

SOCIETY AND THE HORSE SHOW

Annual Equine and Dress Parade the All-Assembling Thing Just Now.

AUTUMN SEASON OPENS WITH FUNCTION

Little in Prospect for the Coming Week, but Several Interesting Women Make Impromptu Affairs Likely.

The Summer is Past. Summer evening. Full of fun. Summer fellow. Chapter One.

Midnight evening. Naught to do. Tender Topics. Chapter Two.

Sprinkling diamond. Love will be ever cherished. Chapter Three.

August passes. Girl no more. Likewise diamond. Chapter Four.

Young man wakens. Heart to mend. Love next season? NO! The End.

Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Omaha Guards' anniversary dance at Chambers.

WEDNESDAY—Ladies' day at Country club.

THURSDAY—El-A-Virp dancing party at C. Munnery; Marchionette Kensington club meets with Mrs. Raymond Barnum; C. T. Eubank club meets with Mrs. E. R. Rahm; Miss Webster, bridge; Miss Peck of Chicago.

FRIDAY—Bridge club meets with Mrs. E. R. Ward; Winfield club dance at Chambers.

The Horse Show at the Auditorium—October 22 to 27—is the big red-letter entry in society's engagement book, and although there are certainly things of consequence related to the page beyond, the fastidious are loath to be of them for the present and couch them only as a part of the story which will open with the big, brilliant show.

Society is thoroughly enthralled, and such enthusiasm can mean but one result—the most successful horse show that has yet been held, and that is saying a great deal. The pick of the boxes was sold early in the season, and at least a dozen of the women who can make or unmake a season have invited guests from out of town for the week, which promises well, considering.

Some magnificent gowns will be seen in the boxes and on the promenade this year, but this is not the only place or the only way in which the women will figure this season. The riding school and all the subsequent practice has not been for nothing, and more women than usual will ride or drive.

The box list so far includes:

- John M. Baldwin, P. H. Ippolite, G. A. Keelme, P. E. Iyer, G. P. Moorhead, E. R. Gilmore, H. H. Brandeis, A. E. Beaton, A. D. Brandeis, E. McCormick, E. H. Davis, L. E. Webster, Abe Reed, Fred Metz, Joseph M. Cudahy, F. H. Krug, R. F. Peck, E. E. Baum, R. C. Howe, D. A. Baum, J. M. Daugherty, Guy C. Barton, F. S. Cowell, George F. Bidwell, W. J. C. Kenyon, T. C. Byrne, Mrs. E. C. Wash, L. E. Ippolite, G. Gilbert, L. E. Ippolite, W. T. Burns, T. C. McPherson, W. J. Connel, A. C. Smith, J. L. Paxton, E. A. Cudady, W. A. Redick, E. H. Kelly, Ward Burgess, H. E. Cudady, W. T. Page, F. W. Judson, J. H. Pratt, F. W. Judson, H. Creighton, R. E. McGrew, A. J. Joslyn, G. W. Matties, William Hayden, R. B. Davis, C. R. Taylor, J. A. McShane, John A. Wakefield, George L. Hammer, Frank D. Brown, A. H. Rawitzke, Frank N. Peck.

The last week has been exceptionally quiet in society and the reason is not quite apparent. It may be the aftermath of carnival week, or it may be that society is saving all its energies for the horse show, or it may be a little too early in the season for much entertaining. There has been a dearth of small affairs even, the only things being a few informal luncheons and afternoons for visitors, who remained over from the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities. The only affairs of importance were the Ippolite buffet luncheon Tuesday, which was a handsomely appointed function, and the luncheon of Mrs. C. N. Dietz at the Country club, which, like the luncheon given by her two weeks ago, was one of the events of the club season. The reception of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Carpenter last evening in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary was a notable event, too, and proved very enjoyable.

The prospects in a social way for this week are not very brilliant if one is to judge by the calendar. There are no luncheons, dinners or afternoon parties, the only events being the opening dance of the Omaha Guards, the El-A-Virp club and the Winfield clubs, but as there are several visitors in town and several more expected, the week holds promise of many impromptu affairs. Omaha people are very fond of dancing, judging from the number of clubs. The "Winfield" dances began last week and the Hanscom Park and Qui Vive clubs will begin their season in November, while the Capitol Hill club has issued announcements for a series, which opens the evening of November 2, at Chambers', with a dance to which the members may bring guests. The dates announced for the season are: November 2, December 7 and 20, January 4 and 18, February 4 and 15 and March 1 and 15.

Miss Mildred Lomax, Miss Marie Mohler, Augustus Kountze, W. M. Burgean, N. P. Dodge, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Kountze and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kountze.

