

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Holds Firm Tone Early Under Ball Operations. REACTION AND LOSS OF ALL ADVANCE. Cash Prices Held Up in Northwest and Spot Situation Generally Firmer.

OMAHA, Oct. 25, 1906.

Wheat held a firm tone this morning and prices were advanced by ball operations. Receipts were generally heavy. The advance failed to hold firm prices declined to yesterday's price. Despite favorable weather and moderate receipts sentiment seemed bullish. Some signs of improvement were shown in the cash market.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Expands Slightly, but Price Movement is Impossible. BANKERS FROWN ON SPECULATION. Rise is Met with Large Offerings and Drive with Supporting Orders.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—It would be difficult to extract a meaning from the action of today's stock market beyond the negative inference that unceremonious attention of all operators of any importance.

The total sales for the day expanded slightly over yesterday's, but the increase was made during the first hour. For most of the day the market had a morose appearance that was not long to last. The dullness was partly attributable to the understanding that banking interests frowned upon the idea of any present speculative activity, which has been made by traders to initiate a price movement in the present market bringing to light practical measures to hold the market in its suspended state.

The program of the London settlement was watched with interest. Money loaned at higher rates in London today. Tomorrow in the date for the payment of the London settlement, which has been a source of difficulties would be disclosed at that time. A process of heavy transfers of money from the London market to the New York market is taken for granted from the London market. All three of the great central banks of Europe made returns of conditions to the Federal Reserve Bank.

The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 4 1/2 per cent. for three months' bills, 5 1/2 per cent. for six months' bills, 6 1/2 per cent. for nine months' bills, 7 1/2 per cent. for one year's bills.

London Closing Stocks. The London market closed with a decline of 1/4 point on the 100-point index. The market was generally quiet, with some activity in the foreign exchange market.

Foreign Financial. LONDON, Oct. 25.—Money was much wanted in the market and supplies were scarce. The market was generally quiet, with some activity in the foreign exchange market.

Bank of England Statement. LONDON, Oct. 25.—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes: Cash in hand, increase of £2,000,000; securities, increase of £1,000,000; deposits, increase of £5,000,000.

Bank of France Statement. PARIS, Oct. 25.—On the 25th of October the Bank of France published its weekly statement. The statement shows a decrease of 1,000,000 francs in the circulation of banknotes, and an increase of 2,000,000 francs in the circulation of coins.
