Pushing Ahead

To stand still is, in effect, to go backward; one must push to the front to be successful. This store has done more than push to the front. For a great many years it has been a pathfinder searching out new ways of store betterment, and marking out new paths to good merchandising. All Omaha and the middle west have been watching the growth of South Sixteenth street, and all say: "Who would have thought it could have become such a great trade center in so short a time?" Our growth has been good for twenty years, but our first year's growth in the new retail center has been next to phenomenal. We are not ungrateful. We appreciate it is your loyal patronage—your hearty support—that has made this growth possible.

The Sale

Monday morning, promptly at 8 o'clock, we will open our doors to the public with a great special event, known as the Double Anniversary Sale. This will be a memorable occasion in which there is gathered a collection of bargains far greater than in any sale heretofore. We need only to say that for low prices we will excel any former event. A comparison of prices elsewhere with that of the quality of merchandise offered will be the most convincing argument that will clearly demonstrate to one and all that we still hold the proud distinction of being Omaha's foremost store for right qualities, right styles and right prices. Read each item with care, then come tomorrow, the next day—come every day this week.

END OF HORSE SHOW

show, O. P. Updegraff, master of ceremonies, who has had to do with the management of many horse shows in the south and west, declares Omaha has the best young show he has ever seen. There is at least one stable in town, he says, which would be a credit to any city, and which could send horses to Philadelphia and Madison Square and take blue ribbons. Harrison L. Van Schaack of Chicago and Captain Wildman of Fort Omaha, both judges, praised the Omaha show as among the very best.

Last night was Fremont night and a number of citizens of the town were guests of Omaha friends. It was the most informal evening of the week, both on the promenade and in the arena. It is remarkable, but true, that the women for the most part left off their fine feathers for once and appeared in street dress. Out on the tannock the horses and their masters did some funny stunts, and even the judges joined in the levity of the occasion. On one occasion the staid president of the association, E. P. Peck, caused the spectators to roar with laughter, though it wasn't exactly his studied intention. Peck's mammoth sides were charging around the ring and doing some short turns, at one time grazing past the judges' boxes at the command of J. M. Kuykendall. Mr. Peck, standing outside the box, ran directly across the horses' path to escape and his haste was somewhat undignified. To add to the amusement of the spectators, a lackey just about this time presented to the driver of the Peck team a reins which was intended for Mr. Kuykendall.

Nebraska Juniper Wins Again.

Joseph M. Cudahy again won the last number of the evening when he rode Gaiety Girl to a ribbon in the jumpers' class, in which the best performance over the bars counts. It bids well for an Omaha horse show when Omaha can turn out two riders who can go into the arena and win from the professionals as Joseph M. Cudahy and Jerome Magee did last night. Mr. Cudahy rides in the "show" perfect form of any one who has ever ridden the jumpers in Omaha. He sits quietly on his mount and takes the leap with no apparent effort. Magee has about 500 horses on his farm at Hastings, and none that he has the fever the horse probably will all have to jump the fence and fences in the county.

W. H. McCord won the championship in the smaller class with his Ford Crest.

night, but lost the championship in the large class to Gallant Lad. Mr. Roberts showed off Gallant Lad to perfection and, marking out new paths to good merchandising. All Omaha and the middle west have been watching the growth of South Sixteenth street, and all say: "Who would have thought it could have become such a great trade center in so short a time?" Our growth has been good for twenty years, but our first year's growth in the new retail center has been next to phenomenal. We are not ungrateful. We appreciate it is your loyal patronage—your hearty support—that has made this growth possible.

CHILDREN SHINE AT MATINEE

Little Once Fully as Interesting as the Grown Ups.

Saturday afternoon was practically children's day at the Horse Show and nearly every other event of the afternoon was a class for ponies or women and children, and as such was one of the most interesting of the week. The little folks in the arena enjoyed the sport as much as did the spectators, a large part of whom were also children. The six-horse teams exhibited an usual and the deplorable gray and the jet blacks were a great delight to the youngsters.

In the stallion wagon class all the entries were local, although the event was open to the world. Three pairs were entered and the judges gave the first to Mr. McCord's Younger, second to George Pepper, third to Mr. Peck's Besika and Henna and third to Ward M. Burgess' Chimp and Dearborn.

The first appearance of the children was in the next class, which was for ponies not over forty-eight inches high and ridden by a boy or girl not over 12 years of age. Six entries appeared, and as George Pepper always claims the right to ride the children's events in the arena he was given that privilege yesterday afternoon. He exercised that right by donating together with Mr. McCord and Spencer Jordan, brought more money to practically double the purses and to divide the classes as between the girls and boys. Pepper is a great man to have around a horse show and although owner of a large stable, does not drive or ride in the ring himself. It was Mr. Pepper who induced Lawrence Jones to "send his horses to Omaha, although it meant a difference of $1.00 to him in prizes in having the crack stable here.

