MAYOR KIND TO CRIMINALS

Dahlman Opens Doors of City as Well as County Jail.

HUNDRED AND FORTY PARDONS IN ALL

Without Apparent Respect of Crimes Chief Executive Showers Favors with Lax Hand on Prisoners.

Mayor Dahlman's largesse in the line of pardons seems not to have stopped with the prisoners in the county jail, but extended to those in the city prison as well. Aside from the 100 he pardoned from the county jail up to October 10, fifteen others have been discovered whose names were not printed in the original list, but who gained their liberty from Sheriff McDonald's battle through the magnanimity of the present mayor of Omaha. And in addition to these twenty-five prisoners were pardoned from the city jail between May 22 and September 22. That is, that many were pardoned whose records can be found on the books. It is no small task to extract from these books all the facts. It is possible the confused records may fall to disclose the full numbers of the mayor's beneficiaries. But at any rate this list has been pardoned from the city jail between the dates mentioned:

- June 5—Harry Hobbick, drunkenness.
- June 11—John Doe, drunkenness.
- June 15—William Tomper, drunkenness.
- June 20—Ray Lewis, drunkenness.
- July 2—Frank McFarland, drunkenness.
- July 3—George Reynolds, drunkenness.
- July 12—Paul Stephens, drunkenness.
- July 15—Elias Redman, vagrancy.
- July 20—O. P. Brockman, drunkenness; Sam Wallace, drunkenness.
- July 24—Lillie Hewitt, petit larceny.
- July 25—R. D. Evans, vagrancy.
- July 28—John Hamilton, disorderly conduct.
- August 7—Ed Moor, disturbing the peace.
- August 8—Albert Scott, drunkenness.
- August 12—Tom Kane, drunkenness.
- August 17—Isaac Marcus, peddling without license.
- August 24—Mrs. Tom Lawless, keeping disorderly house.
- August 25—N. Geist, vagrancy.
- August 26—Ed Frankenstein, vagrancy.
- August 28—Nick Yakal, drunkenness.
- August 30—Fred Jackson, vagrancy.
- September 5—J. L. Jarrald, vagrancy.
- September 16—J. W. Campbell, drunkenness.
- September 17—William Haman, assault and battery.

Rest from County Jail.

It is impossible for anyone but an expert to tell what the record is after September 22, and difficult to decipher it before that date. Here are those fifteen pardoned from the county jail whose names were not included in the original list of 100, the entire number from city and county jails, so far as can be ascertained being 140:

- May 23—John Riley, drunkenness.
- June 22—John Thomson, vagrancy.
- July 2—J. Q. Charles, drunkenness.
- August 3—Mabel Clark, prostitution.
- August 7—Edna Welch, prostitution.
- August 7—Walter Cusick, drunkenness.
- August 12—Charles Welch, vagrancy.
- August 14—Fred Hall, keeping opium joint.
- August 22—Frank Faulkner, petit larceny.
- August 27—Frank Williams, vagrancy.
- September 3—Farnam Dieren, drunkenness.
- September 17—Est Hughes, vagrancy.
- September 17—William Labey, drunkenness.
- September 17—Mike O'Donnell, vagrancy.
- September 14—Eugene Ritchon, vagrancy.

SEARCH IN THE BURKE CASE

Family, Friends and Slabaugh Still Adhere to Murder Theory.

HAZE BELIEF OF ACCIDENT UNPOPULAR

Relatives Relax No Effort in Their Determination to Ferret Out the Mystery of Boy's Death.

However conclusive the deductions of the sheriff's office may be that Herbert G. Burke came to his death by the accidental falling from a window, the family of young Burke, John Buel and County Attorney Slabaugh are still of the opinion that Burke was murdered and laid where he was found. Some recent developments give color to the theory of murder. This story, which in the main truth, referred to a tripartite of two or more weeks previous to his death and the cow had been settled for and the transaction closed.

"Experts" Want Reward First.

