

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Takes Sharp Start, but Losses Close is Practically Unchanged. Aside from Weak Cables, News Generally is Bearish, Receipts Being Lighter Than Last Year and Cash Market Strong.

OMAHA, Oct. 4, 1906. The local bull market has advanced fractionally this morning after an unchanged opening. The market has been advanced considerably by reports from other markets at one time and another. From the foreign weakness, the news generally was showery, receipts were much lighter than last year and the cash demand was good. On other hand, export business was reported slow. Corn receipts were not as large as the estimates and the cash demand was better, with prices a good fraction advanced. Receipts were very light, however, and the market had a narrow range. Following are the receipts and shipments of wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, clover, alfalfa, timothy, hay, and other products.

Table with columns: Wheat, Dec, Jan, Feb, Mar, Apr, May, Jun, Jul, Aug, Sep, Oct, Nov, Dec. Rows for various grades of wheat, corn, oats, etc.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Money Conditions Continue to Relax. Both at Home and Abroad—President's Speech Affects Values.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Dealings in stocks were active today and the business of the trading approached stagnation. Prices drifted up and uncertainty, with a downward trend in the market, was the result of inaction from any active speculative pressure.

Speculative sentiment was disturbed also by the rumors of a hitch in the 'ore deal' and by the countenance which was given to the currency reform by the president's address at Hartford.

The money market continued to relax, both here and abroad. Discount rates were returned to the government banks owing to the strain on resources thus disbursed.

Following were the sales and range of prices on the Stock Exchange:

Table of stock prices: Adams Express, American Express, American Sugar, etc.

FOREIGN FINANCIAL. LONDON, Oct. 4.—Money was in request and the rate of discount was 5 per cent.
