EIGHT-HOUR LAW DISCUSSED Labor Connell Talks Over President

Roosevelt's Order Extending the Act and Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.-After devoting onsiderable time to the discussion of the president's order directing an extension of the operation of the eight-hour law, the executive council of the American Federation of Labor finally adjourned today. No details of the discussion were given to the CIMARRON RIVER IS RISING public, but it is understood there was a general exchange of felicitations over it. The fact that the extension had been remested three years ago was pointed out, as was also the circumstance that it had been granted until the labor element had shown its power in politics.

A general exposition of union labels was decided upon for next year and the de. talls placed in the hands of Vice President

It was also decided that the various labor unions which issue labels should be urged make an effort to secure uniformity in Bank Robbed and Another Entered.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 20 .- Eight masked and heavily armed burglars held the people of White Cloud, a village fortyfive miles north of here, at bay early today while they rifled the Newayge County bank and attempted also to rob the bank of R. Gannon & Son. The men rode into the town of White Cloud between 12 and 1 o'clock, surrounded the buildings containing the two banks and posted guards outside, while other members of the gang worked inside. The interior of the Newayago county bank was completely wrecked by two explosions. The burglars got between $2,000 and $4,000 in cash. Dynamite was then used to wreck the interior of the Gannon bank, but while the cracksmen were at work there the townspeople, wakened by the explosions, gathered until there were so many of them present that the guards evidently decided it was not prudent to wait longer. They called out the men working in the bank before they could get the safe open and, covering the citizens with their guns, rode out of town on refusal in 1965 to grant certain trackage facilities to the Sloux City and Rock Springs Coal company, an independent concern, of which Warwick Saunders is the head, and whose mines are near the Rock Springs mines of the Union Pacific Wyoming. But Mr. Prouty says the investigation will extend to much wider scope than this single case.

Evidence of Local Coal Trust.

Evidence was adduced Thursday morning tending to contradict the statement made by Victor White and published in an interview in The Bee a few days ago that there is no local Coal trust. Walter Willis. former secretary of the Omaha Coal cscharge, testified that the exchange lixes prices in general; that Megeath, president of the Sheridan Coal company, fixes wholesale prices on Sheridan coal, and Victor White, retail prices.

He said no price fixed by the exchange could be varied without consent of the excharge. Victor White, while not an acconfederate veterans. Camp Joe "McCon- tive member of the exchange, was, Wills said, an honorary member.

So far as coal along the Union Pacific is concerned it developed that company did all the fixing of prices.

Arother feature of the morning hearing was that the ordinary bonus paid by the General Wilder, Congressmen Maddox Unich Pacific for coal land filings by its filing fees, which were also paid by the Union Pacific, and practically all these filings made by the Union Pacific Coal at the direction of D. O. Clark.

The statement that the bonus of $10,000 for the Abbott quarter section of land was paid to Warwick Saunders as a commission was modified to mean that, while the money was made payable to Mr. Saunders by the Union Pacific, it was paid to him to be paid to Mr. Abbott and Mr. Abbott was the sole beneficiary of the bonus of OYSTER BAY, Sept. 20. - Postmaster $10,000, above the $2,300 given as a consid-General Cortelyou, who came here today cration for his land. Saunders figured in the transaction only as an intermediary.

Wills Tells of Exchange's Methods. Waiter Wills was an important witness during the morning session Thursday. In describing the methods of the Omaha Coal Exchange, he said:

"The Union Pacific Coal company is not a member of the Omaha Coal exchange. The purpose of the organization of the ex. change was to advance the interests of all form retail price for all coals handled by its members at the meetings of the exchange except Rock Springs coal, the Union Pacific Coal Company and railroad making the price for what Rock Springs coal ahall sell Omaha both retail and wholesale, as well as Hanna and other coals produced along the Union Pacific. No other road under took to dictate the prices of coal in Omaha while I was secretary that I know of. counsel for Harry K. Thaw, to make Victor White was an ex-officio member of the exchange and he invariably fixed the retail price of Sheridan toal in this city without regard to the exchange, while the wholesale price was fixed by Mr. Mogeath town were members of the Omaha Coal exchange. I have not a list of all the dealers at this time nor have 1 a record of their membership. To my best recollection the members of the exchange were; Coutant & Squires, Coal Hill company; C. Havens company, Tom Collins Havans, Nebraska Fuel company, Union Fuel company, Sunderland Brothers Harmon, Westh company, C. W. Hull com. pany, Nebrasks Coal and Lumber company, Ryan Coal company, Wells Lumber Coal company, Pittsburg Coal and Line company, South Omaha Coal and Ice
