DEGREE OF HONOR RESERVE FUND Committee Appointed to Draft a

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 1 .- (Special Telegram.) - The election of officers and the consideration of a proposition to create a reserve fund took up practically all the time of the Nebraska grand lodge of the Degree of Honor, Ancient Order of United Workmen, today. The grand lodge voted to create a reserve fund and a special of official precedence, not exactly of the committee of five persons was appointed to kind that makes trouble at Washington prepare a report on the subject with recomsocial functions, but nevertheless carrying mendations as to the conditions which the idea of preferment and distinction, has should be imposed. This report will be been raised by Congressman Moses P. Kin- submitted before adjournment. The grand kaid of O'Nelli, representative from the lodge represents 260 local lodges throughout Sixth Nebraska district, in a letter to Nebraska, over 8,000 beneficiary members Secretary of State Galusha, asking that and about 16,000 social members. There ominees for congress be given a place on are 255 voting delogates and about 200 visitthe ballot in advance of the state ticket at the coming election. He declares that as part of the national ticket they are entitled ballot system. For several of the offices to precedence over candidates for state a second ballot was necessary. The vote to precedence over candidates for state offices.

Unfortunately for Mr. Kinkaid and other congressional nominees, the ballot law of Nebraska is plainly against the arrangement he proposes. The law contains a sample schedule of the official ballot and provides that it must be followed as closely as possible in making up the ticket. This assigns to congressmen a place just below the state ticket and above the legislative candidates, the theory of the law makers evidently being that candidates voted for by all the people of the state should come first and those elected by districts afterwards.

On receipt of Congressmman Kinkaid's letter, Secretary of State Gaiusha referred it to the attorney general's office for an opinion. Deputy W. T. Thompson of the legal department looked up the law on the subject, which he found in section 140, chapter xxvi. Compiled Statutes of 1905. It is provided there that the form of the saliot as hall as nearly as possible conform to the accompanying schedule. The conclusion which he reached was reported to the secretary of state's office in this language. Schedule A, set forth in the statutes under section 180 of said chapter, is made ap part of the statute and is the form of the ballot and the order in which the names shall appear thereon. It is our opinion that this statute is not open to construction, and that it is your duty as secretary of state to follow its provisions. The secretary of state in certifying the nominees to the clerks of the various countles, will follow the attorney general's opinion and recommend that the nominees of the clerks of the various countles, will follow the attorney general's opinion and recommend that the nominess opinion and recommend that the secretary of state to follow its provisions. The secretary of state in certifying the nomines to the clerks of Lexington and Ada Harding of Hebron were chosen superior lodge representatives in the order named.
