GILLAN GETS THE WILD WEST

Manager of Auditorium Closes Contract with Miller Bros. for Their Famous Show.

J. M. Gillan, manager of the Auditorium, has returned from Kansas City, where he secured a contract with the Miller Bros. to bring their famous wild west show to the Auditorium for the week following the horse show. As the show will exhibit in Kansas City Sunday, it will be impossible to open in Omaha until Tuesday night. This is the famous troupe from Miller Bros. ranch in Oklahoma. They are not in the show business, but simply land cowboys and Indians out for a little vacation. When the show was first put on at the ranch 40,000 people witnessed the performance. A feature of the show is a 17-year-old girl riding the wildest broncho. Settlers crossing the plains in school cars are attacked by Indians and the wagon burned after the settlers are killed.

Who suggest certain cures for blemishes his wife is supposed to have received, and one angry taxpayer called and said that sixty days was not enough for a man who voted to increase the teachers' salaries, as Mr. Lindsay is a member of the Board of Education.

4. After the jury were discharged the foreman delivered a package of papers to the plaintiff, who in turn delivered them to the court, among the papers was what purported to be a verdict in favor of one of the defendants, signed by the foreman; it was delivered at a time and under such circumstances as to afford to opportunity to poll the jury or apply the ordinary tests to determine whether it was the unanimous decision of the jury. Held: The trial court promptly refused to treat the paper purporting to be a verdict as the verdict of the jury.

5. Where a railroad company for many years has permitted the public without objection to cross its tracks at a certain point, but the while, does not of itself show that the defendant company has discontinued its duty to those using the crossing; whether, in view of the time place and circumstances, further precaution is required is, ordinarily, a question for the jury.

6. That the crossing was located in a populous district and over a system of tracks and switches within the corporate limits of a city; that it was in common use day and night by a large number of people; that such use had been so extensive and long continued that the defendant company was chargeable with notice of it; that a portion of a freight train was backed up and over the crossing with-out displaying any lights on the rear car, or having any person stationed on such car, or at the crossing to give warning of its approach, would warrant the inference

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

(a) "Allemande," prelude to suite in G minor; (b) "Perpetual Motion," Franz Ries; (c) "The Herd of Forgetfulness," Von Flötz; (d) "Sands of Dee," Robert Cusaden; (e) "Serenade," A. d'Ambrósio; (f) "Dance of the Elves," Popp-Hall; (g) "Sunshine Song," Grig; (h) "Duet to My Mother," Campagna; (i) "Duet to My Mother," Campagna; (j) "Duet to My Mother," Campagna.

The above program was given last night at the new Behmoller & Mueller recital hall. It would be a fine thing for musical Omaha if such entertainment could be given often. It was consistent and artistic throughout, and the artists who took part are to be commended for their sincerity and true scholarly feeling. A goodly audience was present and showed its appreciation in applause and a general warmth of demeanor.

The first part of the evening was devoted to music of the strictly classical and difficult order. Mr. Cusaden opened with the prelude to the G minor, Franz Ries, which he played with broad tone and much feeling. His higher numbers, especially the Popp "Dance of the Elves," was received with great enthusiasm. Mr. Cusaden has a sure technique and a confident manner of playing which is most satisfying. Mr. Ellis was at his best in his first number and the "Sands of Dee." In the latter he did some exquisite work in head tones. He is on the right track. He has a good idea of values which he should pursue.

Mrs. Turner was heard to the best advantage in "Songs My Mother Taught Me," "Dvorak," and Grig's "Sunshine Song." Mme. Muensterberg was the accompanist and bore her share of the work nobly.

WOOL MEN WIN DAMAGE SUIT

Silberman Brothers Get Decision in Eleven-Thousand-Dollar Action in Federal Court.

A verdict has just been rendered at the session of the United States circuit court at Lincoln in the case of Ferdinand Silberman and others against the Northwestern State bank of Weston Springs in favor of Silberman and others for $11,779.40 for damages growing out of a wool transaction at Hay Springs in April, 1906. The amount of wool involved was 6,600 pounds, which had been bought by the Silberman Bros. of Chicago and loaded into cars on the Northwestern road for shipment to Chicago at 15 cents per pound. The bank at Weston, through which the transaction was being negotiated, did not have sufficient cash on hand to meet the full payment of the Silberman draft for the consignment of wool, and in the interim of settling the final transactions between the Silberman Bros
