CHOICE EXPECTED ON FIRST BALLOT

Three Important Committees Dominated by Adherents of the Editor.

STRONG TENSION AMONG DELEGATES

Possibility that Storm May Sweep Away Work of Leaders.

FIRST SESSION OF CONVENTION BRIEF

Temporary Chairman Lewis Nixon Makes an Appeal for Harmony that is Applauded More Than Any Other Utterance.

BUFFALO, Sept. 25.—The democratic state convention will tomorrow nominate a governor and a full state ticket, action which may not go through until the smoothness that characterizes the first session today. In less than an hour today all the preliminary organization was disposed of.

Nixon of New York, the temporary chairman, made an appeal for harmony which was applauded more than any other utterance, although the convention could not be termed a wholly enthusiastic one so far.

There is a tension among the delegates tonight, however, as there may break a storm tomorrow to sweep away the structure which was built today after many hours of earnest effort on the part of the leaders, who are trying to find a common ground where, temporarily at least, the democracy of the state may pitch its tent and head off the tempest of the coming campaign.

According to the consensus of opinion tonight, William R. Hearst of New York, who is already the nominee of the independence league, will probably be nominated for governor by the first ballot. Along with Mr. Hearst, it is said, the convention will name W. Stuyvesant Chanler of Dutchess county for lieutenant governor and John S. Whaten of Monroe for secretary of state. Both Mr. Chanler and Mr. Whaten are also on the independence league ticket, and others that are as far as the most radical of the Hearst delegates will go in taking over the candidates of the independence league, for included in the ticket of that organization are one or two republicans.

War Horses for Hearst.

In announcing their decision to support Mr. Hearst a number of the democrats were appointed at the first session of the convention, not because of any conversion to all the ideas of government which Mr. Hearst represents, but because they feel under the circumstances he is the strongest candidate the convention has before it. The men who bitterly fought Mr. Hearst in years gone by have announced their intention to vote for him tomorrow, though they declare they are not ready to retract any statements they have made in the past. They declare Mr. Hearst has entered into no deal with them whatever, and that the fight has been fought squarely and without compromise on either side.

Hearst Controls Committees.

Mr. Hearst is generally conceded to have gained control of three important committees appointed at the first session of the convention, the committees on contested seats, which will decide contests in twenty districts, involving sixty votes, the committee on platform and resolutions, and the committee on permanent organization.

The platform agreed upon late tonight by a subcommittee appointed by the full committee will contain a plank declaring for municipal ownership under certain conditions and it is stated, will endorse William J. Bryan in a general way. Mr. Hearst will be placed in nomination tomorrow by former Assemblyman W. V. Cook of Albany county.

REPUBLICANS STILL UP IN THE AIR

Race is Probably Between Bruce and Hughes.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The first session of the republican state convention lasted an hour and a half and was uneventful and comparatively unimportant. Two episodes, however, occasioned some comment and amusement. One was a brief passage between State Chairman Odell, presiding, and Representative Herbert Parsons, heading the New York county delegation, and the other was the intervention of Temporary Chairman Driscoll's attack upon William R. Hearst by a young man standing before the front row of delegates, who exclaimed that Mr. Hearst had "sacrificed all."

WORK AS ATTORNEY IS LEGITIMATE

Says Railway is Not Owned by Standard Oil Company, but by St. Louis Capitalists and City of Nashville.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 25.—The following statement was made public tonight by Senator Joseph Bailey, in reply to criticisms of him by a record which have been circulated during the past few days:

The Democrats of Texas have forgotten that exactly this same kind of a record by Senator Bailey was first elected to the senate six years ago. After I had won the senatorship in a fair contest I had some of the most distinguished politicians made a desperate attempt to defeat my election by the legislature. The present agitation is a mere repetition of the same thing, with some outside assistance and is predicated upon exactly the same transaction. A certain party of the number cast for four of the candidates for governor, notwithstanding the general approval made by the voters in promoting this movement to the voters to elect my name. The convention which created the judges, without my traders having challenged a discussion of my record. They do not credit me in Texas, where all of the facts and circumstances are known, but they would like to impeach my usefulness in the senate.

Oil Company Not Owner of Road.

The first step in this campaign of malicious destruction was the use of a purported interview with the Hon. Roger Baldwin of Chicago, in which he said that the Tennessee railroad was owned by the Standard Oil Company. I promptly denounced that interview as a fabrication. I do not believe in the falsehood that the Tennessee railroad properties for which I am the attorney belong to the Standard Oil Company. I do not believe in the falsehood that the Standard Oil Company has no interest in or connection with these properties, and that they are owned by the Standard Oil Company. I do not believe in the falsehood that the Standard Oil Company has no interest in or connection with these properties, and that they are owned by the Standard Oil Company.

THREE DAYS' RIOTING COSTS MANY LIVES

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 25.—Atlanta tonight shows little signs of the turbulent scenes which have been enacted during the last several days. Good citizenship and cooler heads have apparently obtained the mastery, and prominent men, both white and colored, are bending every effort toward bringing the city back to its normal condition, which tonight is almost an accomplished task.