The class was divided into two classes, one for "girls" and one for the boys. Miss Helen Walker of Council Bluffs won first with Duke. Miss Grace Allison second with Dixie and Edward Megath's Pet took third. Duke, a beautiful black stallion belonging to I. C. Gallup of South Omaha, was gated for manners. Charles W. Burgess won first in the boys' division with Franklin, Charles C. Allison, Jr., second with Daley and J. Chisler won third with Babe.

The cracks of the big stables were brought out in the class for pair of park horses, and the children were loud of their appreciation as the horses of this class spun around the ring. The first went to Lawrence Jones, the second to Crow and Murray and the third to George Pepper.

Ponies Look Chalk.

The harness pony class brought out all kinds of vehicles and the little boys looked real mazy as they pulled their rigs around the arena. Most of the ponies were shown in basket rigs, that of Charles Allison being well appointed. Dewey, the yellow stallion belonging to Miss Alta Thomas, won first, as was expected, as he has won frequently in competition with the whole world at Madison Square garden, Charles Burgess took second and Edward Megath third.

Seven women drove in the class for the horse best suited for women to drive, and this proved to be one of the most interesting events of the week to the spectators. It was truly a remarkable ring. Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy drove Nabob, from Arthur Lodge; Miss Frances Nash drove L. F. For the large boys' prize Russell Inman drove W. H. McCord's Rajah; Mrs. Ward M. Burgess drove her Prairie Queen; Miss Helen Peck drove Commodore; Miss Ruth Brandeis drove Chatterbox and Mrs. C. T. Kountze drove Joseph Cudahy's Kidnare.

Here was some work mapped out for the judges to do, for every woman in the arena had a large number of friends, and they were not at all backward in showing their favoritism. The blue ribbon was pinned on McCord's Rajah, the red on Chatterbox, Miss Ruth Brandeis horse, and the yellow to W. M. Burgess' Prairie Queen.

Little Once Make Judges Think.

The class for the best boy and girl rider presented an enigma for the judges. The entry list was large and it was hard to classify the children. The girls were put in one division and Miss Alice Cudahy was given the blue ribbon, Miss Mary Megath the red and Miss Helen Walker the yellow.

For the large boys' prize Russell Inman was first, Raymond Byrne second and Charles Burgess third. In the division for smaller boys Charles Allison was first, Willie Gallup second and Edward Daugherty third.

The women again appeared in the class for pair of park horses, and it was a thrilling sight to see them handle the high stepping thoroughbreds. Mrs. Joseph Barker drove Lawrence Jones' Bill Smoke and Gladstone to a blue ribbon. Mrs. Ward M. Burgess was given second with her Prairie Queen and Roseleaf and Murray's pair, Honor Bright and President, driven by Mrs. Floyd Smith of St. Joseph, was third.

The class for the larger single ponies had three lively entries: Lady Sunshine, a spotted mare belonging to Weir & Rogers, being a regular high stepper. Russell Inman was the blue ribbon from the more sensitive Iowa horse and Joseph Cudahy was given third with Rubber.

As usual, the tandems excited the youngsters and they applauded lustily as the high steppers spun around the arena. Murray, with his big seal brown pair, was the favorite of the children and was given the glad hand whenever he drove. Four tandem teams raced around the arena and some good horses were used in making up the teams. The McCord entry was placed first, the Pepper second and Lawrence Jones third. Mr. McCord had Lord Cecil in the lead, the horse which tried to run away Monday night. He was on his good behavior and stepping high yesterday afternoon.

The class for the larger saddle ponies brought four of the best ponies of the show into the arena. Miss Helen Cudahy rode Joseph M. Cudahy's Rubber, Miss Alice Cudahy rode Edward Cudahy's Chimp, Raymond Byrne and Russell Thomas rode their own ponies. Russell Thomas captured first, Miss Alice Cudahy second and Raymond Byrne third.

The next class was for the best string of three heavy harness horses shown by one exhibitor, the horses to be owned locally. Mr. Peck, Mr. Burgess and Mr. McCord each drove a pair from their stables, and the grooms followed with the third horse hitched to a gig. Mr. McCord had his daughter, Marjorie, on the seat with him and won the blue, Mr. Peck the red and Mr. Burgess the yellow.

The sporting tandem was won by Pepper, with Murray second and Weatherbee third.

If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections, and all catarrhal diseases of the stomach, bowels, bladder, throat and lungs (except consumption), accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for catarrhal affections of the stomach, bowels, bladder, throat and lungs (except consumption), accompanied with severe coughs.
