Somebody, somewhere, may be selling as good a Boy's Shoe for the same money, but we've yet to see it.

The Boys' Feet
Must Be Well Shod.

We care for the boys' feet the same that we do for men's. We take as much pains in selecting shoes for them as for any line in our stock.
Perhaps we give the boy a little better value than we do his daddy.
We are particularly greedy for boys' trade.
We take as much pains and care in fitting the boys' feet as we do the other lines we carry.
We have no one but experienced salesmen to wait on our boys' trade.