The largest event of the week and one of the most enjoyable of the season was the reception given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac White Carpenter at their residence, 2525 Lafayette avenue, in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The occasion was a beautiful decorated, the main color scheme being red, a profusion of scarlet salvia, carnations and roses being used, while the chandeliers, doorways and windows were gracefully festooned with feathery plumosa ferns and palms were placed here and there. In the parlor, where Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter and Miss Linn Carpenter received the guests, numbering about 250, American Beauty roses, red carnations, ferns and palms were arranged, while in the hall and library palms, salvia and other blooming ferns were decorations. In the dining room the round table had a centerpiece of red roses, resting on a handsome clay lace centerpiece, and extending from this to the sides of the table were broad, wide satin ribbons, with the anniversary dates lettered in silver and red. Single silver candlesticks holding red tapers were also used, and buffet and plate rail were trimmed with asparagus ferns and flowers. Punch was served on the piazza, which was enclosed and converted into a cozy corner with cushions, rugs and trimmings of greens. A harp stationed in the hallway added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Assisting throughout the rooms were Mr. and Mrs.

J. H. Dumont, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Williamson, Dr. and Mrs. George F. Bicknell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weller, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Love, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Switzer and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Payne. Punch was served by the Misses Elizabeth Anderson, Nellie Carpenter, Greichen McConnell, Nellie Ryan, Eleanor Patrick, Marion Carpenter and Mary Phillip.

Weddings and Engagements.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanchett have issued announcements of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Hope Hanchett, and Richard J. Organ, which occurred October 6 in Council Bluffs. Mr. and Mrs. Organ will be at home at 319 Harrison street, Council Bluffs, after November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Welsh announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mae Welsh, and Paul E. Burleigh. The wedding will take place in February. Miss Welsh has been a member of the high school faculty and Mr. Burleigh is connected with the Brands bank. Both young people have been popular at the Field club and their romance has been watched with interest by the members of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Brady have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bessie Brady, to Mr. Thomas Nathan Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Davis. Miss Brady, who was educated at Mrs. Seville's school in New York and made her debut four years ago, has been one of the most popular young women in society, and in 1905 was honored by being chosen queen of the Ak-Sar-Ben. She is a graduate of Yale and is associated with his father in the First National bank.

The wedding of Miss Rose Dahlen and John O'Brien, which took place at the Sacred Heart church, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, was a very pretty wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Judge and the wedding march was played by Miss O'Connell. The ushers were Messrs. H. J. McDonnell and W. Carnaby and the maid of honor was Miss Clara Dahlen, sister of the bride, while the best man, The bride was dressed in white tulle, tucked and trimmed with valenciennes lace, with long tulle veil, and her bouquet was of bride's roses and swansonia. The maid of honor was attired in pale green silk, with lace insertion, and carried a very pretty bouquet. A wedding breakfast was served to about twenty guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chadwell at Benson. After a wedding trip in the east Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien will be at home at 2513 Bristol street after November 1.

KENNEDY ON CUBAN SITUATION

Give the Islanders Another Chance to Govern Themselves, Says the Congressman from Omaha.

Hon. John L. Kennedy, member of congress from the Second Nebraska district, is in receipt of the following letter from A. B. Hull of Chicago:

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Hon. John L. Kennedy, U. S. Senator from Nebraska, Cuba seem to have unjustly our relations commercially and otherwise, with all Spanish countries.

To eliminate doubt and create confidence, we have decided to ask each United States senator and congressman to present to the present situation in Cuba and our future policy toward the island countries. These we will publish in our Latin Republics Americana, which goes to every Spanish-American newspaper, and each member of his cabinet, to 100 congressmen, all the newspapers and the public at large.

Will you favor us with an early reply? We have just sent you a copy of Latin Republics Americana, and a copy of our LATIN AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY, 115 N. W. Wabash street, Chicago.

Mr. Kennedy's reply to Mr. Hull is: OMAHA, Oct. 12.—Mr. A. B. Hull, Chicago: Dear Sir—I have your favor of October 5, requesting me to present to the present situation in Cuba and our future policy towards that country. I believe the attitude of the United States towards the people of Cuba have not yet had a fair opportunity to express their own views. They ought to be encouraged to establish a government, and maintain an independent government. Our policy towards Spanish and South American countries should be one of friendliness. The best way to add to it is to help them to help themselves. Yours very truly, JOHN L. KENNEDY.

Miss Boulter has arranged for the use of the First Baptist church organ for the coming season and organ practice. Studio, six McCague.

First Presbyterian Barbecue.

A young men's Barbecue class has been organized in the First Presbyterian church of this city and is ready to receive members. It meets promptly at the close of the morning service in the northwest corner of the high school room. Only young men are invited to meet with the class.

This Barbecue movement is interdenominational and world-wide in nature and is intended to bring into friendly relations school workers throughout the land. It has been endorsed by Dr. Hannell and other prominent workers and by the Methodist Church, South, and the Baptist church, in Omaha, besides this class, there are classes in Calvary Baptist, First Congregational, Hanscom Park Methodist and Swedish Baptist church, and also in the First Baptist church at South Omaha.

Mr. M. A. Hudson, Syracuse, N. Y., is founder and national president, and studied out the plan to solve the difficulties he had in his own class room to interest young men.

Celebration of Leader.

