STEWART DECLINES TO RUN

Republican Numinee for Governor in Colorade Withdraws From Ticket.

OBJECTS TO JUDGE GABBERT'S NOMINATION

Judge Casewell Will Probably Withdraw and Another Couvention May Be Called to Nominate New Ticket.

DENVER, Sept. 18,-Phillip B. Stewart, recently nominated for governor of Colorado on the republican ticket, tonight sent a letter to the republican state chairman declining the nomination. While the letter does not state it in so many words, the reason Mr. Stewart declined to run is on account of the placing of Judge William H. Gabbert on the ticket as candidate for re-election to the supreme bench. Before the convention Mr. Stewart advised against the nomination of Gabbert. When the nomination was made Stewart was not present, being ill at his hotel. He did not learn that Gabbert's name was on the ticket until Sunday and it is said he declared to State Chairman Vivian that "he would not run on the same ticket with a populist." A very diplomatic letter was elected to the supreme bench six years ago as a populist. Gabbert is said to have declared he would not withdraw if the entire republican ticket refused to run with him. Mr. Stewart then gave the republican state central committee until 10 o'clock tonight to get Gabbert off the ticket. As no move was apparently made in that direction he issued the following letter torection he issued the following letter tonight:

DENVER Sept. 17. 1906.—John F. Vivian, Chairman Republican State Central Committee, Denver, Colo.; Dear Sir—I beg to inform you that I have forwarded to the secretary of state my declination of the nomination of the office of governor recently tendered me by the state republican convention.

I very deeply regret that a sudden and severe attack of, illness prevented, under directions of my physician, the report of the work of the convention being brought to my attention prior to its final adjournment on Saturday last.

A later act of the convention, however, makes it quite impossible for me to render to the state and to the party the service which I had confidently hoped to perform in the coming campaign.

I wish to express through you to the republicans of the state my sincere appreciation of the honor conferred by my nomination and of the many personal assurances of regard, and to assure you that my efforts for the success of the party and its principles will be in no way relaxed. Very respectfully vours.

PHILLIP B. STEWART.

It is reported tonight that Judge Charles

It is reported tonight that Judge Charles F. Caswell, who was nominated with Mr. Gabbert for the supreme bench, will withdraw his name from the ticket tomorrow. There was also a report current tonight that the republicans would call another convention and nominate an entire new

ALL IS WELL AT LINCOLN NOW Maker and His Auto Having Subsided, Peace Again Reigns on Salt Creek.

Colonel John G. Maher of Lincoln is in Omaha and brings the consoling information that he and his automobile have buried the hatchet and signed, sealed and executed a treaty of peace. It is understood there is a third party to the treaty-namely, the city of Lincoln.

Colonel Maher's auto threatens to plunge him even further into the limelight than did his falthful typewriter during the troublous days of the Spanish-American war, down at Chickamauga, when General Grant, who insisted on making use of the bellicose colonel's typewriter, was all but court-martialed by the fall sycamore f the Platte-originally the Wabash.

That automobile had become the terror of tranquil Lincoln; men dodged it, street cars stopped to let it pass, anxious mothers with their little ones at its approach and children ran, screaming, to their mam-mas whenever it met their gaze. The fact is, or was, the auto was not inherently a bad auto-no worse than any auto-but it was too much for Colonel Maher. With the doughty colonel at its helm the machine street when he wanted it to traverse Thironel could do would not change things a east, will return Friday of this week. The machine would stand and puff time it actually plowed its way into a fled in holy terror. Immediately this deprethat part of town held a mass meeting and the same order as the cyclone cellars in Kansas.

hand in affairs. After repeated conferences between Colonel Maher, the city officials and two or three expert automobile men. matters were patched up in such a way as to obviate the necessity of auto cellars.

And today, so the story runs, vehicles and pedestrians travel the streets of Lincoln with almost the same immunity that surrounds the inhabitants of other commu

RETAILERS PLAN BANQUET

Grocers and Butchers Make Prepara tions for the Annual Fanction in October.

