Supreme Treasurer Eskildson of Danish Fociety Among the Missing.

MIXED UP IN THE STENSLAND FAILURE

Herrepancy of $5,000 Disenvered Ouring Meeting Here, but Treaswrer Made it Good and Auditor Passed His Accounts

Spearance of Supreme Treasurer Eskildsen of the Danish Brotherhood and a possible shortage of $50,000 in his accounts with the signifity proved no surprise to the local mbers of the order. In fact it had been known among the members in this city for several days that a sportage existed in the secounts of the supreme treasurer. Fred Petersen of the local lodge is one of the supreme trustees and word of the alleged shortage was cent him by Martin Larsen Racine, Wis., supreme vice president. At the quadrennial convention of the order self in this city last month the existence of a shortage in Treasurer Eskildsen's acquits became known. A discrepancy of $5,009 was discovered, but he produced the money to make the shortage good, and his accounts, with this being apparently straight, a report to that effect was made the convention by the auditing commit tee, Eskildsen was in attendance during the entire week of the convention here, and it low becomes evident why he made such a determined fight to reigin the treasurership, to which he was re-elected after a confest with Fred Petersen of this city, the other candidate.

By the members here it is believed that the failure of Stenslan I's bank in Chicago directly responsible for Eskildeen's short-Among the papers found in the Stens bank was a note for $10,000 signed by Sakildsen, and it is said that Eskildsen and Stensland were interested together in corofn business ventures in Chicago, The shortage may be greater than a
