WOMAN MAY LOSE HER MIND

Miss Ripke Said to Be in Serious Condition as Result of Strain.

HEARING MUST AWAIT HER RECOVERY

Body of Potts Still at Undertaker's. Relatives from East Not Having Arrived Yet to Claim It.

The body of Frank Keith Potts, who met a tragic death Monday night, is still at Undertaker Cutler's rooms. Mr. Cutler was advised Wednesday that a relative of the dead man was on his way here to take charge of the body, but up to a late hour last night had not arrived. There were no new developments in the case yesterday. Emma Ripke, the young woman under arrest on suspicion of having shot Potts, was in a serious condition. It is feared that her mind may give way under the strain which she has and is undergoing. If she is in a condition to stand the ordeal she may be given a preliminary hearing Monday.

E. P. Woodring, the undertaker, met and talked with Potts shortly after 9 o'clock the night of the tragedy. Potts, with an acquaintance of Mr. Woodring, passed the latter as he was standing at the door of his place on Broadway. Potts was introduced to Mr. Woodring, and in the course of a short conversation said, laughingly: "When we die, Mr. Woodring, we want you to bury us." The two men, Mr. Woodring says, had evidently been drinking, and the one he was acquainted with asked the loan of a dollar to buy more liquor refreshments with. Mr. Woodring, compromised with a quarrel.

Major's Dog Causes Trouble. Mayor Macrae's pet dog, which is of doubtful breed and small in stature, became involved in a scrap with a big mastiff last evening at the corner of Pearl street and Broadway. The dogs in their struggles humped up against Mrs. Severin, an aged woman, who was waiting for a car, and knocked her down. The woman was badly shaken and bruised, but after being attended by City Physician Rice was able to continue her way to her home at Seventh avenue and Nineteenth street with the assistance of an officer. Mayor Macrae's family dog is the same one which figured prominently in a police court case in which a man who objected to the canine invading his premises and threw hot water on the animal's back and was fined $5 and costs.

Our building at Broadway and Ninth streets will be closed Friday, 19th inst., on account of the funeral services of Mr. Schoentgen.

Good Time Comes Irish

Frank Kenyon, the aged Irishman who stated to the police Wednesday night that he had been touched for a roll of over $200 by two women of the law, and their male companion while out driving, admitted in police court yesterday morning that he spent the money himself in having a good time. He confessed to being over 70 years of age, and this prompted Judge Scott to read him a lecture on the folly of gallivanting about after dark with companions of doubtful character. The two women and their escort, W. W. Crawford, all from Omaha, were each fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. As a lesson Judge Scott assessed the old man a like amount.

Charged With Raising Time Check

James Maginits, for whose arrest a warrant was issued September 24 from the court of Justice Gardner, was arrested yesterday in Missouri Valley and brought back to Council Bluffs. Maginits, a contractor, charged Maginits with forging a time check. Maginits had been hauling dirt for Sage and it is charged he changed an order on J. P. Greenshield, for whom the work was being done, for a check for $1000 on October 7, 1906, and now seeks a divorce because, as he alleges, his wife treated him cruelly and finally deserted him and their four children, the custody of which he asks the court to award him.

Woman Will Case is Expected to go to the Jury this morning following which Judge Macy will take up the criminal docket. The first case assigned for trial is that against William Rolph, charged with breaking and entering a drug store on lower Broadway and stealing a number of articles of jewelry and other goods.

Nipped for Stealing Suit Cases.

James Russell is under arrest at the city jail charged with the theft of two suit cases, the property of Linn Ruby, a stockman from Peindleton, Ore. Ruby and Russell met on a train from the west and were together in South Omaha, where Ruby was buying stock. Ruby left his suit cases in the office of a commission firm and during his absence Russell, it is said, walked off with them. Ruby came to the Bluffs last evening and recovered the suit cases.

Russell, it is charged, also attempted to pass two forged or worthless checks in this city yesterday, and this led to his arrest. One of the checks he attempted to pass in payment for a piano at Hooper's store on Main street, but failed. This check was for a large amount. He is said to have attempted to pass another for a smaller amount.

An indictment in the suit cases was committed in South Omaha it is expected he will be taken there.

ACTION ON RATES ON CREAM

Commission Will Proceed to Eliminate the Discrimination.

ALL ROADS BUT ONE CORRECT SCHEDULES

Freshmen Who Seek to Break Up a Sophomore Party Are Blocked by the Action of a Determined Woman.

DER MOINER, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Railroad Commissioner N. E. Ketchum today assured State Food and Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright that the question of freight rates on cream shipments would be taken up at the first meeting of the commission. It has been disclosed that the shipment of a can of cream weighing 100 pounds from Webster City to Dubuque costs 4 cents, while the shipment of the same can through Dubuque to Chicago over the Illinois Central paid 40 cents. While the Iowa commission can have no supervision over the interstate rate, it does have over the state rate, and on that point it has been decided to bring it enough from Webster City to Chicago, that two-thirds of that ought to be a sufficient rate from Webster City to Dubuque, which is but half the distance. It is learned that since the discrepancies in rates were discovered a few days ago all the railroads except the Illinois Central have put the cream shipments on the distance tariff rate and the rate is reasonable and just according to the creamery men.

Need Not Wear Her Out. The drudgery of house work seems never ending to tired-out, dispirited women who suffer from female complaints or irregularities. Inflammation and ulceration cause fearful bearing-down pains which are aggravated by much standing on the feet, and lifting necessary in house work. But let no woman despair of relief from this torture. That famous tonic reconstructor of diseased or disordered female organism, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more than one million American Women, and it will cure you. When troubled with painful irregularities, when backaches and headaches drive out all ambition, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will bring back health, strength, and happiness. It Gave Me New Life and Vigor. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Last spring, while we were moving, I did considerable more work than my strength permitted, and, having mental trouble at the same time, my health broke down completely and I found myself unable to rest or eat. My nervous system became shattered and I was pale and emaciated and had to take to my bed. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, although I had no faith in patent medicines, I was so miserable that I would take anything for relief. I found that it made a complete change for the better, inducing appetite and restful sleep and imparting new life and vigor to my entire system. I gained nearly fourteen pounds, my complexion looked fresh and clear, and my best friends were surprised and pleased at the change and could hardly credit the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had accomplished it. HENRIETTA LITTLE HENRY. 1118 31st Ave., South, Seattle, Wash. Director Seattle Dramatic Club. Do not let disease make headway. Write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and will contain information of great value to you. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures Where Others Fail.