Omaha's retail grocers and butchers ar beginning to make preparations for their annual banquet, which it has been decided to hold October 9. A program will be arranged. The place has not been selected. Morris Stern will contribute $50 to the scale given by the Moneyweight Scale com- it necessary to cancel this date. pany to the local grocers' association, to awarded to one grocer-among those

ATT OPENIN

EXQUISITE MILLINERY BRANDEIS

Gems from the Paris Millinery Salons Selected by Our Own Buyers Abroad Will Have Their First American Presentation at Brandeis

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Sept. 19th, 20th and 21st

Today we bid all lovers of artistic apparel to visit our Millinery section. This display marks the greatest achievement of many years of Brandeis' millinery leadership. A sumptuous showing of the most elegant French Millinery, chosen expressly for this event by Brandeis' own buyers in Paris, has been prepared. Our corps of six buyers, assisted by M. Roditi, our European representative, spent many days in the exclusive designing establishments of the Rue de la Paix, choosing patterns of exquisite beauty and pronounced fashionable character. New York's best models are also shown in lavish variety. Brandeis' display of Millinery for Fall 1906 stands on a par with the most brilliant exhibitions of Millinery art in Paris and New York.

No Special Invitations to This Brilliant Millinery Opening Have Been Issued-We Wish Every Woman in Omaha to Regard This as a Personal Request to View This Expose of French Chapeaux and New York Models

> The Lovely Paris Patterns-We feel quite incapable of describing the beauty and regal character of our French Hats. Our buyers bought these personally from the work rooms of renowned Parisian designing artists, securing the first selection of many millinery masterpieces. No expense was spared to bring to Omaha the finest French Hats rarely

> > We want every woman in Omaha to see the French Hats we have brought for their admiration. MARABOUT AND FEATHER BOAS

In Paris no woman is considered quite well dressed this season without a boa. These fluffy effects are so pretty and dainty that we imported many direct from Paris. The blacks and whites as well as the delicate shades are quite the rage.

ORIGINAL AND EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS FROM THE MASTER MILLINERS OF NEW YORK Our display of the finest hats designed by New York's adepts is likewise more comprehensive than ever. We have bought without stint the most brilliant examples of fall styles from Fifth avenue's great designing shops. Our own force of talented designers, under expert supervision, will make Brandeis own millinery compare favorably with prettiest designs from George L. Sheldon of Newhawka, candidate for governor—There seems to be something in the air of our state which makes men of aggressiveness and stability. Omaha is a great city and should not be discriminated against.

Mayor Dahlman—I want to thank those men from out in the state for their kind words and assure them of mutual sympathies and support.

The total paid membership of Ak-Sar-

Samson urges all business men to dec-

the members of the Board of Governors will ride in automobiles, so it has been de-thence south to Douglas, west to Fifteenth and south to Howard, thence west to Sixon Sixteenth to Cuming street.

issue a proclamation to that effect.

Ben for 1906 was 994.

parade.

America or abroad. EVERYONE DECLARES THAT THE AUTUMN MILLINERY IS MORE GRACEFUL IN SHAPE AND MORE BEWITCHI NG IN TONE HARMONY THAN EVER BEFORE.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

an's club for the year 1905-1906 will be held this month. was just as liable to go snorting up O Monday afternoon, October 1. Mrs. A. B. Somers, president of the club, who has teenth street as anything and all the col- spent the summer in New England and the Some misunderstanding regarding and plunge like an infuriated bull, and one opening date had resulted from the announcement of the called meeting when house, from which the frightened occupants Mrs. Florence Kelly, secretary of the Nadation became publicly known; residents of of the club. Mrs. Kelly comes west to attend the meeting of the convention of the decided the only thing to do in the interest Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs, to of humanity was to build "auto" cellars on be held at Kearney. October 9 to 11, and ing plans for the entertainment of the will be in Omaha Monday, October 8. At blennial convention of the Iowa Federation of the league may hear her. The Social Service club will entertain Mrs. Kelly at a luncheon Tuesday noon, October 9.

