The local laddies had a day off. Corns was not in his fighting clothes and Autrey made his second error of the season. Omaha's first hit was made by Long in the hird, with two men down. Corns struck out and Long was left repining at first. Perring and Welch hit in the fourth, but a double play cut them off from making a run. In the fifth Dolan and Long made hits, but were left on bases when the side went out. In the sixth the Orpaha boys did ginger up a little. Perring, Bassey, Dolan and Gonding all made safe hits, while Welch and Long reached first on an error and fielder's choice, respectively. Perring, Welch and Bassey scored and two men left on bases when the dust settled. Gonding's little Texas leaguer to center field in the sixth scored Welch and Bassey

Dietz Team Deposits Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars Against Sterlings.

The Dietz Athletic association Saturday morning deposited with The Bee $250, as its wager on the game proposed to be played between the Dietz and the Sterling leams at Dietz Athletic park on Sunday, September 22. Manager Harry Sage of the Sterlings is expected to make his deposit seen. e rivalry between the teams is intense, the game, if it is played, will exceed interest the championship acries be-n the two Chicago teams.

Sage Makes a Proposition.

and another is sick and one that I could not use. I am very sorry to disappoint our friends after all our talk, as the rivalry is so great between both teams and it would be a game worth seeing if it occurs. I desire to state that if the Dietz manager wishes we will meet them with the team that I am using at the present time for 500, purse to be posted by Thursday, Sep-tember 30, with The Omana Bee, with the same conditions as before. HARRY SAGE. Manager Sterlings.
