament of the Columbia Golf club of Washington, D. C., last March and carried off first honors in the Glenview Golf club tournament of Chicago this year.

Two Men Up for Robbery with but a Nickel as Fruits of Their Harvest. About 5:30 Saturday morning, as P. Curry was passing in front of the Oxford hotel at Twelfth and Farnam streets, J. Murphy and J. McGraw, members of Kilpatrick's garding camp, accosted him with the command to throw up his hands and deliver over all of his portable worldly possessions.

Murphy and McGraw grabbed Curry around the body, searched him thoroughly, but obtained only one lonely nickel, which was not enough even materially to increase the "load" which both of Curry's assailants then had. Curry called the police and Murphy and McGraw will now have to answer to the charge of robbery and with only the price of a beer to show for their trouble.

DR. FORCE MUST SERVE TIME. President of Northwestern National Life is Denied Motion for New Trial. MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 8.—Dr. Jacob F. Force, former president of the Northwestern National Life insurance company, must serve three and one-half years in the penitentiary unless the supreme court grants him a new trial.

Judge F. C. Brooks today denied a motion for a new trial in the district court. Dr. Force was charged with having extorted $100,000 from the personal use of large sums belonging to the insurance company.

Alleged Revolutionists Taken. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The Department of Justice has received a telegram from United States Marshal Daniels of Arizona stating that a large number of warrants have been issued and served upon Mexicans in that territory who were organizing expeditions against the government of Mexico. The marshal stated that hearings are going on today at Douglas, Ariz.

KINSLER FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY. Candidate Writes an Open Letter to the Voters. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 8, 1906. To the Republican Voters of Douglas County:

The writer is a candidate for nomination for county attorney. The primaries will be held on the 18th inst. less than ten days hence. The time for campaigning is very short and it will be impossible for me to call personally on all the voters. Let me, therefore, urge upon every republican who wishes to see me elected, that he do all he can to further my candidacy with his republican friends between now and the 18th and then go to the polls and vote for me and urge his friends to do likewise.

It will help me very little to have you for me unless you vote for me. My democratic friends who cannot vote for me at the primary may help if they desire to do so by asking republicans to vote for me. I am not so well acquainted to vote for me.

If nominated and elected county attorney it will be my object and purpose to give the best possible administration of the office, not only as public prosecutor, but also in the matter of advising with the other county officials, particularly the county commissioners, in looking after the business affairs and interests of the county. JAMES C. KINSLER.

FAMOUS MONK WILL BE HERE

Teddy is Not Dead and Will Appear at the Carnival.

MANAGER SO INFORMS DOC BREED

Reports that Monkey by that Name Had Been Slain by Dog Are Run Down.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Doc Breed, manager of the Ak-Sar-Ben Carnival, Omaha, today will keep his engagement in Omaha this month. Not killed by dog, "That was another monkey." ROLAND PARKER.

Yesterday morning Doc Breed, manager of the Ak-Sar-Ben carnival, received this telegram stating that "Teddy," the famous little monkey, will positively appear at the fall carnival.

Managers of the carnival, including Senator Bailey of Texas, John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, and other democratic leaders, north and south, now declare that he is not a statesman, and that he is not capable of wise leadership of the democratic party.

I will make two predictions, and will ask you, my dear Judge, to bear them in mind as a personal courtesy to me, as follows: If Mr. Bryan stands upon government ownership of all trunk lines of railroad in our country in the national convention, he will not be nominated again for president by that convention.

If he shall be nominated at all, he will be on his own platform, no matter what the written platform may be, and he will be worse beaten at the ballot boxes in 1908 than he was in 1900.

I am, however, your friend, GEORGE L. MILLER.

The charge of violation of the immigration laws was entered against Trevino Salcido, Humbert and three others at the request of the Mexican government, which will deal with them should their deportation be ordered. These prisoners will be confined at Tucson.