The September meeting of the Visiting nities, where rantankerous autos and Nurses association will be held Thursday afternoon of this week at 4 o'clock at the belligerent typewriters are wholly unknown. Paxton hotel. This will be the first general meeting of the association for two months As the work is necessarily carried by the nurses and the immediate officers, the general meetings could be suspended during the warm weather, but the fall brings matters for the consideration of the whole association and the general meetings will be

There is a possibility that Rev. Anna Shaw, president of the American Woman Suffrage association, will be unable to give a date to Omaha, after all. Saturday even banquet, this by virtue of the fact that he ling, September 29, had been set for her visit was the lucky No. 13, which drew the $135 to Omaha, but other demands may make

The work of the Woman's Christian Temwho registered at the Moneyweight booth perance union has been unusually active in opened stronger than ever this fall. During the past three weeks nine county con-Holt, Buffalo, Pawnee, Butler, Hamilton Lancaster and Gage being the countles. All the meeetings were largely attended. Several other counties will hold conventions be-The opening meeting of the Omaha Wom- fore the state convention the last week of The Nebraska Woman's Suffrage association is arranging for Miss Laura Gregg to October. Miss Gregg has spent the summe at her home in Kansas since returning from Oregon, where she had an active part in the suffrage campaign, and her return tional Consumers' league, will be the guest to Nebraska this fall. even for a short time, promises much for the suffrage work.

first the committee arranged for Mrs. Kelly of Women's Clubs, which will be held there to speak at the afternoon meeting, but it is next May. At a meeting held last week at probable that this plan will be changed and the home of Mrs. Menza Burke, chairman she will appear in the evening when busi- of the local biennial board, all the ness men and others interested in the work | remaining committees were filled out. Although the meeting is still a long time off, these committees have been appointed none too soon, for experience has proven in the past that six or eight months is none too long a time to accomplish all that has to be done in connection with such a meeting, and especially as so much has to be arranged by mail.

> October 22 and 24 have been announced as the dates for the annual meeting of the Iowa Congress of Mothers, which will be held at Des Moines. The program, upon which the names of a number of prominent speakers appear, will follow the general lines of the home, the school and the state. Mrs. Isaac Lea Hillis of Des Moines is president of the association.

The annual convention of the clubs of their annual convention Wednesday and Thursday of this week at Sigourney. Mrs. Samuel H. Harper is chairman of the district and has the program in charge. Mrs. J. J. Seerley, president of the lown Federa-Miss Alice Tyler of Des Moines, secretary at the food show-who drew a designated Nebraska during the past year and has of the Iowa Traveling Library association. will be among the speakers.

FAMILY IN SQUALID

dattress on Floor and Stove All Furatture Four Persons Have in Eight Rooms.

Juvenile Officer Carver visited the home f the Lawrence family at 2814 Webster street Tuesday morning and discovered one of the worst cases of squalid surroundings he ever witnessed. Mr. Carver's particular. interest in the case was the welfare of two children, 8 and 4 years of age, the children of Mrs Vace, daughter of Mr. Lawrence. The building occupied by the four persons is a double house with eight rooms. When Mr. Carver entered the place he at first thought he had received the wrong address, as he wandered through empty rooms until he located the family in a side room with nothing but one old mattress on the bare floor and a broken down The mother and grandfather were given three days in which to find suitable quarters for the two children under penalty of having the children taken away from them and properly cared for. Mr. Lawrence is the father of George Lawrence, bound to the district court for obbery and later who died at the county

LAST DIP IN THE FOUNTAIN

Civilization that no one man can grasp it all. We have everything to make the state great and wealthy and the people contented and happy.

W. H. Thompson, of Granti Island, Candidate for Senator—The whole state is under everlasting indebtedness to Ak-Sar-Ben. I hope the time is not far distant when all the stock and grain raised in the state will be marketed at Omaha.

Dudley Smith, one of the originators of

NUMBER OF SHORT, PITHY SPEECHES MADE

Dudley Smith, one of the originators of Ak-Sar-Ben—I think the business men of Omaha should see to it that each year they set apart an appropriation for Ak-Sar-Ben and facilitate the work by announcing their contributions. Business Men to Decorate

Their Places-Rules for the Parades.

A glorious leave-taking was the one of Monday night at Ak-Sar-Ben den, where a large assemblage of loyal knights paid a large assemblage of loyal knights paid their last visit to the Fountain of Youth and its youth-giving waters. The very rafters of the old building reverberated with the enthusiasm of those who have made up the legion of honor for the coming of King Ak-Bar-Ben XII two weeks under the modern of mutual sympathies and support.