Saturday [15] a couple of men claiming to be experts approached Mayor Metcalf with a proposition to unearth the murder of young Burke if they were advanced some preliminary funds. They professed to be experts in the line of ferreting out mysterious murders and while not claiming to have any clue, they were offering in a position to get hold of some valuable information. Mr. Steel told them he could not advance any money, but that the large reward for any information leading to the apprehension of the murderer or murderers still held good.

Possibly the most significant fact connected with young Burke's death and which has just come to light is that the night watchman at the Minne Lusa pumping station passed directly over the ground where Burke's body was found at 7:30 and 8 o'clock that Sunday night and did not see any body. Had the body been lying there then he could not have avoided seeing it. The inference naturally follows that the body must either have been laid or fallen there after the watchman had made his rounds. It is now generally determined that the violence, which resulted in young Burke's death must have happened at 7:10 o'clock Sunday night, as that is the hour his watch stopped. This watchman stated further that on that same night and at that hour there were three or four ash cars on the switch that runs between the pump house and theinder dumping platform which young Burke must have gone completely around to reach the dumping platform from which it is alleged he fell to death.

Family Will Search.

The Burke family will no longer make any effort to solve the mystery of Herbert Burke's death. A member handed the following notice for publication in The Bee:

"The family of Herbert Burke whose tragic death is being investigated by the police is very anxious to hear from any one who was on the car leaving Ames Ave. for Florence Sunday night, October 15, between the hours of 6:30 and 7:15, who may have noticed a young man resembling Herbert Burke. Any such person would confer a great favor by communicating with the George Burke Co. Exchange, South Omaha, Telephone, Douglas 582."

STROCK MEN JOIN THE HAWKEYES

Rockwood and Wertz Don Molekain After Some Delay.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Iowa has seen the first real rift in the long and unbroken line of Hawkeye football players, but principally because Rockwood, for two seasons a tower of strength at the college, and Jack Stroff, one of the best ends in the state, have finally decided to play with the team this year. Irged to do so, necessarily, of the situation, both men have decided that, despite the fact that they are in their senior years in the college of law and medicine, respectively, the team is in sore need of such players.

Cresco White, the big end who has been laid out by the same injury as Rockwood and Jack Kirk, who has been following the same line for the same reason for four days, have returned to the team. The greatest surprise for Iowa voters this year is the fact that Stroff, who has held his new position at left halfback to his old position at quarter. This change has given the team a new element of strength. Jack Stroff will be moved into the line, and the position of right halfback will be filled by the man who is eventually slated to fill Andy Chalmers' old place in case Kent's great quarter-back is injured. Stroff tried out there and there are several other men who have been substituting in the line, but it is generally expected that Stroff will be moved into the line. The situation is not as critical here as it has been, and rapid improvement during the next week is expected.

CREIGHTON TEAM SHOWS GINGER

University Eleven Displays Fine Metal at Practice.

The practice Monday night on Creighton football field reflected the good results of the week's work with Creighton. The players showed lots of ginger and none of the old long, hard practice was indulged in. Cavanaugh is crowding the fore part of a week's work from his injury, and as a result no chances of laying up his men on the eve of Saturday's struggle with Bellevue.

Considerable time was devoted Monday night to charging work and much satisfaction was felt. Several new men made their appearance and Stevens and Bobby Magin got into the practice again after a week's layoff from injuries. Work so far in the morning has been a hard one and that the teams will be evenly matched is the opinion of all. Both teams are in the race for the national championship and a royal struggle is anticipated. There will be little advantage either way as regards the national championship, but it is undoubtedly will be the deciding factor.

Cavanaugh is not underrating the strength of the national championship, and has a good hard work mapped out for his men. He expects to have Creighton open in prime condition and lower of the West Side contest yesterday, he was in the same time training his men to sample to his subordinates. In a conference between department managers and a superior in the morning he hit a plan.

"Can I get off this act to see game," he asked on the eve of the game, which he folded and handed to the "boss."

"The 'big noise' the office examined the note and then allowed a pleasant expression to increase the distance between his side whiskers.

"Er—you may attend to that matter this afternoon," said the boss, aloud. "I'd like to supervise it but I shall leave it entirely in your hands."

