THE BENNETT COMPANY

Horse Show Week Means a Review of Styles and a Fashion Exposition at Bennett's

No horse show yet held in Omaha, has inspired a greater effort in the realms of fashion, and none has been the incentive for greater display of style—than the great event that opens tomorrow. If you will come here, stroll down each aisles, look casually over any counter—linger a while among the garments just received these last few days—you'll be pleased, charmed and captivated with the breadth, magnificence and completeness of our horse show salesweek preparations.

AND YET THERE'S SO MUCH MORE OF WORTH, BEAUTY AND DESIRABLENESS THAT YOU CAN SEE WITH YOUR EYE ALONE.

BENSON NOT THE ASSASSIN

Dope Fiend Suspected of Rummelhart Murder Proves an Alibi.

POLICE WILL LET H.M. OUT OF JAIL

Proves to Them He Was in Weeping Water Day of and After the Notorious Crime in Omaha.

After the most searching investigation on the part of the police Chief Donahue is convinced that George Benson, who was arrested at Lincoln on suspicion of being implicated in the Rummelhart murder, is innocent of the crime and he will be released from custody sometime Sunday, or possibly Monday. Benson told Chief Donahue Friday afternoon that he was almost positive he was not in Weeping Water on October 3 and 4, and said he had gone to a doctor's office there for the purpose of obtaining morphine, as he was out of money. He could not remember the name of the doctor, but gave the chief a good description of him. Friday afternoon Chief Donahue telephoned to Weeping Water and found Benson's statements were true, as he had been given a small quantity of morphine by Dr. A. T. Rickard Saturday, October 6, which was the day of the murder of Miss Rummelhart. Dr. J. R. Shannon, a dentist in Weeping Water, also told the chief Benson had passed his house Sunday morning, October 7. This, the chief says, fully precludes the possibility of Benson's presence in Omaha at the time of the murder and establishes a complete alibi for the suspect and the police are thoroughly satisfied of his innocence. Chief is Satisfied of Innocence. Saturday Chief Donahue said: "I am satisfied Benson is innocent of the crime of which we at first thought he might be guilty, as the facts within our knowledge at the time of arrest in Lincoln presented a very damaging case against him and consequently the matter has been given the fullest and most painstaking investigation. Like all dope fiends Benson has a poor memory, and this accounts for his not being able to give a more accurate story of his movements after his discharge from the county jail in Omaha October 1. "The evidence given by the two doctors in Weeping Water clears Benson completely. It is certain he was in that town on the day of the murder of Miss Rummelhart, and also the day afterward. We are holding him until we can satisfy ourselves as to a few other points which are not clear at present, but which I think will not have any material bearing on the case, and Benson will be given his freedom Sunday or Monday."

and sixteen saddle horses and figured it would take two days to get to the camp, which had been picked out by the guides. They expect to return to Cody about next Wednesday laden with bear. Colonel Cody has been looking forward for over a year to this hunt.

COAL TRUST FILES MOTION

Not Satisfied with Technical Specifications of County Attorney in His Petition.

Members of the alleged Coal trust filed a motion in district court Saturday morning asking County Attorney Shabaugh's petition in the injunction case be made more definite. The county attorney is asked to set out specifically which of the defendants are members of the Omaha arm of the South Omaha Coal exchange, and to tell whether he charges one general conspiracy or restraint of trade or a number of small combinations, at the latter he is asked to state specifically every agreement and the parties to each one. Eight of the defendants who are designated in the petition by the initials instead of the first name, ask the petition be dismissed as to them because it is not stated specifically that their first names were unknown, and also on the grounds the summons were not served on each one individually. The demurrer to the petition, filed by H. H. Baldrige and E. F. Carrigan and the Central Coal and Coke company, was dismissed Saturday by Mr. Baldrige and leave was given to answer by Monday. As Monday is the last answer day County Attorney Shabaugh will go to court Tuesday morning and demand an early hearing of the case on its merits.

