JETTER PROPERTY IS SOLD

Large Tract of South Omaha Real Estate in Deal of Much Interest.

SOME THOUGHT OF NEW PACKING PLANT

chaser and Contemplates Bullding Not Fully Accredited by Knowing Ones.

Deeds were filed Friday morning which represent a protty big deal in real estate in South Omaha. One of the parties to the transaction was the Jetter Brewing ompany, the original owner of the proplying between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth and extending southward from T to Y, street. On this property stand the Krit-tenbrink brick yards and the Jetter ball sented by T. J. O'Neil, but even he de-clares that he made out the deed in blank for parties in the east, presumably Chicago, and is unable to say who the real purhaser is. The purchase price was $34,060, being one of the largest prices ever offered for similar property in the city. This is an average of about $2,500 per acre. Mr. O'Nell said it might mean a new industry tated to say that it was intended for s packing plant. He said he was confident that the purchase was made for objects greater than more speculation.

Kenyon Wants to Know.

W. J. C. Kenyon expressed the opinion hat it was not probable that Nelson Morris could be seeking to introduce his interests at this point. The location was too far from the stock yards. He dictated a letter to Stanton Palmer of Armour & Co., in the presence of a reporter, setting forth the popular rumor and asking to be informed as soon as possible should there be the least foundation for such a move. It is not likely, even though Mr. Armour should have a controlling interest in the stock yards and be able to dictate a policy, that he would permit a packing plant to come to South Omaha and locate outside the Union Stock Yards district, the reason being that his interests in the yards would undoubtedly repay him for any effect which additional competition of another plant would bring.

Mr. Kenyon said it was true that Nelson Morris, as well as Swift and Company, and an interest in the Omaha Packing company's plant and might possibly have there all the hold on this market that they de-

"Of course," he said, "I have heard of rumors of a packing plant, but they have been, so far as I know, merely ru-Paimer for information and as soon as we have anything definite will inform you."

The members of the firm of the Jetter Brewing company expressed quite as little which they have sold at so good a figure as either Mr. Kenyon or Mr. O'Neill. Martin Jetter expressed doubt as to the development of a new packing house and inclined to the belief that several factories
