Testimony in Lumber Case to Be Taken in October—Attorney General Completes Brief in the Railroad Tax Case.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Sept. 21.—(Special.)—In explanation of denial of the story that was reported on good authority in Lincoln the Congressman Hinshaw franked his automobile from Washington to Fairbury, using the frank of Thomas C. Platt, president of the United States Express company. Mr. Hinshaw wired as follows: FAIRBURY, Neb., Sept. 21.—To the Evening News, Lincoln: Answering your telegram, which came in my absence, the story is untrue. I never owned an automobile, and have no franks. E. H. HINSHAW.

As a matter of fact the automobile which was franked from Washington to Fairbury was sent on the frank of Thomas C. Platt, president of the United States Express company. Mr. Hinshaw wired as follows: FAIRBURY, Neb., Sept. 21.—To the Evening News, Lincoln: Answering your telegram, which came in my absence, the story is untrue. I never owned an automobile, and have no franks. E. H. HINSHAW.

Express Company Wants Pay. Adjutant General Culver has received word to make out a list of goods, such as tents and blankets, shipped to the San Francisco sufferers at the time of the earthquake. The express companies want pay for shipping these goods, though it was advertised at the time the railroads were sending the stuff free of cost.

Lumber Case Set for October. The taking of testimony in the lumber case will begin during the first week in October. Judge Post, who has been appointed referee, has notified the attorneys in the case that he has some important matters on hand and will not be able to start in on the case until the early part of October. Attorney Kirkpatrick, attorney for a number of the lumber dealers, is also busy with other matters and the late

Ready for Railroad Tax Case.

Attorney General Brown has completed his brief in the Burlington railroad tax case and the copy is now in the hands of the printers. The brief will be filed in the United States supreme court October 3, at which time Mr. Brown will make his argument for an affirmation of the decision of the federal court at Omaha.

Porter Wants His Child.

Wallace Porter of Omaha is seeking through the supreme court to gain possession of his 4-year-old son, who by a decree of the Hall county district court is now held by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, grandparents of the child. Over the objections of Mrs. Thompson, so the brief filed in the supreme court this morning said, Wallace Porter married Edith Thompson. By the assistance of Mr. Thompson and his own father he built a home and started in the grocery business. Not making a success in business he sold out and removed to Cedar Rapids, Ia., and became a traveling salesman for the Cudahy Packing company. It was shortly after that that Mrs. Porter died, leaving a child 7 months old. It was her wish, the brief said, that Porter live with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and be brought up by them, having the child with him. During this time, the brief said, Porter paid for every meal he ate at the Thompson home and employed a girl to look after the child and paid her board. Finally he removed to Omaha, where he fitted up a home near Hanscom park and brought his parents there to live with him. When he brought the child to his own home, Mr. Thompson through habeas corpus secured possession of the child, and took him back to his own home in Grand Island. The brief holds the court of Hall county had no jurisdiction over the child. Douglas county and seeks to have the decision reversed. It is asserted Mrs. Porter on her death bed asked that her parents take care of the child and Porter signed an agreement giving them custody of him.

Treasurer Greaves Appeals.

Daniel Greaves has appealed from the decision of the Holt county district court in the case wherein he, as county treasurer, was held responsible for the loss of the county funds deposited in the Elkhorn Valley bank, which failed some time ago. The bank was a depository.

Bice Gets New Trial.

Robert Bice, sentenced to the penitentiary on a charge of assault with intent to do great bodily injury, today secured a reversal of the decision of the lower court. Under the evidence the supreme court held Bice was guilty of common assault and battery. Bice, while drunk, picked a fight with James Atkins, who threw him to the ground and held him there. Bice then drew a revolver and attempted to shoot, but the weapon was taken away from him and he did no one injury. The two men had not quarreled before and have been on good terms since.

Damage Case Reversed.

In the appeal of the Burlington Railroad company against Richard Cleve, the company obtained a judgment of reversal. The case is remanded to the district court of Otoe county. Cleve obtained damages in the lower court for the loss of two steers in a shipment of cattle from Nebraska City to Chicago. It was charged that the cattle died from overheat on account of delay in the shipment. The company's answer was in the nature of a general denial and a plea of the statute of limitations. The supreme court held: "In an action to recover damages for a carrier for injuries sustained by live stock in transit which are accompanied by the owner or his agent, the burden is on the owner to show that the loss complained of was occasioned by the carrier's negligence. In order to recover damages for an alleged delay in the shipment of live stock it is necessary to introduce some competent evidence tending to show the length of time ordinarily required to transport the shipment from a place where received to the point of delivery, and that a longer time was actually consumed than was necessary for that purpose. Evidence examined and held insufficient to sustain the judgment of the trial court."

Kern Called to Explain.

Superintendent Kern of the Hastings asylum is to be called to Lincoln shortly to meet with the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings to state on the construction contract let to Earl Westcott for the construction of elevators at the institution. Mr. Galusha said he notified Dr. Kern to let the contract to Westcott because Westcott had the lowest bid, while Chairman Eaton of the board said no member of the board had been authorized to tell Kern to let it. When Governor Mickey returns from Norfolk and sets a time Dr. Kern will be called to tell what he knows about the matter.

University Gets the Cash.

State Auditor Searle will have to pay the State university the $5,000 which lies in the treasury for the use of the experiment station. The supreme court today allowed the writ of mandamus which will compel the auditor to draw the warrant for the money.

Mr. Searle refused to draw this warrant because there was no specific appropriation of the money by the state legislature.

He contended that after the money had gone into the state treasury it could be paid out unless the legislature appropriated it.

Cemetery Case Comes Back.

The former opinion of the court in the case of Jesse Love and others against the Prospect Hill Cemetery association of Omaha is adhered to. The court is of the opinion the cause should be remanded to the district court with the direction to allow further pleading and proof if necessary to ascertain whether or not certain restrictions and regulations of the right of sepulture can be made on a strip of ground adjoining a cemetery so as to prevent injury to the plaintiffs, and if it be found that the rights of the plaintiffs may be protected by proper regulations, then that the court modify the injunctions so as to allow burial to be made under regulations and conditions subscribed in its decree.

Workman Recovers Wages.

The judgment of the district court of Lancaster county is affirmed in the case of Frank E. Wageman against Borden Brook, and action to recover wages garnished and attorney's fees. The action is grounded on the act of 1887, which allows for the better protection of the earnings of laborers, servants and other employees of corporations, firms or individuals engaged in interstate business.

The plaintiff, an employe of the Burlington at the Herlock shops, alleged and proved that the defendant claimed to hold an account against him; that the defendant assigned such account to some person unknown to the plaintiff; that thereafter suit was instituted thereon in another state by a party other than the defendant, claiming to own the account; that in such proceeding the plaintiff's name was attached for the satisfaction of said account. The supreme court holds that this is sufficient to make a prima facie case under the provisions of the statute. The amount of the claim against the plaintiff for indebtedness was $214. The amount of the defendant's claim against the plaintiff was $100, which amount, together with $10 attorney's fees, was given the plaintiff by a judgment in the lower court. This judgment is affirmed.