TROOPS SENT TO QUELL UTES

Tenth Cavalry Ordered from Fort Robinson to Suppress Indians in Wyoming.

OFFICIALS EXPECT NO OPEN FIGHTING

Command is Under Major Grierson, Whose Father Thirty-Two Years Ago Led Similar Expedition that Had Fatal Results.

Two troops of the Tenth United States Cavalry under command of Major Charles H. Grierson have been ordered to proceed from Fort Robinson to Wyoming to compel the return of the two bands of Ute Indians now raiding in the vicinity of Gillette to their proper reservation. Orders to that effect were issued from Omaha army headquarters Saturday morning. The troops are directed to proceed with full field equipment to the scene of the disturbance. No conflict with the Indians is apprehended by the army officials here as the Indians have a profound regard for the military arm of the government. A coincidence is connected with the movement of this battalion of the Tenth cavalry, (colored), under command of Major Grierson, in that thirty-two years ago, November, 1874, Brigadier General Ben H. Grierson, now retired, but then colonel of the Tenth cavalry, was ordered on a similar expedition with the Tenth cavalry from Fort Sill, I. T., against the Northern Cheyennes, who had left their reservation and were making a raid through southern

RAILROAD INTO TONAPAH

President of Line Says Its Entrance of Gold Fields Stimulated Development.

John W. Brock, president of the Tonapah railroad, was in Omaha Thursday and Friday looking after the interests of his road and was enthusiastic over the newly developed country through which his road runs, saying the line is the pioneer in that section and the people and the mines followed.

"We now have 100 miles in operation and are building eighty miles more," said Mr. Brock. "The road leaves the Southern Pacific at Minn and now runs through Tonapah to Goldfield and is being extended to Bull Frog. "Many new mines will be opened up and that country will be made to boom as soon

WOMAN OBJECTS TO SLAVERY

Asks Divorce from Man Who, She Says, Makes Her Work Like a Slave's.

Declaring her husband forced her to do farm work like a man, as well as the usual household duties, Mrs. Minerva Romine has begun suit in district court for a divorce from Rolandus Romine, a prosperous farmer living near Valley. In addition Mrs. Romine charges her husband with drunkenness and failure properly to support her and the children.

She says her husband required her to get up early in the morning, milk fourteen cows, feed the horses, get a good, warm breakfast for him before he got up, hitch up the team for him, clean out the barn and clean the horses and take care of them when he came home intoxicated. Besides this she worked in the field like a man, she says, and did as much as her husband, besides taking care of the house. On October 15, she says, her husband ordered her to leave home and get a divorce if she wanted to. She says he owns 60 acres of land near Valley, has personal property to the amount of $5,000 and $50 in the bank. The indebtedness amounts to $1,500. She asks that he be enjoined from drawing the money out of the bank or selling or encumbering the property. They were married November 3, 1881, in

DIVORCE SECURED BY FRAUD

Claim Made by George H. Film, Who is Sued by the Deceased.

George H. Film has filed a petition in district court asking the decree of divorce granted a short time ago in favor of his wife, Evelyn Film, be set aside, on the grounds it was obtained by fraud. He says he was very much surprised when he learned suit had been begun against him. He went at once to her attorney and says he was told if he made any fight she would demand and secure heavy alimony from him. He did not fight the case. The second surprise came when he found attached to the divorce decree a clause awarding her $1,000 alimony. As it was the understanding she was not to get alimony he asks the decree be annulled, as he says he has a complete defense to all the charges she makes against him.

Julia D. Benedict has begun suit against Hubert O. Benedict for a divorce. The petition was filed Saturday morning in district court and immediately withdrawn by her attorney. Miss Perrin wants a divorce from Earl Perrin, alleging non-support. Building Permits. Building permits issued: Miss Clara O. Perwick, 316 North and Hickory, 14,000 dwelling; A. E. Peterson, 482 Ohio, 14,000 dwelling.
