The one greatest hope held out that the murderer will be apprehended, as stated by Chief of Police Donahue Tuesday James H. Watson of Indiana, who dwelt evening, when, tired after many hours of duty and continued walking, he went home early to get some rest, lies in the offer of ESTIMATE CN DAKOTA COBN rewards, which now total $1,000. In mail ing this statement Chief Donahue did not mean to admit helplessness on the part of the polico department, but meant to "convey his confidence in the good influence of the rewards toward the betrayal of the brute. His figures put the acreage continued the scarch during the night, and for the year at 2,047,466 acres, and the yield at midnight nothing had been discovered at 76,207,886 bushels, with an average of to bring the police nearer the goal, but thirty-seven bushels to the acre for the many stories had been run down, and found whole state. Bon Hemme county claims to be groundless, so that when the men go the lead in both acreage and total yield, to work this morning their efforts will be with 159,545 acres and 6,381,800 bushels, and directed along more concerted lines.

It is a practical certainty the crime was committed by a negro and all officers were instructed to look carefully for colored men answering the description. During the night a number of suspicious-looking negroes were sent to the city jail and locked up, but there wate none upon whom ENGLISHMAN UNDER ARREST any strong suspicion could rest after they had been examined. The news that re-Man Claiming to Be Cousin of Lord wards to the extent of $1,000 had been offered was received with joy by the police and they are now more confident of early results.

Referring to the matter of reward, Chief ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.-Henry Alfred Doug-Chief of Police Donahue said he felt sure las Schultz, who says he is a cousin of that an offer of money would excite the Lord Sholto Douglas of Great Britain, was cupidity of someone who could name the arested here yesterday upon instructions murderer. Had it not been for the rewards offered, he said, the murderers of Conductor Flury might never have been apprehended.

> The description of the negro seen in the act of taking from the pile of rubbish at Twenty-fifth and Farnam streets the club which is supposed to be the same one that killed the woman, has been given out by the police. Chief Donahue would not make the description public Monday. but now that the same description of suspicious looking negroes has been given by two other persons, the chief is led to believe it is reasonably correct.

The negro described was seen gettin, the club at Twenty-fifth and Farnam to a man and his wife. The time has been definitely settled at 10:05. He was per haps 25 years of age, was five feet six o seven inches in height, weighed about 114 pounds, wore neat dark clothes and black hat, probably soft. At about 10:34 Frank L. Delaware of 111 South Twenty seventh street says he saw a negro fight ing a dog in the rear of J. H. Hanks house at 119 South Twenty-seventi street. He describes the man as above except that he had a high-crowned straw hat and might have been heavier that 140 pounds.
