NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

LAST OF THE OLD STAGE LINES

Pleasant Trails Effaced by Extension of Northwestern Railway.

ONLY LATER LINES ARE NOW EXTANT

Bit of History Concerning These Old Coach Roads from the Middle West to the Pacific Coast.

With the extension of the Northwestern railway from Casper westward toward Lander, Wyo., will forever banish the last vestige of the old stage coach days, excepting a scattering few "star routes" for short distances through the mountains from railway terminals to minor postoffices or intermediate stations.

Followed Overland Trail. The Holladay line was wealthy. The historic line following the "overland trail" between New York and San Francisco, at that time was by the way of Atchison.

The stage line ran northwest from Atchison, crossing the Big Blue at Marysville, Kansas, 100 miles west, then continuing northwest up the north side of the Little South Platte, over the divide into the Platte valley, thence west to the mouth of the Platte from old Fort Kearney, Plum Creek (now Lexington) to Julesburg.

The entire run will be made in daylight, with stopovers at Hutchinson, Topeka, Horton, Beatrice, Pawnee, Lincoln, Omaha, Des Moines, Rock Island and other important towns on the Rock Island line.

Very Low Rates to the West. The Chicago Great Western railway will sell tickets to points in Alberta, British Columbia, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington at about one-half of the usual fare.

On the main Holladay line there were 2,750 horses and mules and 100 coaches. The annual cost of operating the line was $2,425,000.

For the last fifteen years I have used and sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In my own family it has always been a certain and positive cure for dysentery and bowel troubles.

thereon and not being an official sample ballot.

That the hearing of application for temporary injunction is for the 23rd day of September, 1906, at 9:00 o'clock in court room No. 5, by notice of such application by the defendant and that said restraining order be continued on execution of a bond in the sum of $50.

Order is Modified. In the afternoon members of the Fontanelle club sent T. W. Blackburn up to see about the case. Upon a showing made by him a modification of the original order was secured, striking out the clause prohibiting the distribution of tickets bearing the names of candidates under the head republican. The order modifying the original order is as follows:

It being shown to the court that the court heretofore signed an order restraining the defendant from distributing any ticket or slate of any number of names over or containing the title or name of the republican thereon and not being an official sample ballot and that said order should be modified, now, therefore, said restraining order is modified in the words:

That the printing of the slate on white paper in violation of the law providing lists of names of candidates shall be printed only on colored paper. That the printing and distributing of the slate is the result of a conspiracy formed in violation of the spirit of the primary law and in violation of the section providing a penalty for attempting to hinder the operation of the primary law.
