

What Is Generally Accepted Is Correct

BROWN AND BLUE, in all its distinctive shades, has by universal acceptance been proclaimed the kings of colors for autumn, 1906. The most reliable designers have shown us that this would be the case, so we took the hint and turned our thoughts and endeavors toward bringing together a contrasting assortment of correctly and stylishly modeled suits in all the various shades of brown and blue.

EVERY TRUE WOMAN aims to be stylishly dressed, and no woman can be considered stylishly dressed unless she is correctly dressed, and in getting your fall wrap at this reliable exclusive house you are assured of the latter. Therefore further argument would be superfluous. Our stock of suits and coats, being at once correct, stylish and in every way first-class.

TWO GRACEFUL MODELS AT $30 are composed of best quality broadcloth, in the new brown or blue shades, also in black. One model is made in the graceful tailor jacket style and the other model is made in the new blouse effect. The skirts are in the new plaited design. These suits form ideal all-occasion garments, being serviceable, yet essentially dressy.

ANOTHER COATED MODEL AT $25, made of best cheviot or broadcloth, in all shades, is cut upon mannish lines and carries a unique individuality with it which makes it distinct from all others.

The Stylish New Coats

One very stunning model coat—$30.00—is made of finest broadcloth, lined throughout with best gray or black satin, beautifully embroidered all the way down the front and back. This garment can be used for all occasions—very dressy for evening wear, not too elaborate for street wear.

New Stylish Coats

SOCIETY WELCOMES FALL

Early Autumn Days Bring Promise of Affairs of Consequence.

DEBUTANTE SHARES HONOR WITH QUEEN

Interest in Coming-Out Parties Over-shadow Speculation Regarding Ak-Sar-Ben Queen and Her Coronation.

Back. Back from her reign in the mountains Comes the society belle. Back with her ring on her finger, Comes the "society well."

Back to her dear old typewriter! Back to the counter of goods! Then, with his little hand, Laid goes back to the woods. —McLandsburg Wilson, in the Criticon.

The Social Calendar.

TUESDAY—Mrs. G. W. Linsinger entertains at luncheon at the Country club.
WEDNESDAY—Mrs. E. W. Moran, a bridge and luncheon at the Country club. Mrs. Charles Sweet, a luncheon at the Country club.
THURSDAY—Mrs. W. D. Bancker, a bridge party at the Country club. Coming out reception for Miss Janet Chambers, Mrs. E. J. Swanson, Mrs. M. J. Adams, a luncheon and matinee party.
SATURDAY—Miss Stewart of Council Bluffs, a luncheon at the Country club.

At last the tide of summer tourists has turned toward home, and again occur in the mountains, the seashores, the country or some place else, society is coming back to town with sunburned hands and faces and a fund of experiences that would make excellent stories if they might all be told. Although the moderate and ladylike will claim first attention of the summer girl and her mother, for a week or two, society has already begun to feel the effects of their presence in town and one hears rumors of prospective things of the sort that make the society smile and the society reporter take notice.

For the present, however, the dinner parties and dances at the clubs continue to be the popular thing, as a glance at the week's calendar will evince.

This week will see the return of the young people off to school again, although a few will stay over until next week. Preliminary to their departure a number of luncheons and dinners have been given at the clubs during the past fortnight, and a few minor things in compliment to them will be given the early part of this week.

Who will be this year's debutante, who is to be the queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, are two of the questions that are being asked just now (of course not by the king, he is always satisfied with what it would be indelicate to manifest to such interest in him, even if he justified it). But it is different with the queen; everybody is interested in her, and by the way, and the busybodies are saying that it is very possible that one name is better than another in the answer to both the above questions. As a matter of fact, nobody really knows anything but the "committee" and they have a reputation for the most sphinx-like silence. However, this does not prevent speculation.

As for the debutantes, they are much more interesting and important than the queen, for they are very much of a reality in society, and their reign—well, that depends.

There will be a berry of them this fall, if it is said to make up for last season, which had not a single one. The first of the girls to be introduced will be Miss Janet Chambers, daughter of Mr. James K. Chambers, whose coming out has been set for next Thursday. There will be a large reception at Mr. Chambers' home, on North Twenty-fourth street, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Miss Mary Alice Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rogers; Miss Marion Connel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Connel; Miss Helen Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Davis; Miss Elizabeth Congdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Congdon; Miss Frances Wessels, sister of Mrs. S. S. Caldwell, and Miss Marlon Hughs, daughter of Mrs. William Hughs, are the young women who will probably be introduced this fall and early winter, although it is possible that the formal presentation of some of them may be deferred another year. It is safe to predict, however, that the coming out party will have a conspicuous part in this season's activities.

The opening of the Boyd Thursday evening proved an occasion second to nothing of the week in fashionable interest. That society had hopefully contracted the winter habit became evident early last winter and has had continuous proof ever since. While Thursday evening's performance was not made the occasion for any particular demonstration, practically "everybody" was there—that is, everybody who is in town.

A widely circulated report to the effect that the Field club contemplated continuing its dances during the winter caused society to rejoice against its better judgment the early part of the week. But to the rejoicing was briefly contradicted by those in authority. The dance hall at the club is practically open and, built for the summer season, there is no provision for its heating, which makes its use during the winter out of the question.

Committees representing several of last year's dancing clubs have been busy arranging schedules of dates and places for their series of parties for the coming winter. While the dancing season does not open much before October—that is, for the clubs—most of them will be ready to announce their plans in a week or so. The Thurston Rifles have arranged a series of dancing parties that will begin in November and continue during the winter. The definite dates will be announced later.

