HARD TO SEE Even When the Facts About Coffee Are Plain.

It is curious how people will refuse to believe what one can clearly see. Tell the average man or woman that the slow but cumulative poisonous effect of caffeine - the alkaloid in tea and coffee - tends to weaken the heart, upset the nervous system and cause indigestion, and they may laugh at you if they don't know the facts. Prove it by science or by practical demonstration in the recovery of coffee drinkers from the above conditions, and a large per cent of the human family will shrug their shoulders, take some drink and keep on drinking coffee or tea. "Coffee never agreed with me nor with several members of our household," writes a lady. "It enervates, depresses and creates a feeling of languor and heaviness. It was only by leaving off coffee and using Postum that we discovered the cause and cure of these ailments. The only reason, I am sure, why Postum is not used altogether is the exclusion of ordinary coffee in many persons do not know and do not seem willing to learn the facts and how to prepare this nutritious beverage. There's only one way - according to directions - boil it fully 15 minutes. Then it is delicious." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Well-being," in page. "There's a reason."

TAKES NOTHING FROM STATE

Municipal Taxation of Railway Terminals Does Not Relieve Them of Other Burden.

POPULIST BOLTS SHALLENBERGER Headquarters of Both Parties Busy with Finishing Touches of the Campaign and Their Work About Over.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 2 - (Special.) - The republican position on the assessment of railroad terminals is too plain to be successfully misrepresented by the democratic committee and their corporation allies. The republican state platform specifically states that there is no intention of changing the present revenue law insofar as it relates to county, state and school taxes, but demands that "the revenue law be so amended that railroad property within cities and villages shall also be assessed and taxed the same as other property for city and village purposes." This, it seems to me, is a clear and straightforward statement of the party's attitude on this question.

The above statement was made by W. B. Ross, chairman of the republican state committee, this afternoon in answer to the charges made by Tom Allen, chairman of the democratic state committee, that to tax railroad terminals for city purposes would be to take $2,000,000 worth of taxable property from the state and give it to Omaha. By the Allen article, which is an editorial published in the Blair Pilot with an added statement by Allen giving Editor Williams a clean character, the democrats threaten of the mask and came out flatfooted as the allies of the railroads. The democratic state committee paid for space in the Blair Journal in order to flaunt its corporation group before the voters of the state.

Former Lieutenant Governor J. E. Harris, populist is opposed to the election of Shallenberg and he is opposed to G. M. Hitchcock's brand of reform. He sets out his views on these matters in the following letter received in Lincoln today: "I don't care to vote. Harris's defeat in convention by the Omaha gang of corporation democrats has disgusted me. While Shallenberg personally may be all right, I do not like the crowd that did it. Today I got my World-Herald. It is a good paper. No populist having self-respect will support Hitchcock, and thousands will scratch themselves for the scurrilous, mean thrust at W. A. Foynter. 'Inasmuch as' indeed. The Omaha gang sound Foynter's spine too stiff to bend to their wishes. Hitchcock is a fine specimen of a reformer. Sold a part of his paper to republican committee to fight Hitchcock and sound Tom Majors. If a man will sell his paper to the enemy, would he sell his vote as a congressman? Now how shallenberg will be defeated, and I will help to do it, because the democrats deserve defeat. They sneer and deride the populists while they have stolen their principles and have grown defiant and insolent.

In fact, there are no issues. Populism has won its place in the platforms of all parties. It is only a question of men who will be true to party pledges. With kind personal regards to yourself and family, I remain, as ever, your friend and ally. J. E. HARRIS.

All Right in Fillmore. State Superintendent McFrien has returned from a trip in Fillmore county and brings back with him the report that the republican ticket down there is in good shape. Monday night the campaign will close in that county with a big harmony meeting at Geneva, at which all factions of the party will join hands and boost for the ticket. Mr. McFrien expects to attend this meeting.

Finishing Up Campaign. The officials of the republican state committee are making a whirlwind finish of the campaign and the reports received from the various counties indicate there is no doubt of republican success. The pollbooks are being returned to the committee and this is about all the committee can do now until the finish except to urge republicans to go to the polls and vote. The poll of the state indicated the republican party is as strong as usual, so the result of the contest is merely in getting out the vote. H. C. Lindsay and Frank Harrison are helping out in the finish and numerous people have been employed to mail out the last appeals to the voters. The headquarters is a beehive of industry.

