

GOSSIP OF THE CAMPAIGN

Saturday is the Last Day Voters Have Chance to Register. W. H. GREEN IN EMBARRASSING PLACE

South Omaha Saloonmen Recent Demorstrate Presumption Upon Their Ignorance and Home Rule Bluff for Votes.

Saturday is the last day of registration. It is the last day on which any voter not qualified to cast his ballot at the election November 6-next Tuesday-has to qualify.

Having no city prosecutor's club to swing over the head of saloonmen in South Omaha, the democratic campaign managers are using the "home rule" bluff to seduce the vote of the liquor-dealers of the Magic City.

That makes me sore is that the democrats are taking us saloonmen for a lot of idiots," said a keeper of one of South Omaha's saloons. "They are presuming a little too much upon our ignorance. It is a mistake to think that saloon keepers are a lot of ignoramuses. We have intelligence just as good as these political tricksters and they will wake up to this fact before the campaign is over.

Your business has suffered more than any other business in the city, owing to the fact that we are governed by a bunch of politicians who are not interested in the welfare of the people.

Remember that every democratic candidate is pledged personally to home rule. Will you join with them in this? This is not a question of politics, but rather one of local self-government. Our homes, our money, our money and material welfare are at stake.

Will you be with South Omaha and home rule? Will you be with the democrats who are registered and have all your friends registered and then they will vote for SOUTH OMAHA DEMOCRATIC CLUB, P. J. BARRETT, President.

"It is all right if the democrats want to play to the galleries on this or any other subterfuge, but they are mistaken if they think they can make us believe that they are sincerely in favor of home rule or have ever worked for it. As a matter of fact we have followed the course of events in this state and we know that the democrats never have worked for home rule, but have opposed it and are today largely responsible for the state of affairs that exists.

If home rule is to come it must come through the republicans, as every substantial benefit has come in Nebraska. Home rule is employed by the democrats in this campaign simply and solely because they conceive that to be the most adroit means of deceiving the majority vote. If they would substitute the name "home rule" they would have what they are really after and they would make more votes, for no intelligent man is going to give his vote to a party which he knows is taking him for a fool and playing to his supposed lack of common sense.

Announcements of the Theaters. At the Orpheum the bill for the current week will be brought to a close today, when matinee and night performances will be given.

The democrats are growing more desperate each day because of the increasing defection from their ranks to the republicans of voters anxious to cast their ballots for the party that is representing the interests of Omaha.

It matters little whether or not there is now a tax committee in the Real Estate exchange," said C. F. Harrison. "That has nothing to do with the signed letter in The Bee. I signed that letter as a private citizen and as such I certainly have a right to my opinion on political matters.

The attack of Mr. Green on myself, Mr. Harrison and Mr. Ure is entirely unwarranted by the facts," said P. D. Wead. "I signed my name to that letter as a citizen, did not mention my connection with the exchange and did not intimate I was a member of the exchange."

ber of any tax committee. I take it any citizen has a right to express himself publicly on political issues. "I regret that Green is mad," said W. G. Ure Friday morning, "but he is not the only candidate of T. S. Allen's democratic ticket who is mad. The trouble is the Democratic Party caught Allen and his legislative candidates in their gun shoe campaign to pull the railroad chestnuts out of the fire and save them from paying their share of city, town and village taxes.

Beware of Frequent Colds. A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover.

The most successful week of the Woodward Stock company at the Burwood this season will close today with the last performance of "Albee of Old Vincennes."

Tim Murphy will open a three nights' engagement Sunday at the Boyd in "Old Innocence." Mr. Murphy is seen in his old part of Jason Green, a role in which he formerly scored one of his greatest triumphs, and Miss Dorothy Sherrod appears in the opposite part to the star.

George W. Rastekin, 322 Evans street, was arrested by Officer Woodbridge Friday afternoon on the charge of being drunk and abusing his family. Rastekin is employed at picking chickens at $2.50 a day for the Omaha Cold Storage company, but his family, consisting of wife and four small children, one a babe in arms, was found in destitute circumstances.

Deputy United States Marshal Sammons went down to Nebraska City Thursday and arrested Ralph Gregory of that city under a capias from the United States court of Missouri, in which he was indicted for sending obscene matter through the mails.

HEROES IN PEACE AND WAR

Great Personalities in American Life Will Be Guests of Omaha.

RECEPTION AND BANQUET AT CLUB

General Dodge and Mrs. Logan Central Figures in Elaborate Function to Be Tendered Tenth of November.

General Grenville M. Dodge, Mrs. John A. Logan, General John C. Black, General Oliver O. Howard, Senator William Warner and N. P. Dodge of Council Bluffs will be the principal guests of honor at a reception and banquet at the Omaha club November 10, to be given by prominent citizens of Omaha as a special tribute to General Dodge and Mrs. Logan.

This committee has the function in charge: Arthur C. Smith, chairman; Senator Millard, Postmaster Palmer, Luther Drake, M. T. Barlow, Dr. George L. Miller, Henry W. Yates and Clement Chase.

Army officials of the Department of the Missouri will figure prominently in the guest list, which will number over 100, including the leaders of Omaha's civic, social and commercial life.

The occasion arises from the fact that the dignitaries mentioned will be in attendance upon the reunion of the Army of Tennessee at Council Bluffs. It will afford the citizens of Omaha the natural terminus eastward of the Overland route, an opportunity of expressing their abiding appreciation of the immortal work of General Dodge in blazing this transcontinental pathway of civilization and commerce, as well as bestowing upon Mrs. Logan and the others the encomiums of grateful people.

The Omaha club will be elaborately decorated for this occasion and the banquet will be upon a magnificent scale. The reception preceding the dinner is planned to be the peer of any similar event in the social life of the city for years.

Must be for this memorable evening will be supplied by a stringed septet, under the direction of Robert Clausen.

CLARK AND SCHWAB GO WEST

Big Mine Owners Seem to Have Business in Transmissour Country.

The west at present is claiming the attention of many of the big mine owners who are hastening from the east for various purposes. Thursday afternoon Senator W. A. Clark of Montana passed through Omaha enroute to Butte and Helena to fix up his finances for a re-election to the senate this winter and look after his mines. Charles A. Schwab, who a year ago became interested in some gold mines at Goldfield, also went west on the second section of the Union Pacific No. 5 Thursday afternoon.