The regular Saturday evening dance at the Country club has been well attended and those who gave dinners were: Mr. and Mrs. B. T. White, whose guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bucholz, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Breckenridge.

Mrs. Gwendolyn White entertained Miss Nona Kioke, Mr. Robert Dinning and Mr. Wilson Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Merriam had Miss Elizabeth Congdon, Miss Natalie Merriam, Mr. Barton Millard and Mr. George Hedick.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Fort.

Lewis and Ruth Moore, Messrs. Lawrence Brinker, Frank Haskell, Lou Clark, Will Coak, Charles Benton, Ben Passell, Ed George, Harry Tukey, Elmer Cope, Harley Moorhead, Captain and Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards.

The largest dinner given at the Field club Saturday night was the farewell affair given by Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Owen and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. O'Brien for their son, Mr. Hubert Owen and Mr. Edward O'Brien, who leave this week for school. Covers were laid for Messrs. Phillip Frederick, Frank Frederick, Phillip Lehmer, William Christie, Harry Pollard, Lawrence Gibson, Myron Buck and Frank Hoel.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

Among the important meetings of the fall is that of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, which will be held at Lincoln October 10 to 11. This will be the twenty-fifth annual convention of the society, of which two have been held in the west. Denver and Kansas City having entertained these. The meetings will be held at St. Paul's Methodist church and extensive preparation is being made for the entertainment of the 100 or more delegates expected. The society was founded a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Ruthford B. Hayes, being its first president and during her life, one of its most zealous promoters. Many of the most prominent and able women in Methodism have been and are upon its board of managers. Mrs. Clinton B. Plak of New York City has been its president for several years. She is a woman of most ardent personality and is generally beloved. The organization is well established in every state in the union and also in Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines. Workers from all of these fields, who have become thoroughly acquainted with their social, political and religious life, will be present at the Lincoln meeting and will speak of conditions of these countries. The society owns property to the extent of about $1,250,000. The Mother Jewell's Home at York, Neb., is a national orphanage belonging to the society. Various lines of work are carried on by the society, including work at the immigrant stations, city missions, work for various nationalities, seamstress work with the Spanish in the southwest and with the orientals along the Pacific coast, and educational work in the south for black and white alike.

The program is out this week for the thirty-second annual convention of the Nebraska Women's Christian Temperance union, which will be held in the First Congregational church of Aurora, September 25 to 28. The convention will be preceded by a meeting of the general officers Monday evening and the executive meeting the following morning, with preliminary exercises Tuesday. The convention proper will open Wednesday morning and the program will start Friday evening. It has many interesting and helpful features. Delegates from the convention will be entertained by the women of Aurora, dinner and supper to be served in the basement of the church by the aid societies of the various churches. The general officers are to be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. G. Peterson, which will be officers headquarters also. All women expecting to attend the meeting are requested to send their names to Mrs. Alice Dixon, Aurora, as soon as possible, that provision may be made for their entertainment.

The year book of the Zettie club of Cedar Rapids, Neb., is out this week and it is one of the most attractive of the year's issue. Its cover of dark green paper is lettered in silver with the name of the club, its home town, the year and the year of organization, 1902, and the year of its federation in the state organization, also 1902. The pages are lettered in green. The club, of which Mrs. A. L. Lindstrom is president, will take the Bay View reading course this year, studying Russia and Japan. It has twelve members and its meetings are held every two weeks at the homes of members.

Women Use Weed Cutters.
The women of the Orchard Hill Improvement club entertained the men of the club dinner Friday evening at the residence of Dr. R. D. Mason, 602 Seward street.

The occasion was a testimonial to the men for their services in cutting the weeds on Orchard Hill. Fourteen men were dressed with the women for a six-course dinner and entertained with short talks and a stringed orchestra. Those who made talks were Dr. F. P. Barber, A. A. Buchanan, G. W. Ryan, A. T. Ayers, A. A. McGraw, Dr. M. Jones, H. O. Hattie, Dr. E. W. Mason, Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. A. A. Buchanan, and Miss McCartney. Mrs. J. F. Wagner acted as toastmistress.

Bacchic Feasting.
The royal jubilee at Bucharest has been characterized by a festival such as probably could have been witnessed nowhere else in Europe. This was a banquet given to 2,800 members of the country who did not attend in the monotonous black dinner dress of the west, but each man wore the distinctive peasant garb of his own district, and as there were more than a hundred such distinctions, representing the tribal dresses of mountain, valley, plain and forest, the assemblage was a striking spectacle full of picturesque color. There were no chairs for the guests, so they stood till they were tired, and then sat on the ground. The feast was of the simplest—cold roast mutton, "red eggs," radishes, pork pies, cheese, cakes, oranges, brandy and a small bottle of white wine a man.

For each there was set a portion under a cover, which latter he took away with him as a souvenir, stuffing also into his pockets in many cases the empty wine bottle and the napkin. There were served up 20 sheep and 4,800 eggs—London Globe.

The Misses Lenser, who have spent the past eight months in Paris, have just returned and will open their dressmaking parlors, 548 Hastings building, September 23.

Miss Bella Robinson has reopened her piano studio in the Arlington block.

Free lessons in art needle work. Wainlander & Smith, 317 South Sixteenth street.

Discharged on Third Trial.
CASPHER, Wyo., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Henry A. Johnson, who has been on trial during the past few days on the charge of unlawfully branding a horse, was discharged. This case had been tried at two different times previous to the present one. For each there was set a portion under a cover, which latter he took away with him as a souvenir, stuffing also into his pockets in many cases the empty wine bottle and the napkin. There were served up 20 sheep and 4,800 eggs—London Globe.