Gilbert M. Hitchcock, editor of World-Herald—The history of our city for twenty years has proved that we have a direct commercial interest in one another.

Attorney W. W. Dodge—Ak-Sar-Ben extends the hand of fellowship to all and the provided the support. hence. Every eye beamed with a luster peculiar to the inner circles of Ak-Sar-Ben, every ear was keen to hear every word expression every hand was quick to grasp Judging from the twelfth year at the den the king, when he enters his favored city this fall, may well look about him and pronounce his gracious blessing on the city and state which has done so much for his kingdom the past season.

the hand of his neighbor and every heart beat with firmness.

One of the largest, if not the largest, crowd of the season was on hand at the den last evening. As is usual on the last initiation night Gus Renze injects a little extra figs into the Fountain, and last evening was no exception. A more good-natured and yet resolute body of men than the the Fifteenth district of Iowa will hold one at the den last evening could not be found within many, many miles of the chief city of Quivera.

The list of speakers was well selected by Acting Grand Mufti B. F. Thomas. A few tion; Mrs. John R. Nash of Audubon and pithy remarks of the various sponsors of Ak-Sar-Ben and the realm, as related last evening, follows:

G. W. Wattles, President of the Board of Governors—Most of the people of Omaha, like those of our great state, have become imbued with a loyal enthusiasm to build up both Omaha and the state.

Congressman John L. Kennedy—Ak-Sar-Ben, more than any other organization, has brought about a kindly feeling between Omaha and the state. The knights are engaged in a greater work than they realize. Rev. Richard Seibert of North Platte—Nebraska's educational system, from the primary schools to our state university, is one of the very best in the sisterhood of states.
T. W. McCullough, Managing Editor of The Bee-Nebraska is forging ahead so fast in the things which make for a higher

A NIGHT CAP

Take two Beecham's Pills on retiring and avoid any ill effects from a late meal. Then you will sleep soundly, awaken with a clear head and a high opinion of the great stomach remedy,

Beecham's

GERMAN BANDMEN ARRESTED Musicians Victims of Joke that Deprives Them of Their Real Clothes.

After the initiation at the Ak-Sar-Ben den Monday evening the German band, imported for the occasion, was hauled to the police station and charged with disturbing the peace by making loud and unusual noises against the peace and dignity of the city of Omaha. Of course the whole affair was a joke, but where the real joke came in was when the members of the band wandered back to the den for their regular clothes. By the time the band returned Gus Renze had gone home and left in charge a watchman, who had not been advised of the fake arrests.

The members of the band lined up at the east entrance at 12:58 a. m. and Herman Dinkinspell, leader of the band, knocked loudly on the door. Watchman Johnson responded by asking: "Who goes there?" "Der Shoyman band. Gif us our clothes already, or if you don't gif us some clothes we vill make some noises vot you like not," replied the leader.

But the watchman had instructions to let one enter after hours, so he knew only his duty, as he understood it. Der Shoyman band went home in the burlesque attire. Mayor Dahlman personally called at the lice station after the arrest and arranged for the release of the prisoners.

If you have anything to trade advertise it in the For Exchange column of The Bee Want Ad page.

Mrs. Louise Sinclair

recognized by all Omaha women as an expert on style, is ready to give her services as

CONSULTING MILLINER

to all our patrons. Her advice and assistance in selection of hats that are most becoming will be of great value.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

A nut brown maid captured the hearts of those who went to the Auditorium last night to hear the Royal Hawaiian band. She was Miss Lei Lehua, whose clear, liquid voice sang in her own soft native tongue the Hawaiian farewell, "Aloha Oe," to music composed by her one time sovereign. Queen Liliuokalani. She sang other songs, too, some tinged with sadness and filled with longing, others bright and lively. For all she was given generous applause. She is pleasant in appearance, with expressive features, slender body and abundant hair. Once or twice, as encores, she sang Amerfean songs, perhaps just to show her audience her versatility, for the native melodies were much sweeter.

