Fresno Has Fifteen More Votes for Convention Than Duluth.

RITUAL AND INSURANCE RATES D. BATED

Election of Officers Next on the Card, with Chances in Favor of Re-Election of Voght for President.

The quadrennial national convention of the Danish Brotherhood society in 1910 will be held in Fresno, Cal. The selection was made at yesterday afternoon's session, the convention deciding in favor of the California town over Duluth, Minn., the only other city in the field for the meeting, by sixteen votes.

At the morning session yesterday the convention commenced the discussion of the proposed revision of the ritual, after completing the revision of the insurance rates. The election of officers is slated for this afternoon's session, although it is not unlikely that it will take place this morning. If the other business is out of the way, indications yesterday were that H. H. Voght of Davenport would be re-elected supreme president, although there are two other candidates said to be in the field. John Michaelson of Omaha appears certain of re-election as supreme secretary and it is stated that there is a strong desire on the part of the delegates to retain J. Eskildsen of Chicago as treasurer. Fred Peterson of the local lodge is a candidate for treasurer, but he talks yesterday were that he would be given some other supreme office instead. Last evening the visitors went to Omaha, where another entertainment was given in their honor by the members of that city. The convention will close this afternoon and in the evening the visiting delegates will be entertained by dramatic performance in Danish hall, followed by a dance which will bring to a close the week's festivities in honor of the visitors.

Daughters Contest Will. In the district court yesterday Judge Macy and a jury had before them the trial of what is known as the Casson will case. Charles Casson, a farmer living near Macedonia, Pottawattamie county, left an estate valued at $200,000. Under the terms of his will two daughters, Mrs. Anna Aukland and Mrs. Charlotte Bridal, did not fare very well and they brought suit to set the will aside, alleging undue influence. They allege that their mother and their brother John turned their father against them by asserting that their husbands were spendthrifts and would waste such patrimony as might be left to their wives. The plaintiffs were only left a life interest in their share of the estate, the principal to go to their children upon their attaining their majority. Casson was 77 years of age when he made the will which his

PET DOG A GOOD BURGLAR ALARM

Wakens Its Mistress, Who Promptly Screams for Help. As Mrs. George L. Smith, residing at 519 Mynter street, was about to enter her bedroom on the second floor Thursday night her attention was attracted by the frantic barking of her little pet fox terrier. Turning to ascertain the cause of the dog's excitement she discovered a man standing in the shadow of the hall downstairs. "Throw up your hands and be quick about it," ordered the fellow with an oath, but Mrs. Smith instead of complying with the command gave vent to a piercing scream, which was plainly heard by the occupants of adjoining houses. The scream did its work and the fellow made a rush for the back door, the key of which was in the lock, unlocked the door, slamming it to with such force after him as to shatter the glass panel to pieces. Mrs. Smith, as the intruder left the back door, rushed out of the front door, and her screams soon brought several of the neighbors hurrying to her assistance. Several started in pursuit of the fellow, but he had evidently made his way across Indian creek and escaped in the darkness.

Officers Wilson and Jensen were soon on the scene and investigation showed that the fellow had entered the house through a cellar window, which he had forced open. Mrs. Smith was able to give a very fair description of the intruder, who was a white man, and said she would be able to recognize him if she saw him again.

At the residence of Attorney R. J. Organ, on Harrison, a burglar gained entrance to the cellar, but his movements aroused Mr. Organ, who arose and turned on the lights. This evidently frightened the fellow, as he was heard to make a hasty exit through the cellar window by which he had entered.

Cold Storage Plant Needed.

There was a good attendance at the meeting yesterday afternoon called to consider the proposition of erecting a cold storage warehouse in this city in connection with the artificial ice plant of the Bloomer company. Some local commission men were present and each expressed his willingness to take stock in the concern, if started. The need of such a warehouse was conceded by all present, but nothing definite was decided upon at yesterday's meeting. Another meeting will be held in the Commercial club rooms today to consider the proposition of establishing a live stock sales pavilion in this city. This is also conceded to be much needed in Council Bluffs, there being no proper facilities for the exhibition and sale of blooded stock. The establishment of a sales pavilion with proper facilities for handling such stock would, it is believed, prove an incentive to farmers of this section to breed better stock of all kinds.

Edwin H. Walters Dead.

Edwin H. Walters, senior member of the firm of Walters & Wadsworth of this city, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his residence, 311 Willow avenue, after an illness of eight weeks. His wife survives him.

Mr. Walters had been a resident of Council Bluffs for twenty-three years and 741 West Broadway, you get just what you order, whether you order over the phone or leave the order at the store.

That he was again critically ill was unknown to Mr. Walters' friends and business acquaintances, and the news of his death yesterday afternoon came as a great shock to them. He was 45 years of age and for the last fourteen years had been associated with J. G. Wadsworth in the farm loan and investment business.

While arrangements have as yet not been completed for the funeral, it will probably be held Sunday afternoon. The Council Bluffs lodge of Elks will have charge of the services at the cemetery.

Woman Searching for Son.

