TELLS PEOPLE HOW TO SECURE RELIEF

Norris Brown Formally Opens the Campaign in Gage County With a Speech in Beatrice-Kinkaid at Long Pine.

(Special Telegram.)

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Hon. George L. Sheldon, who spoke here last night, was delayed by a train and did not reach the court until after 9 o'clock. The lateness of the hour and rainy weather during the afternoon and evening prevented many from coming out and only about 100 persons were present.

Mr. Sheldon spoke about an hour and confined himself principally to a discussion of the regulation of freight and passenger rates. His argument was dispassionate, comprehensive and convincing and he made an excellent impression on his audience.

He said that the railroads in Nebraska were earning more per mile than in Iowa and Minnesota and that freight rates in Nebraska were higher than in Iowa and Minnesota.

He argued in favor of a 3-cent passenger rate, but said the regulation of passenger rates should be left with the commission and not governed by a specific statute.

His speech convinced his hearers that he intends to be fair to all interests and every statement he made argued for a square deal.

William Correll, republican candidate for representative, and David Hanna, republican candidate for state senator, were present. Mr. Hanna talked a few minutes.