The Commercial club has received an invitation for its members to attend the celebration of the Wyoming and North-western railroads, which occurred October 17. A program of music and oratory has been prepared, refreshments will be served and there will be fireworks in the evening. The club will send a representative to the event and will send a telegram of congratulation.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

Since the announcement at the state federation meeting last week that Nebraska might have the art loan collection of the General Federation during the month of January, word has been received from the chairman of the committee that Iowa has spoken for January and Nebraska will have to take the collection in November or December. Regardless of the time of year, no state can afford to miss this opportunity of circulating the loan. The collection is composed of original paintings and drawings by some of the foremost American artists and also some famous etchings, all loaned to the General Federation and the sole expense to borrowing clubs will be the cost of transportation from the place of the last exhibit. Clubs desiring the collection are requested to communicate immediately with Mrs. J. W. Crabtree of Peru, state chairman of the art committee.

Miss Anna L. Clark of Booneville, Mo., has received the appointment of chairman of the civil service committee of the General Federation of Women's clubs, succeeding Miss Georgia Bacon of Massachusetts. The appointment was made by the board of directors of the General Federation held recently at Saratoga, N. Y. Miss Clark will be remembered by all who attended the St. Paul biennial as one of the speakers on the civil service program.

The appointment was made by the board of directors of the General Federation held recently at Saratoga, N. Y. Miss Clark will be remembered by all who attended the St. Paul biennial as one of the speakers on the civil service program.

In a letter last week to the chairman of the Nebraska committee Miss Clark said: "I believe that Nebraska and you, yourself, have accomplished more direct results than any other state except Illinois. Illinois can not carry out the provisions of its new law on this reform for lack of funds, public sentiment, so let us educate sentiment so that when a law is passed it may be enforced."

Mrs. Fred Patterson of the local union will leave this evening for Boston, where she will attend the meeting of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union October 17 to 23, and then the annual meeting of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union to be held at Hartford, Conn., October 28 to 31, representing the Nebraska organization.

The first meeting this fall of the current topics department of the Woman's club was held Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. J. T. Healey, the new year, presiding. The program was in charge of Mrs. N. E. Adams and brought out a large attendance. It was decided to resume last year's plan of holding a monthly social at the homes of department members.

A preliminary meeting of the Nevada Work guild has been called for Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Thomas Kilpatrick to make arrangements for the annual collection and distribution of the same, which will take place next month.

A domestic training school for girls who expect to migrate to America to seek employment in the American homes is the newest and one of the most encouraging institutions that has come to the attention of American women of late. Such a school, it is said, has been, or is to be, instituted in northern Italy, and it is to be hoped that several sections of several other European countries may soon follow suit. The total ignorance of the great majority of emigrant women regarding the methods of housekeeping in this country contributes one of the most perplexing and serious features of the much discussed "servant problem" and it is to be hoped that if some qualification could be made popular among the ranks of "raw material" that comes to the American-home every year an important step would be accomplished toward the solution of the difficulty of getting good servants.

Every Correct New Fall and Winter Style is Here

You never saw such an array of beautiful suits, skirts, coats and furs as we have carefully selected for your fall and winter wants. Every fashion inspiration is here, carefully executed by leading designers of this country. We have the correct spirit of the season in these charming models of styles.

Tailored Suits

Our new fall suits present a very pleasing variety. Each individual customer may this season make her own individual selection as to the style desired—tight fitting suits, neat dressy tailor-made effects are much in evidence. Military effects are among the leading styles this season. Some very pretty models are shown in fancy trimmed styles. Our showing also includes quite a number of handsome blouse effects—styles that are so fashionable in the east at present. Some of these suits are severe in style, others again are very elaborate and are beautifully trimmed. We have a magnificent range of all wanted styles, in all the fashionable colors, and our prices range from—

$17.50 to $65 NEW FALL SKIRTS

We have an exceedingly handsome line of the latest skirt models. The styles shown are radically different from those of last season, the circular skirts having given place to the pleated effects. The materials used are the more than ever popular voiles, Panamas, English mixtures, and the new plaids. Our price range is very large. Special numbers are shown at— 7.50-$10-$12.50-$13.50-$17.50

Tailored Coats

In coats—long loose effects are decidedly popular. Semi-fitted and strictly tailor-made tight fitting styles enjoy particular favor and are especially adapted for strictly street wear. This week we make our first showing of many new models, made of finest all wool broadcloth, Kersey and new novelty materials. All our garments are splendidly tailored and show that style and elegance which is making our outer garments so much sought after. Our prices range from—

$10 to $65 FINE FURS

We show a magnificent line of rich, handsome furs at moderate prices. Stylish neck pieces and scarfs are shown in minks, in ermine, black lynx, bleached fox and squirrel. Decidedly one of the largest and handsomest lines of fur neck pieces and scarfs shown west of Chicago. We also show some handsome fur coats in near seal, Persian lamb, squirrel and mink, all made to your special order of finest skins by reliable furriers and marked at very reasonable prices.
