CURRENT LITERATURE.

"The Eviston," by Eugenia Brooks Frothingham, author of "The Turn of the Road," which enjoyed remarkable popularity a few years ago, gives a keen picture of one phase of American society life of today. It possesses an imaginative vitality in the conception of the situations and a natural intensity in the characters that make it an extremely engrossing study. Published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

back" and others, is an historical romance. The life of Paul Jones from boyhood until the close of his career is one of the most interesting subjects for a historical romance, and Mr. Lewis in this work has excelled any of his former writings. The book is illustrated by Seymour Stone and Phillips Ward. The G. W. Dillingham Co. is the publisher.

HEALTH

The headaches and dizzy feelings that trouble so many persons are often but symptoms of kidney complaint. Kidney diseases are very treacherous. They come on silently, gain ground rapidly, and cause thousands of deaths that could have been prevented by treatment in the beginning.

HEALTH

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney troubles. This remedy has made a reputation for quick relief and lasting cures. It is a simple compound of pure roots and herbs that have a direct action on the kidneys. It was the secret 76 years ago of an old Quaker lady. It was given to the public by James Doan, a druggist, and is known and recommended the world over.
