We are about to publish a new weekly. A magazine so different in purpose and scope and usefulness that people will wonder why it was not published long ago. It seems to us that this great country of ours with all its forcefulness and enterprise can afford to be constantly in touch with itself. We believe that we have discovered a way by which we can give the people something they very much want and something that they now have no other way of getting.

The unique feature of Ridgway's is, that it will be published from fourteen cities simultaneously every Saturday morning. How are we going to do it? Well, here is our plan, and we think it will look as good to you as it does to us. We shall maintain a complete organization in each of the following centres where Ridgway's is published: New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, San Francisco, Washington, New Orleans, Seattle, Atlanta, Denver, Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburg, St. Paul and Minneapolis. In each of the fourteen cities there will be a managing editor, with associate editors, correspondents, special contributors, artists, advertising and circulating managers. We intend with the aid of our editors all over the country to get to the scene of every important event at the earliest moment after it has happened. At midnight of the day preceding publication each of the local editors will wire to New York a brief editorial story of the events of his section that he believes will be of interest to the rest of the country. In New York, editorial writers with Samuel Hopkins Adams in charge, will go over these stories, shape them up, being careful not to destroy the local color, and wire three or four pages of finished editorials back to each branch, thus the whole country will contribute to the national editorials. A few hours later Ridgway's will be on the presses in fourteen cities being printed at newspaper speed.

The local news and editorials will be treated just as thoroughly by the local editor for his own section. We have secured the best man obtainable in his district, one who can reflect the life of his section, in Business, Politics, Sports, Finance. Society and Education, week in and out. There will be nothing but clean, crisp, up-to-date news that will keep wide-awake readers alive to the big events that are happening around them.

What about stories and illustrations and general articles? We shall have plenty of them. The best we can buy. We believe in humor and every form of wholesome amusement. Nothing will be left undone to make these features a great success with our readers. We shall seek contributors everywhere. Ridgway's will undoubtedly make a great many literary reputations, just as Everybody's did. We are already able to announce a great serial story by Joseph-Conrad, to be called "The Secret Agent." It will begin in the first issue. Mr. Conrad has written sea stories that have made him famous. In The Secret Agent he has entered a new field, It is a story of European Diplomacy. The scene is laid in London, wellknown as an asylum for European Anarchists. A story of this kind is necessarily full of action and fascination. The Secret Agent is especially so.

Gelett Burgess will conduct a department of humor, consisting of at least four pages each issue, fully illustrated. It will be kept up-to-date. When you see the first number you will appreciate how good this department is. Mr. Burgess will have the aid of the best artists and illustrators at home and abroad. Another feature of the illustrations will be a sixteenpage section of half-tones printed on super paper, depicting important happenings, local and national. There will be weekly full-page cartoons, true to the topic and the times.

Here are some of the contributors who are now at work for us:

Emerson Hough Broughton Bradenberg Ernest Poole Harvey J. O'Higgins Franklin Matthews Samuel Blythe Ralph D. Paine

Winton Churchill Agnes Laut Eleanor Hoyt Brainerd Jacques Futrelle Dr. Henry C. Rowland George W. Ogden Lucia Chamberlin

One of the greatest features of Ridgway's will be the Washington Bureau, under the direction of Martin Egan. We propose to tell you in an interesting way, every week, just what each department of the national government is doing in your service. Mr. Egan will have a staff of twelve associate editors in order to cover every department of the government. There will be special representatives for the Senate, the House and the Diplomatic Service. This Washington Bureau will make us better Americans. We are all interested in our great big government, yet, how much do we know about it?

What will be the policy of Ridgway's? - principally to tell the truth and make the truth interesting. We shall not try to run down or over anybody. We shall stand squarely on the platform, a militant weekly for God and Country. If we feel that any individual in the public eye is not getting a square deal, we may think it wise to give him an opportunity to tell his own story. What we want is facts; facts that are fresh in the making. If we give things as we find them, the average Amercian citizen can be trusted to reach a very definite conclusion by the shortest possible route.

Ridgway's will be on sale everywhere tomorrow morning. It will be a 64-page weekly, and will be sold at 10c a copy or $5.00 a year. We advise you to get your order in early because advance orders indicate a big demand, and we shall not print beyond immediate requirements. You can buy Ridgway's in the same way as your newspaper or magazine. It will be sold by the newsdealer and the newsboy, on the stand or in the street.