Scarcely less popular were the songs of the Glee club, part of them arranged by Band Director Berger, and part of them by the Hawaiian Sonny Conha, director of the Glee club. These were much more At last evening's meeting of the Board thoroughly appreciated than "Happy spoken by those who had the gift of oral of Governors it was decided that members Heine" and other popular music which dec orated the program at frequent intervals. of the board owning automobiles are not In the Glee club numbers John S. Ellis eligible for prizes in the automobile flower appeared twice in tenor solos, pleasing his audience immensely. The "Stars and Stripes" at the beginning of the program orate their places of business for the carnival period. This week the mayor will and "The Star Spangled Banner" at the end served to remind the audience that the In the afternoon parade of October 2 the people on the stage, though dark-skinned governors will ride in carriages, in the and of another tongue, were a part of the float parade they will ride on horseback American republic. Altogether it was an and in the afternoon parade of October 4 enjoyable entertainment.

The band will be here all week and Sunday, and will give a concert each aftercreed. The routes of all parades will be noon and evening. It is the second appearfrom Twenty-fifth and Farnam to Tenth, ance of the band in Omaha this season, the first, some time ago, having proven a successful one. Last night the audience teenth and south to Leavenworth and back was very small, probably due to the fact that the coming of the Hawalians was not properly advertised.

Tonight the band will play the famou composition by Tobani, entitled "Realistic ing ice cream and other, refreshments to those who attend the concerts.

New Physical Director Miss Florence Dennison of Mendots, Ill.,

arrived in Omaha Tuesday morning to en-ter upon her duties as physical director of the local Young Women's Christian asso-ciation. Although the physical department does not resume work until October 9, Miss Dennison will begin the preliminary work at once.

NEWS FOR THE ARMY.

Captain Grote Hutchinson of the general staff. Washington, was a visitor at army headquarters Tuesday. Captain T. B. Hacker, chief commissary Department of the Missouri, has returned from the camp of concentration at Fort

The deliveries are to be made within fifteen days from the date of award of contract. Bids will be opened at the office of Captain Thomas Swobe at 11 a. m. Thursday, September 27.

No orders have yet been received from the War department directing any portion of the troops at Fort Omaha to proceed to Cuba. Such orders are, however, not unlikely, as the signal corps at Fort Omaha is nearest to Cuba of any of that branch of the service.

is nearest to Cuba of any of that branch of the service.

Captain Thomas Swobe, chief quarter-master Department of the Missouri, will shortly invite proposals for 1,800 head of horses and mules for the use of the United States army. Of this number 350 horses are wanted for the cavalry service, 600 ridling horses, thirty-six draft horses, 200 wheel mules, 200 lead mules, 220 pack mules and 100 riding mules.

Company I of the signal corps has arrived at Fort Omaha from Benleia, Call, and is now on duty at the post. Captain L. D. Wildman is in command of the post and is also chief signal officer of the Department of the Missouri, releiving Major E. O. Fechet of these dual duties September I. Major Fechet will go to the Philippines in November, upon the termination of his leave of absence.

Licutenant Colonel John C. Muhlenberg, who has been chief paymaster of the Department of the Missouri for several years, expects to be stationed at Washington shortly. Colonel Muhlenberg is high up in the rank of licutenant colonels, and his removal to Washington will shortly be followed by his promotion to a colonelcy. No orders for his transfer to Washington have yet been received at department head-quarters, but such orders are shortly expected.

Several changes in the stations of United States army troops have been Tone Picture, Civil War," with accessories and scenic effects. Priday night is designated as "military night" and veterans of the civil and the Spanish-American wars will be present to take part in the program.

The women of the Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church have established a booth in the rear of the Auditorium and are serv-

You will use a Kenreign twice as much as any other coat. On fair days because it is smart, other days because rain-proof. Kenreign coats, guaranteed rain-proof, give this double service and hold their shape as long as worn. Modern congrete factory structures and up-to-date machinery are evidences of the advanced system that is essential to the production of these garments.

"THE RULES OF THE GAME" a novelette by

An absorbing and dramatic tale of newspaper life, interwoven with a charming love story. Good poetry and excellent short stories fill the number. Among the contributors are Edna Kenton, May Harris, James Hooper, Owen Kildare, Theodosia Garrison, John Kendrick Bangs and Gelett Burgess. Maurice Francis Egan contributes a delightful essay, "THE FOOD OF THE HEROES."