LIGHT VETO IS SUSTAINED Unexpected Happens at the Meeting of the City Council.

COMPROMISE PROPOSITION COMING UP

ion the Besult of Chance Meeting Between the Mayor and Prestdent Nash of Lighting Company.

The unexpected happened. The city council did not pass the lighting contract over the mayor's veto, but on the contrary sumained the veto by a unanimous vote. That this happened was due entirely to an inferessen threumstance. It was brought bout by a chance meeting of Mayor Macac and President Nash of the lighting company, fust previous to the convening of the Mayor Macrae, while on his way to the ity hall with the veto tucked snugly away n his coat pocket, happened to meet Presi-ient Nash. T suppose you have your fighting clothes on?" suggested the mayor to Mr. Nash. To this Mr. Nash replied he had not; but would much prefer to settle the matter out of court, so to speak. The mayor said something about preferring an all night schedule instead of the Philadelphia moonlight plan.

"New you're talking," said Mr. Nash. One Yemark Ted to another and Mr. Nash suggested that the mayor get the committee on Highting together and arrange to veto sustained and the contract referred back to the committee, so that some agreement as to an all night schedule could be reached. The mayor hastened to the city hall, called out the three members of the lighting committee, hastened back with them to the office of the lighting company while the other councilmen sat and waited. In half an hour the mayor and the committee returned, and the word was passed around to sustain the veto and refer the contract back to the committee. This evidently was entirely satisfactory to the councilmen and after the mayor had read his "message" accompanying the veto, the nfotion to sustain was put and carried unantineusly. In returning the contract unsigned the mayor made the following state tract passed by your body September 17, 1905, unsigned.

In advance I wish to state that I find no particular fault with the work of your committee. It believe every man not only honest in his convictions, but anxious to do the very best for the citizens of Council Bluffs. However, several points have come to my attention which I believe deserve a reconsideration of your action of September II, 196, for the following reasons:

Cauncil Bluffs, receiving its electric supply, from Omaha, should be considered a part of Omaha from the standpoint of the electric lighting question.

I Council Bluffs and Omaha receiving cleated in Grand, should receive equal rates.

Some ha maintains lights at Miller parks some five miles from the plant, at a price less than the contemplated price per lamp in Council Bluffs, five miles distant from plant.

3 Omaha pays 75 per year for all-night are lights (in other words from dusk to dawn), but receives a royalty of 5 per cent on the gross receipts of the company exclusive of the city lights, amounting this year to about $10,000, which means that Omaha will pay about $13 per year for all-night arc lights.

4. The city of Omaha pays but's cents per 1,000 waits for all current consumed.

5. Is addition the gas company, which is a separate corporation in Omaha, pays to that city 5 cents for every 1,000 feet of gas consumed and paid for, which will amount to about $20,000 this year—in fact, the city has a guarantee of $20,000 this year.

the city has a guarantee of $30,000 this year.

6. Omaha, therefore, will receive a royality of $30,000 for gas and electricity for this year, 1906.

I would recommend the following: That you first reconsider your action by sustaining the veto of your mayor; that the city accept the 2 per cent royality as provided for; that $15 be fixed for the all-night ard and $55.50 for the arc on the Philadelphia plan; that the city council place the 150 lights which the company is by law bound to furnish the city buildings in the most desirable places; that any extra lights necessary for the city buildings be attached to meters and paid for at a rate of 8 cents per 1,000 watts; that your committee investigate to a greater extent the question of the number of smaller lights which may be obtained for one arc; that the proposition of $1.25 gas from the company be accepted, with an addition that it pays to the city annually 2 cents for every 1,000 feet consumed and paid for, not to include the city lighting.

Proposed Solution of Problem.

Proposed Solution of Problem.

The proposition now is for the city to pay $75 a light for an all-night schedule, from which will be deducted the 2 per cent rebate, which it is estimated will make the cost of the lights 169 each, or the same that the city has been paying for the lights on the moonlight schedule. It is also proposed that the company pay the city a royalty of 3 cents on every 1,000 cubic feet of gas sold and paid for, excepting that furnished the city.

The committee on fire and light is to get together at once and confer with President Nash, so that the matter can be definitely disposed of at the meeting next Monday night.

The matter was brought up by a com munication from the Nebraska Telephone company offering to place its 'phones in the schools at $2 a month, which if 50 cents a month less than the board had been paying before and which is half of the business 'phone rates charged by the company. The communication was referred to the committee on buildings and grounds, of which Member Shugart is chairman.

Later in the meeting Member Cooper moved that the Bell 'phones be replaced in the high school and superintendent's office. Chairman Shugart at once objected, claiming it was the prerogative of his committee to attend to the matter. President Westerdahl promptly supported Shugart by declaring Cooper's motion out of order, and refused to entertain it. Cooper insisted his motion was in order and appealed from the ruling of the chair. the absence of Member Tinley, only six members were present and there was a tie vote, President Westerdahl voting to sustain himself. Despite the fact that according to parliamentary rules a motion is lost on a tie vote. Mr. Westerdahl declared his ruling sustained and declared the question closed.

During the discussion it was argued by President Westerdahl that the reason the board had replaced the Bell 'phones with those of the Independent company was because the latter company, under its franchise, was required to supply ten telephones to the schools free of charge, but the fact was brought out that the board was paying for five if not seven extra telephones.

A test of the water pressure was made yesterday morning for the benefit of Engineer Klersted, the expert employed by the city to compute the value of the present plant. The tests were made on Broadway and Fourth streets and South Main street in what is known as the "Implement dis-

Both tests showed that the pressure was fully up to the ordinance requirements. With the wind a stream was thrown 146 feet and against the wind, which was blowing strong, eighty-two feet. On Main stree with all six streams fully opened between Thirteenth and Sixteenth avenues, the pressure was found to range from fortytwo and a half to sixty pounds. During this test on Main street, it must be taken into account that seven freight and three passenger elevators were drawing from the mains in this particular district.

Mr. Kiersted himself took the readings of the gauges and watched the test closely While decliring to make any extended comment Mr. Klersted stated that the showing on Broadway was most excellent while that on Main street where, owing to the circumstances alluded to, the pressure was not quite so great, the test, however was most satisfactory.