The democrats will close the campaign in Lancaster county tomorrow night with a meeting at the Auditorium, at which William J. Bryan will be the speaker. The democratic state committee has been making its principal fight on George L. Sheldon, the republican candidate for governor, whom the World-Herald said the railroads had "marked for political oblivion." Mr. Sheldon made such an impression in his Lincoln speech and his sincerity was in such contrast to the political sidestepping and play acting of his competitor, Mr. Shallenberg, that the democrats have called upon Mr. Bryan to help save some of the wreck of the old party in this part of the county.

Lumber Hearing Adjourned.

The taking of testimony in the case against the alleged Lumber trust has been discontinued until November 20. The time intervening will be taken up by the state in looking up witnesses and evidence to sustain the charge which has been made against the dealers. So far in the letters produced by Secretary Critchfield nothing has been established to show the association controlled prices on lumber in Nebraska, but the state is said to have considerable other evidence along this line which will be produced at the proper time.

Eggs for High School Principal.

Some boys, supposed to be pupils of the Lincoln High school, entertained themselves last night by balancing a few eggs on the nose of the principal. Sanders, the high school and in doubling him with the hen fruit they managed to smear some of it over guests who were being entertained at a party at the principal's home. A bunch of the boys, wearing white robes, solemnly marched up to the Sanders home and were seen by the principal. The latter, with more nerve than judgment, rushed to his door and threw it open with the intention of aving the crowd with his presence. He was greeted with a cheer, in which were mingled numerous eggs. Being satisfied with the omelet served up, the boys retreated in more or less disorder and the matter was reported to the police. Incidentally the lone policeman resumed his duties at the high school building today. It is said the high school boys have ordained that Principal Sanders might go because of his stand against foot ball.

Miss Mickey Entertains.

Miss Marie Mickey, daughter of Governor Mickey, entertained about sixty young people last night at a Halloween party. Costumes of various kinds were worn by the guests and games in keeping with the spirit of the times were indulged in. Refreshments were served. Governor and Mrs. Mickey assisted in entertaining the young people.

Leander Blake and Mrs. Blake of Iowa, residing near Burlington, are the guests of Governor and Mrs. Mickey. Mrs. Blake is the oldest sister of the chief executive.

DAUGHTER MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR

Bloodhounds Put on Trail and Soon Demonstrate Truth. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Nov. 2 - (Special.) - When Joseph Mason and wife returned to their home in the western portion of this city after the republican rally a few evenings ago they were surprised to find a lamp burning on the table. After making investigations they reported to the police that they found the contents of the bureau drawers scattered about the room and that a new suit of clothes, a gold watch and ring were missing. The suit was at once organized for business and the chief of police with bloodhounds from Loupville followed a rubber-tired buggy in a southwesterly direction through Myard, Murray and nearly to Nehawka to a residence, where the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason was boarding and teaching school in that district. She explained to the sheriff that accompanied by a friend they drove to this city and to her home, but not finding anyone there she went in and got what she desired, left the lamp burning and returned to her boarding house.

Big Rally at Oskaland.

OAKLAND, Neb., Nov. 2 - (Special Telegram.) - The republican rally at the opera house here Thursday evening was a decided success. W. E. Andrews, auditor of the Treasury department, was the orator of the evening and held the audience in close attention while he delivered one of the soundest and most logical political speeches ever heard here. M. R. Hopewell

Senator Good Optimistic.

PERU, Neb., Nov. 2 - (Special Telegram.) - The republicans of this community consider that there is no truth in the report that the republicans will run behind in Nebraska county in the coming election. Senator Good is of the opinion that Sheldon will receive a greater majority for governor than ever given any candidate by Nebraska County. He says other candidates will run well because Sheldon has tremendous strength, which will increase the majority for all other candidates of the republican ticket.

Wife-Beater Gets His Due.

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 2 - (Special Telegram.) - Harm Hula, an old offender, was brought here today by Sheriff Trude from his home in Hanover township, charged with brutally assaulting his wife while under the influence of liquor. While dragging her about the yard by the hair several neighbors interfered and gave Hula a terrific beating. He was brought before the insanity commissioners on an inebriate charge and was found to be a fit subject for the asylum. He will be taken to Lincoln tomorrow.
