all admit the situation is a serious one, and that a very little spark might set off the powder, but know something of the Utes and do not believe there is much danger of bloodshed.

Force is ample. Of course under the circumstances the settlers are somewhat panic stricken, but there will be a sufficient show of troops in the vicinity of this wandering band to prevent any trouble which would bring about loss of life.

Major Larrabee also had this view that the present difficulty with the renegade Utes, especially as to their desire to have a scrap with United States soldiers, was largely exaggerated.

Major McLaughlin, who recently has been among the runaway Utes, said he did not take any stock in the story that the Indians had fled upon United States scouts.

At army headquarters in Omaha this statement was given to the Bee: "We have absolutely no information of any clash of arms between the troops and the Indians.

Words of the Thoughtless Startle the Thoughtful

A Coffee advertisement says: "First in weight, first in quality, and first in the hearts of the epicures."

There's a truth said thoughtlessly.

Coffee "in the hearts."

How many epicures and just common people have incipient or chronic heart trouble directly caused by coffee.

All the flaming advertisements of Importers trying to sell coffee and all the sneers of coffee toppers cannot drive the truth from you, once you have tested and learned the exact facts from personal experience.

Old Maximum Rate Law Offers No Relief to People Even if Enforced.

ITS RATES HIGHER THAN PRESENT ONES

Reference in Lumber Dealers' Case Compels Association to Produce Its Books and Papers for Examination.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram)—After proving conclusively that it is impossible to enforce the old maximum freight rate law, George L. Sheldon, republican candidate for governor, before an audience which included the judges of the court, showed plainly the fallacy of the democratic candidate, Mr. Challenger, regarding that law is pure buncombe.

PROSPERITY FOR THE FARMERS Congressman Pollard Presents a Few Figures on Prevailing Conditions in the State.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram)—The Farmers' Union, in its annual report for the year ending September 30, 1906, has presented a list of figures on prevailing conditions in the state.