The wily department manager gravely nodded his head and walked away with a solemn air. In the afternoon he partially occupied a grandstand seat, and the boss had been very satisfied for leaving the matter "entirely in your hands."

BANQUET FOR CHICAGO NATIONALS

Losing Ball Team is Guest of the Chicago Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Members of the Chicago National League team, who were guests of the Chicago Board of Trade at the Auditorium hotel tonight. Several weeks ago the national league representatives of the National league representatives being victorious in the series for the world's championship, arranged a banquet for Manager Chance's men tonight. Although the team was defeated by the Chicago Americans, the banquet was a success. The program was carried out just the same as if President Murphy's team had been victorious. Five hundred of the team's admirers sat down to the dinner. The regular program had been disposed of all those who desired were given an opportunity of telling how the defeat of the National league team was brought about.

President Murphy stated tonight that between $1,000 and $1,000 had been received among the players on his team since the post season games, in addition to the loser's end of the prize money in the world's series.

"We voluntarily gave the men nearly $2,000 from exhibition games," said Murphy, "and today was divided between $1,000 and $1,000 more in bonuses and presents."

SPORTS OF A DAY.

HOW ONE MAN SAW ONE BIG GAME

Railroad Department Manager Gets Away from Office Cares.

A former Omaha man, who is now well known in the city, has been seen at the White Sox beat the Cubs at the West Side grounds last Thursday, and this is how he did it. Several men were seen between the hours of 6:30 and 7:15, who may have noticed a young man resembling Herbert Burke. Any such person would confer a great favor by communicating with the George Burke Co. Exchange, South Omaha, Telephone, Douglas 582.

A certain department head in one of the Chicago railroad offices today had a hint today to the life of base ball excites which are being getting on employers all over the city. Desiring to see the West Side contest yesterday, he was in the same time training his men to sample to his subordinates. In a conference between department managers and a superior in the morning he hit a plan.

"Can I get off this act to see game," he asked on the eve of the game, which he folded and handed to the "boss."

WITH THE BOWLERS.

The Metz Bros. and O. D. K. teams put up some great scores again at the Association alleys last night. The Metz Bros. won the first game by eight pins, but that as their defeat, the O. D. K. taking the second and last one by six margins. Sprague rolled the best total, with 622. Brunkle was but three pins behind him, and Potter and Glorje both passed the 500 mark. Glorje's 28 was the best single. Tonight Huntington and Glorje will bowl another special match with Cochran and Anderson. Score:

Lawson Hopes to Be Sold

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Announcement was made that the blooded stock at Thomas Lawson's extensive farm, known as Dreamworld, located in the Little town of Egypt, a few miles south of Boston, would be sold at the "Old Drury" sale, at New York, next month.

Among the few famous animals which Mr. Lawson has bred are the Belmar, the trotter which won the Kentucky Futurity, and Transylvania, for him, Dr. Devy, which has record of 2:08 and is the son of Mambro King, for which Mr. Lawson paid $5,000, together with some of the most noted brood mares in the country, and registered cattle, dogs and even fancy birds, all are to be sold at public auction.

Grand Island Defeat Hastings.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—The high school foot ball crew played its first game at Hastings, winning over the team of the city of Hastings, 12 to 6. The local team is believed to be the strongest the school has had for some years.

Sporting Events.

The principal sporting event at the Horse show will be the pot race in which ten contestants will be permitted to compete for the time. This is an event full of life and fun.

Fish Commissioner O'Brien is making quite a hit with the fishermen of Omaha by continually stocking Cut-Off lake with members of the fluny tribe. People of the lake are beginning to realize that Cut-Off lake is an ideal spot for bass with the heavy undergrowth and some beautiful reeds have been caught.

One thing is certain and that is there will be plenty of rooting at the Creighton-Bellevue game next Saturday. Both schools have easy access to the park, where the game will be played and both will turnout in mass. Creighton has a brass band, the members of which are supplied with uniforms and this is a great help in the noise-making line, besides furnishing good music between times.

