AMERICAN INVESTMENTS THREATENED

Natives Desire to Render Concessions Valueless or Regain Them and Violation of Agreement is Alleged.

WASHINGTON. Bept. 11.-Mail advices received here from China are disquieting to Americans having financial interests in the orient. There is no abatement of the anti-foreign feeling and the animosity is no anger confined to Americans, but includes ail foreigners except Japanese. A formid-the party has arisen and is conducting au active propaganda. It is known as "rerights," and its purpose is drive the foreigners out of business in China, and to that end to begin to render valueless the foreign investments. In some quarters the Chinese government is alleged to sympathize with the movement, and, at any rate, capitalists interested in important concessions are complaining that the Chinese officials are deliberately destroying their holdings and violating their agreements at every turn. More than any other nationality, the English are said to be in uriously affected by this attitude of the hinese government.

with the deliberate purpose of destroying the value of an' English concession and greatly injuring Hong Kong, and there are allegations that mining concessions granted to British subjects have been held up and

The veterans deny these insinuations. They are all apparently solely interested, for the moment, at least, in seuring peace. When General Menacol was uestioned on the subject today he glanced at the clock and declared he had hoped that by that hour the whole matter would have been definitely settled. He had a telegram from Pino Guerra expressing that leader's willingness to accept terms to which the government did not object.

The medical work naturally fails into two classes, therapeutic and prophylactic. A military dispensary must necessarily be mobile and consequently exclude elaborate preparations and confine itself to one of several agents, each of which may accom-pilsh the same purpose. 1. Portability of supplies. 2. Adaptability of the supply table. To these may be added a third feature, represented in the person of the medical officer himself. 3. The ability to utilize the therapeutic means afforded him. In National Guard work, where an en-campment is for but a short period, it will be possible as well for medical officers to take with them any additional agents which their own methods of practice cause them to feel to be needed. This plan, however, is to be discouraged, because it violates the discouraged, because it violates the discouraged to the annual encampment, which is to afford to the men, unobstructed by their ordinary avocations, the oppor-tunities of military experience in a condi-tion as nearly approaching actual service as may be. asserted he was unwilling to declare himself its author. But the conditions of military serv-nee, where large aggregations of men are accumulated with reciprocal action upon one another, are fraught with possibilities of disease. A single bit of neglect will open the door for a thousand misfortunes. It well behooves the medical man to be constantly on guard and to continually keep hefore the service the dangers which he sees and possibly alone appreciates. which a great deal of emphasis must be laid, experience having shown it perhaps to be the wenkest feature of the medical offi-cer's work. The correct record not only protects the government from the assaults of unworthy claimants upon its treasury, but it assists in the obtaining of relief to worthy men who have suffered disabilities through military service. Paper work is of an importance of the first class and second only to therapeusis and prophylaxis. It is especially advised that the state forces abandon the use of special forms for these records and utilize those of the national government.
