APATHY AFFECTS ALL PARTIES: ALIKE

R. C. Murphy Swenza Out a Pence Warrant for Joseph Spelis on Account of Alleged Threats by Defendant

The second day of registration in South Omaha brought no better results on the whole than the first and the registrations of both party affiliations are still light. The average was something above a hundred in a precinct, but the last day of Testerday Was Banner Day at This registration will have to show a large increase to make up the full voting strength of the city. There should be above 400 voters to the precinct. From the present indications the party organizations have plenty of work on their hands on the last day of registration. Some hustlers were out yesterday morning working among the voters, but there were no carriages in evidence. The registration boards were more prompt yesterday than on the previous date, and in but one or two precincts were there any delays. The clerk gave minute instructions to the boards with reference to the returning of the registration books. It hore fruit in the prompt returning of most of the books last night. They were left at the city jail for safe keeping. Two or three precincts were miss-A careful examination of the books at several polling places indicates that the registration was about in the same propor-
