Fall.

The time has come to say goodbys
To college girls, so sweet and shy.
And college men, so bright and gay.
Are now about to dash away.
And as we speed departing train,
Let's give a tosat with this refrain:
Clood work, good friends, good times, good cheer! he with you all throughout the year."

FRIDAY-Ak-Sar-Ben ball.
MATURDAY-Dinner and dance at Country club and Field club.

This week's calendar includes few social vents of importance, for most of the omen are so busy preparing for the Ak-Bar-Ben ball Friday evening that they have little time for anything else. There kre several visiting women in town for the the week. The ball, Friday evening's big event, is the only topic of conversation at social gatherings newadays, and many are the speculations as to the identity of the king and queen. Many aggert that she will be a tall, stately brunette, the daughter of a prominent railroad official, while others declare that a young woman who won considerable renown in the east this summer by her beauty is the favored one, while others are just as positive that the queen will be her sister, who has spent the summer abroad. The fact that the queen for several years has been chosen from among the season's debutantes leads others to think that one of the young women to be introduced later in the season will be the favored one. There are just as many rumors affoat as to the identity of the king and many would not be surprised to see a young man who has been me of the governors for several years carry off that honor. Many new features and innovations are to be introduced this reason and those who are in a position to know say that the ball this seawill be the most brilliant yet given. Society is taking a great interest this year and the dressmakers are preparing some gorgeous costumes for the oc-in many respects. There were many small affairs given in honor of visiting the Country club or Field club. In fact all of the entertaining was done at the clubs, for the women seem anxious to take advantage of the few remaining weeks, before they close the season, and prefer to do all their full entertaining there. September and October are beautiful months versity of Nebraska this fall, has been at these places and the knowledge that the pledged to the Kappa Kappa Gamma end of the season is near at hand gives sorority. to these affairs an added interest and zest, which is lacking in midsummer. There Hoff's violet luncheon. The large luncheo given by Mrs. C. N. Dietz, in honor of Mrs. Himebaugh was one of the notable affairs of the season. At the Field club there were also a number of luncheons and dinners and then there were several home affairs, which were also very enjoyable.

The coming season promises to be very gay, judging from the many attractive debutantes to be launched, and there are rumors of many large functions to be given as soon as the Ak-Say-Ben tostivities are over. In the social doings of the winter many Omahans who have niways taken a prominent part in everything will be greatly missed, for many have taken up their residence in other cities, and several will spend the winter abroad. Among those who will sojourn In Europe this winter are Miss Mas Hamilton, Mrs. J. J. Dickey and daughter, and Mrs. Bertha Offutt. Several other Omaha people are traveling abroad also, who will probably return before cold weather Mrs. Guy Howard and Miss Howard, who are delightful entertainers, will spend the winter in New York, while Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kountze have closed their home, Forest Hill, and will try the southern climate. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dickinson and daughter, Mrs. W. F. Karnes, who have always occupied a prominent place in Omaha society, will ngure in the social activities of Kansas City, while the social columns of the St. Paul papers will chronicle the doings of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Strickland. Judge and Mrs. W. R. Kelly prefer the climate

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The class season of the local Young Women's Christian association will oper Monday evening, October 8, with the anqual full opening reception, which will be held in the association rooms in the Paxton block. The officers of the association wil-constitute the reception committee and will be assisted by members of the various committees, each of which will have a corner or a table where the several branches of work may be talked over. The educational committee has arranged an exceptional number of classes this year under some of the best instructors to be had in the city. All fees for educational and industrial classes are $2 for two terms of wenty lessons and $1.50 for one term of ten lessons in all classes.

Miss Kate McHugh of the Omaha High school faculty will conduct a class in the study of the works of Robert Browning. Mrs. Harriet Griswold will resume her classes in the English language for foreignspeaking girls. This is counted one of the highly valuable classes, as it includes reading and writing as well as speaking English. Mr. Jasper Robertson of the high school will teach a class in bookkeeping. Miss Louise Shadduck will have charge of the mandolin and stringed instrument club and Mrs. Joe Hardin will direct the vocal work. A class in home nursing is one of the innovations and will be instructed by Miss Nan Dorsey. This course will also include emergency work. A class in millinery will be conducted by Miss Rose Mc-Shane and Mrs. Grace Kloes will direct a class in shirt waist making. An advance class in dressmaking will be conducted by Mrs. Woodruff. A current topics club will be organized Tuesday evening, October 29. Miss Florence Denison of Mendota, Ill., will have charge of the physical department of the association this year. Information for all classes may be had at the office of the association.

Fifth Anniversary. Saturday last. Benson & Thorne, proprietors of the Lilliputian Bazzar, celebrated the fifth successful year of their business association. During this time they have made their store known throughout the entire west by substantial advertising, as the leading place to buy juvenile wearing apparet. Parents have been quick to realize the advantage offered by an exclusive young folks' outfitting establishment, such as formerly was enjoyed only by the very largest eastern cities. This unique store has built up an enviable reputation for the variety of goods displayed and the very many little fixings that every juvenile wardrobe demands these days. A fortypage illustrated catalog, edited by the heads of the different departments and printed on Omaha presses, is just now being carried by Uncle Sam to many states. Wednesday evening a very pleasant dinner was enjoyed at the Calumes cafe by the selling and office forces. Covers were laid for fifteen and amid a gale of laughter and good fellowship several hours passed swiftly away.

Tailor-Made Suits and Coats For Fall and Winter

Every facility was exerted toward getting tailored suits and coats for the Ak-Sar-Ben at prices better than ever. Our vast display of high art wearing apparel for women and misses is certainly remarkable. The choicest products of the leading style centers, the new materials, the new colors and the new designs, will answer the query of thousands tomorrow and all week, who are intent on finding out the season's correct fashions in suits and coats. Yes, even the women who have a dormant want will be interested in so great a showing as this.

This reliable exclusive cloak store is now the busiest spot in the middle west devoted to the sale of women's and misses' tailored garments—and for good reasons—mainly, because quality and style considered, we sell coats, suits, skirts and waists very much lower than any other store in the city. We can because our Omaha and Sioux City stores are the two leading and best exclusive cloak store in the middle west, giving us an opportunity to buy women's and misses' high art wearing apparel in large quantities than any other house in Omaha. So great a stock as our is, contains at all times complete varieties of styles, colors, sizes, etc.

The ensuing week will mark the choosing of hundreds of new fall and winter garments here. The reliable cloak store will be the mecca of every woman in search of style and economy combined. Columns of descriptions would simply make a beginning in this tremendous collection. You must come and see for yourself what Dame Fashion has ordained the proper thing for fall and winter.