Mrs. Augusta Olson arrived yesterday from Morganville, Kan., to visit her son, Elmer G. Olson, whom she said, lived not more than a mile from the Rock Island depot and had a truck farm. The son, she said, came to Council Bluffs about a year ago from Sioux City, and she had corresponded regularly with him since. He was not at the depot, however, to meet her, she had expected he would be and she was unable to locate his residence.

Mrs. Olson finally sought the court house and asked for assistance there in locating her son. The directory failed to give the address of the son and efforts on the part of the sheriff's force failed to give any trace of him. Pending the continued search for her son Mrs. Olson is being taken care of by Mrs. Gallup, wife of the county jailer.

Green's Troubles are Many.

The case against Roy Green, charged with the theft of $100 from the grocery store of Fred Evers last Saturday evening, was dismissed in Justice Gardiner's court yesterday on motion of the assistant county attorney, for lack of evidence.

Green, however, was rearrested, together with Grace Johnson, 147 Young woman with whom it is alleged, he had been living at Twenty-fifth street and Avenue D since his return to Council Bluffs after his escape from the Grand hotel. The warrant for the woman was served in the court room, she having arrived there ahead of Green. She was permitted to go on her own recognizance in the sum of $200, but Green, in default of bail, was sent back to the county jail to await his hearing on the new charge, which is set for Monday morning.

Ridgway's

Published from fourteen cities simultaneously this morning. Each issue the same everywhere, except the local sections, and brimful of the week's happenings flashed by wire from all parts of the country. The big events of the week featured in national editorials.

What Does Hearst Stand For?

Mr. Edward W. Townsend, a member of our staff, answers this question in this issue. Mr. Townsend writes from an acquaintanceship of twenty years, during some of which he was one of Mr. Hearst's chief aides in launching his first newspaper venture. The article will include an interesting word picture of Mr. Hearst's personal characteristics.

Packingtown—Four Months After

We have said that, above everything else, Ridgway's will be fair. With this thought we sent Mr. Chris Healy to Chicago to get the facts, following the recent exposure at Packingtown. Mr. Healy got them and has written an interesting account for this number. It will be wholly unbiased, because Mr. Healy comes here fresh from England, without any prejudices. He is well known as author of "The Confessions of a Journalist."

The Week at Washington

Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Root have returned to Washington, and Mr. Taft will be back in a week or more. Departments news will be brisk from now on. Ridgway's will give you news and information of national interest and importance that you cannot find elsewhere. Martin Egan with his department editors contribute interesting reports and comments in our Washington Bureau this week.

Humor, Fiction and Illustrations

GLETT BURGESS in his Department of Humor contributes a lively sketch entitled The Ultra-Peach, which he has illustrated himself. Other contributors are Wallace Irwin, C. A. Selden, Carolyn Wells and Justin Sturgis. T. JENKINS HAINS has written an excellent sea story entitled "The Edge of the Roncador." There is lots of go to this tale. If the plot doesn't interest the most jaded reader, the illustration will. JOSEPH CONRAD contributes the second installment of his stirring serial, The Secret Agent. Those who read the first article of the series Little Tragedies of the Trusts, by Ralph D. Paine, in the first number of Ridgway's will be ready for the second installment entitled "The Rebellion of A. Hertz, Butcher." These informing articles will cause a lot of comment. There is an excellent political cartoon by W. H. Walker.

This week's number will please the most exacting. There are 4 pages on national topics of the week, 4 pages of national editorials, 8 pages of local happenings in your district, 16 pages illustrating current events, 8 pages from the Washington Bureau, 4 pages of humor, 2 pages of The Week at a Glance, with additional pages of general articles and sketches—64 pages in all.

The West End Improvement club, at its meeting Thursday night, decided to appeal to the Interstate Commerce commission on the alleged grounds that the street railway company was discriminating against Council Bluffs in the matter of fares. The club seeks a flat 5-cent fare between this city and Omaha.

Jacob Reese, member of a Milwaukee grading gang at Weston, Ia., was lodged in the county jail here yesterday pending a hearing on the charge of stealing $2 and a ring from Fred Roth, a fellow workman in the grading camp. Reese is to have a hearing Monday before Justice E. D. Snyder of Hazel Dell township.

County Superintendent of Schools O. J. McManus, is home from a trip to Canada. Enroute home at Worthington, Minn., people on the depot platform mistook him for William Jennings Bryan and were yelling for a speech when the train luckily pulled out and relieved Prof. McManus of further embarrassment.

Miss Hazel Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore, will leave tomorrow for Chicago, where she has been appointed to teach vocal music in the Fine Art Institute. Miss Moore studied for five years in the Bryant institute and is well known in musical circles in Chicago, having sung in several of the leading church choirs there.

James Anderson, janitor at the Masonic Temple building, was before Judge Scott in police court yesterday morning, charged with violating the ordinance of the city by throwing waste paper and other rubbish in the alley at the rear of the building. Anderson pleaded ignorance of the ordinance and on promising to be more careful in the future, as to where he disposed of the rubbish from the building, was discharged, after being read a lecture by the court.