Nebbraska has a hard game on its hands for Saturday, when the Ames team from the Iowa Agricultural college, will be the opponents. The Iowa college opens its doors a month earlier than most institutions of learning and the members of the team have just that much advantage in preparation for the games which are to follow. The consequence is the teams that have to meet Ames early in the season are at an immense disadvantage and are often vanquished, although in the season they may have the better team of the year. Ames has shown up well this year and on this showing the rooters are banking on a victory next Saturday.

The match game of golf between two teams of the Omaha Country club selected by E. H. Sprague and F. H. Galus as captains promises to be the center of attraction in golf circles next Saturday. Both captains have used great care and judgment in the selection of their teams and both, being among the most enthusiastic golfers in the city, will leave no stone unturned in their efforts to win. While the prize for the losers still much more is at stake. After this informal contest, the president of the club, E. H. Sprague, will present the various cups and prizes, which have been won during the year. Golf is an uncertain quantity and no game is subjected to such a reversal of form among the players. Surprises are the order of the day, although there were many who were not surprised when Jerome Magin won the championship from Sprague Abbott.

Darkness Stops Exciting Match Between Byers and Smith.

HAMILTON, Mass., Oct. 15.—Five well known men from the local golf club, who were playing a match on the Myopia Hunt club today brought the event almost to the finish with Walter J. Travis of Garden City as one of the survivors. Darkness stopped an exciting match between Eben M. Byers of Pittsburg, the national champion, and W. P. Smith of Philadelphia at the nineteenth hole this afternoon and the players will continue their contest tomorrow morning, the winner playing Travis a 36-hole match for the trophy.

The best contest that reached a decision was that between Travis and W. C. Chick of Boston in the afternoon, which the Garden City player won on the last green. Byers put out Hugo B. Johnston of the local club in the morning round, 5 up 4 to play.

Smith put out T. G. Stevenson of Myopia, but Travis found Arden St. Robble, his clubmate from Garden City, a strong opponent.

Saratoga Tennis Club.

After a successful season on its courts the Saratoga Tennis Club will hold its annual meeting at the residence of Charles W. Martin and enjoyed a social evening A. C. Martin, president of the club by its president, Guy McKinzie, of a beautiful cup to be competed for by the club members. The championship of the club is now being held by the Saratoga Tennis Club. The club is a dancing club for the winter months and will continue to hold its regular meetings on Hunt and Martin, was appointed to arrange for the first dance to be held in the club house on Saturday evening. The games, dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Horgan Surrenders Pool Title.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16.—John Horgan, champion pool player of St. Louis, who returned formally surrendered his title and returned the diamond championship emblem to the donor.

It is stated that an open tournament will be held to determine Horgan's successor. Horgan's interest in billiards, he says, caused him to give up the pool title, as he could not afford the necessary time for practice.

Advertisement for Roseben. Roseben Makes New World's Record for Seven Furlongs. NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—D. C. Johnson's Roseben, carrying a heavy load, won a new world's record for seven furlongs when he won the fifth race at Belmont park today. He stepped into the starting gate in the fastest time ever made on an American race course, 1:22. When he finished and the phenomenal time was hung out by the official timer the big crowd arose and gave the great sprinter a rousing cheer. He cut out for seven furlongs in spite of the fact that he was quoted at 1 to 50 in the morning and he won in 1:22. He was on him. Johnson and Frank Farrell are reported to have won over $5,000 on his victory, as they bet the total on Roseben-Roseben would run faster than 1:22. Fourteen horses were carded to go in this event, but they were all scratched except Beaulacine, and it was after the withdrawals that was decided to send him against the field. Roseben broke very quickly at the barrier and ran the first furlong in twelve seconds. He kept up a fast clip and passed the quarter pole in 25.60, going easily. Around the long upper turn the favorite continued to surge on and he was flashed by the half mile pole in 40.44. When he turned into the stretch the high wind was behind him and he came and he won in 1:22. He was on him. Johnson and Frank Farrell are reported to have won over $5,000 on his victory, as they bet the total on Roseben-Roseben would run faster than 1:22.
