While the wound was being dressed Parker swooned three times from loss of blood and was in a badly weakened condition when taken to his home at 1625 Avenue G. The fight is said to have been the result of a long standing trouble between the negro and Parker. John Kramnick, a friend of Parker, who went to the latter's assistance, narrowly escaped being carried by Cushmanberry. As it was, the razor cut a long slit in his coat. After the cutting Cushmanberry ran and is believed to have made his way across the river to Omaha. Cushmanberry is a well-known police court character and has several times been ordered to leave the city, but always returns.

Fred Kenyon, an aged Irishman, complained to the police last evening that he had been "choked" or overpowered while enjoying a carriage ride with two women of the town and a male companion of theirs.

The Cason will case is still occupying the attention of Judge Macy and a jury trial is expected to be held in the near future. The suit is against George L. Dohson, ex-consul to a Chinese city. A stipulation was filed in which it is stated that an agreement for dismissal has been reached in which the plaintiff pays the costs. The suit was started last spring when the campaign was on for the Polk county primaries and Dohson was a candidate for congress against Hull and endeavored to get the Polk county delegation. He made statements regarding Congressman Hull which the latter resented. The charge of Dohson at the time created a considerable stir nationally and was immediately followed by the suit of Hull for libel. While the terms of the agreement are not stated, it is understood that the reason for the withdrawal of the suit was that Dohson had written a letter of apology to Congressman Hull.

Publisher Indicted. The Polk county grand jury today returned an indictment against D. T. Rlodgett, editor and publisher of the "Recorder," a little publication that has lived three issues and has amused itself by attacking candidates for public office and others. The indictment follows a special instruction given to the grand jury Monday by Judge James A. Howe.

Hisey Goes on Ballot. Andrew Hisey of Tama county, the exponent of "secular government," the man who has been campaigning the state of Iowa with a wheelbarrow in the interests of "secular government" and in the interests of his own candidacy for governor, will have a place on the ballot as an independent candidate for governor. This is the decision of the election board which has examined his petition.

Examination Papers Found. The twenty-one examination papers that were lost between this city and Sioux City have been discovered. They were delivered to Dr. Coniff at Sioux City yesterday, according to information from that city. This is one month after they were started from this city by express. Eggs Must be Good. State Food and Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright has sent circulars to the grocerymen of the state, in which he says that eggs are food, and if sold must be pure. Under the pure food laws he holds that if a person sells bad eggs he is liable to arrest under the pure food law.

The state will speak in the First district, the particular city in each case being yet to be decided. The list he will probably speak at Charleston in the afternoon and November 2 at Ames in the evening. November 3 he will appear at Belle Plaine and November 5 at Traer in his home county.

Hon. C. L. Crawford of South Dakota will speak at Independence the afternoon of October 29 and will probably also give a date for the evening of that day. A big rally is being planned for the Ninth district at Council Bluffs for October 28.

REWARD FOR A MURDERER. Harry Brooks, Accused of Killing Frank Linder, May Be in Nebraska. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—There is reason to believe that Harry Brooks, who a few days ago shot Frank A. Linder, a well known resident of the ceded Sioux lands, in the Missouri river and the Black Hills, in western South Dakota, Linder dying from his wound, has made his escape to Nebraska.

It has been ascertained that shortly after the finding of Linder's body Brooks headed southward in the effort to make his escape. A man answering the description of the fugitive, it has been learned, purchased a quantity of clothing and supplies on the Rosebud reservation and paid an Indian the sum of $20 to transport him some distance toward the Nebraska line, which forms the southern boundary of the Rosebud reservation.

A reward of $200 is offered by the authorities of Stanley county for the arrest of the murderer or information which will lead to his capture.

WOMAN magazine advertisement. 'Woman' is the name of a new magazine for women. The first number is just issued. Your newsdealer has it. You can get it from him, and it is worth your while getting it. There is nothing startling about this magazine. There should be nothing startling about a decent magazine for women and the home. But this particular magazine is unique among all the so-called publications for women. You might not like it a little bit, and then, again, it might hit your fancy good and hard. In fact, fiction is the big feature of the magazine. All the other magazines for women are cast on the same model—a little bit of fiction, a few articles, more or less chit chat, some wise advice, a fashion department and a smattering of general miscellany. 'WOMAN' doesn't look any more like this conventional model than a yellow dog looks like a race horse. It is built on new lines for a strictly woman's publication. To know what it is like you will have to get a copy of it. It would cost too much to tell you all about it in this advertisement. The price of 'WOMAN' is TEN CENTS A COPY, and the magazine is a very big one—192 pages. By the way, two rattling good serial stories begin in this first number and it contains a big lot of other good things. You would do well to ask your dealer for it before his supply is exhausted.
