General Secretaries of Methodist Foreign Missionary Society Meet in Omaha.

WILL APPROPRIATE OVER HALF MILLION

Money is Being Apportioned Among the Various Branches Supported by the Women of the Church.

The general secretaries of the eleven branches of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church opened their annual committee meeting in Omaha Friday, preliminary to an annual meeting of the society, which will be held at the First Methodist church October 26 to November 1. The special business of the committee is the apportionment of the money for the support of the several branches of the foreign missionary work supported by the women of the Methodist church. The appropriation will amount to over $500,000.

The committee is holding its meetings at the home of Mrs. J. O. Phillips, 210 California street, and includes Miss Mary E. Holt of Boston, representing the New England branch; Mrs. J. M. Cornell of New York, the New York branch; Mrs. C. J. Carnahan of Pittsburgh, the Philadelphia branch; Mrs. Huntley of Baltimore, the Baltimore branch; Mrs. Thomas of Cincinnati, the Cincinnati branch; Mrs. S. F. Herbin of Chicago, the Northwestern branch; Mrs. W. E. Thompson of Portland, Ore., the Dea. Meines branch; Mrs. J. V. Joyce of Minneapolis, the Minneapolis branch; Miss Ella Watson of Lincoln, Neb., the Topeka branch; Mrs. Johnson of Pasadena, Cal., the Pacific branch, and Mrs. A. N. Fisher of Portland, Ore., the Columbia river branch.

Mrs. Herbin of Chicago is acting for Mrs. F. P. Crandon of Evanston, Ill., the regular secretary of the Northwestern branch, who is abroad. Mrs. C. D. Foss of Philadelphia, wife of Bishop Foss and president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, will not be present at the meeting, as she sails October 27 for India, where she is sent by the society to attend the Indian Jubilee at Bareilly.

Mrs. Patten Will Preside.

Mrs. A. W. Patten of Chicago, president of the Northwestern branch, will arrive Wednesday to preside at the convention, and Mrs. F. P. Crandon of Evanston, Ill., Mrs. A. N. Fisher of Portland, Ore., has been made chairman of the secretaries' meeting. Miss Ella Watson of Lincoln is serving as secretary. Mrs. C. W. Barnes of Delaware, O., recording secretary of the society, will arrive Monday.

The session of the secretaries was devoted chiefly to the consideration of an appropriation of $250,000 which has been asked for the purchase of land and buildings in the foreign field, but no definite conclusion was reached.

The resignation of Miss Clara M. Cushman of Massachusetts, secretary of the young people's work, necessitated the consideration of several possible successors, but no definite action was taken regarding this. Over $50,000 has been raised by the various branches of the society during the last year. This is the largest amount yet raised, and its apportionment will be decided upon by the secretaries.

A meeting of the committee on local arrangements was held Friday afternoon at the First Methodist church. Mrs. J. O. Phillips, chairman, presiding. Arrangements are being made for the entertainment in homes of 125 visiting delegates and about fifty missionaries, among them some of the most prominent in the foreign field, who will make their reports to the convention. A reception will be held Thursday evening, October 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Phillips in honor of the delegates and missionaries, the various auxiliaries of the local churches to be hostesses. Arrangements are being made for the maintenance of a portofolio station for the convention. A fund of $1,000 is being raised for the entertainment of the meeting, $500 of which is appropriated by the Topeka branch and the other $500 is being raised by the branches of the society in the local churches.
