

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Another Day of General Upward Tread in Options.

WHEAT ADVANCES IN SPITE OF CABLES. It is up Large Fraction at Close, Though Suffering Reaction—Belief that Europe Must Buy in America—Corn Strong.

OMAHA, Sept. 20, 1906. Opening wheat prices were a little lower this morning, owing to the fact that cables did not respond to yesterday's American advance. Sentiment seemed still bullish, however, prices advancing as the news advanced, and being at one time nearly as high as Monday's. Reaction toward the close was a considerable fraction below the top. It was a reaction toward the close and not a reaction toward the end of the session, for the market closed at a higher price than it opened at.

Corn was unchanged at the opening, but shortly thereafter advanced and advanced the price. Cash demand was good at an advance, despite the fact that receipts were not expected.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Dealings in the first few minutes of today's stock market indicated the continuance of the pressure which carried prices down last Monday. Then the course of prices was reversed and professional traders who had been selling their views of the political outlook for some days past.

There was some revision also of a story circulated yesterday with great detail to the effect that the United States world of capital had been getting out of the market. Prominence has been given to the report that the Union Pacific-Pacifiac, Baltimore & Ohio transactions as an influence in the market, although discussion of this matter was confined to a few paragraphs of interest.
