

Tel. Douglas 618.

See, Nov. 5, 1906.

Warner's Rust Proof Corsets.

STYLE.

Never played so large a part in corsets as this season. There are many kinds of corsets that fit, but fitting is not sufficient. A model must do more—it must build a specific type of form, must create, as it were, a base to accord with the gown style that is the prevailing mode. In our search for choice and accurate models for this season, we selected largely from Warner's Rust Proof Line.

They indicate correctness in every detail, and we take a satisfaction not entirely selfish in recommending them to our customers. Aside from their style quality, they are unusual, as they are reliable for wear, are guaranteed—the maker stands back of us in this—rust proof and have attached the splendid "Security" Rubber Button Hose Supporters. Sold at our model corset department—Second Floor. Prices from $1.00 to $3.00 a pair.

Open Saturday Evenings.

THOMPSON BULDEN & CO.

Howard, Corner Sixteenth Street.

leaders claim that Rotan will carry the city by 40,000, while the fusion managers claim Gibbons' election by 30,000. Personal registration will affect the vote here tomorrow. There has been a big falling off in some republican strongholds and the margin can be said to favor the strong democratic counties. In Berks for instance, normally democratic by 10,000 to 15,000, not more than 50 per cent of the total vote was registered.

WARM CAMPAIGN IN BAY STATE.

Moran's Alleged Alliance With Hearst Aids Republican Ticket.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The campaign of 1906 in Massachusetts came to the "eve of battle" tonight with an evening of interest and with the result as much in doubt as at any time since the conflict began. Both Curtis Guild, Jr., republican candidate for governor, and John B. Moran, the democratic nominee, spoke at enthusiastic meetings in Boston this afternoon and evening.

Moran, who has been the subject of a charge that he would accept no contribution save from the people, issued a closing statement today appealing to the citizens to get out the vote tomorrow, as he had no campaign fund and must depend upon the "patriotism and earnestness" of the people.

About the republican headquarters today it was felt that Guild's chances had improved during the last few days. It was stated freely that the speech of Secretary of State Root in New York against Hearst had a reflection in this state, where Moran has been classed as an associate of Hearst by republican factors, and in spite of the fact that Moran had said on the stump that he was allied with neither Hearst nor Bryan for president, but would stand as the equal of either when it came to offering presidential candidates.

At democratic state committee headquarters tonight serious talk was the probable outcome were withheld. Mr. Moran was quoted as saying late in the afternoon: "I shall win without a doubt."

One of the unusual features of the waning campaign was the action of clergymen of various denominations in their sermons yesterday in dwelling upon the "new peril" and pleading for the maintenance of an "orderly commonwealth."

ILLINOIS SAFELY REPUBLICAN

Democrats Claim Thirteen Congressmen and Republicans Concede One.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Although estimates of the party managers differ widely, there seems to be no reason to doubt that the republican party will carry the state in tomorrow's election by a substantial majority. The legislature will be republican and the election of a republican to succeed Senator Cullom is certain. The democrats claim that they will gain largely in both branches of the legislature, but they do not expect to gain enough members to obtain the next senate.

The republicans concede that Congressman Rainey, the one democrat representing this state at Washington, will be re-elected in the Twentieth district, and it is also agreed that there will be a hot fight in the Eighth and Twentieth districts. The Eighth is normally democratic district. The democrats claim not only the Twentieth and Eighth districts, but assert that they will carry eleven others as well. It is probable that the returns in Chicago and Cook county will be slow tomorrow, as the ballot is the largest ever seen here, having the names of 23 candidates upon it. There are many local disputes involved in the election and it is probable that scratching will be carried on to a large extent.

Both the republicans and democrats claim that they will carry Cook county, the republicans asserting that their plurality will be about 30,000 and the democrats putting theirs at about 20,000. The independence league claims that it will carry the county, but there seems to be no strong foundation for this assertion.

MIXED OUTLOOK IN COLORADO

Republicans and Democrats Each Claim About Half the Vote.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 5.—Party leaders were all at sea as to the result of the state election tomorrow, being unable to estimate accurately the vote to be given Judge Ben B. Lindsey and William D. Haywood, respectively independent and socialist candidates for governor. In betting odds of 15 to 1 in favor of Rev. Henry A. Bucio, republican candidate for governor, and Alvin Adams, democrat, are given. Eugene Dobs addressed a large meeting of socialists here tonight, urging them to support their candidate. The following statements were given tonight: Chairman republican state central committee: The total vote will be about 100,000. Bucio will poll about 50,000.

Ben B. Lindsey: I feel that I will get 70,000 votes.

Socialist headquarters: Haywood will get at least 30,000 votes.

Both republicans and democrats are hopeful of obtaining control of the legislature, which will elect a senator, and of electing the three Colorado congressmen.

Muddled Situation in Idaho

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 5.—The campaign closes in this state tonight with the situation badly mixed. Both parties are claiming the state, both on the state and legislative tickets. The margin in nearly all counties is complicated with independent tickets and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

and a complexity of local issues. Greatest interest now attaches to the plan launched by Senator Dubois of challenging all the Mormon voters. It is said at democratic headquarters that this has kept a great many Mormons from registering, but the republicans insist these people have registered and will vote. The challenging is to proceed on the ground that the church teaches polygamy, as shown by the testimony and acts of its heads and that members of the church are therefore disqualified from voting under the provisions of the state constitution. This challenging is avowedly for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local initiative in Congress of Mr. Borah be elected senator.

of the democratic committee and Chairman Maddox of the republicans, each claim the election of congressman and a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. The registration shows a considerable falling off, compared with two years ago, and the loss appears to be divided between the republicans and democratic parties.

OUTLOOK IN THE SOUTHERN STATES

Republicans Expect to Elect One Congressman in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 5.—The election tomorrow will be quiet in North Carolina, except in the Eighth congressional district, the contest being between Binchum, republican, the incumbent, and Hackett, democrat. Only one state officer, corporation commissioner, will be voted for. The indications are that a large vote will be polled, but interest is dull.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 5.—The indications today are that the democrats will carry all the seven congressional districts of Arkansas in tomorrow's election. In the Fourth George Tillis, republican, has made a great effort to defeat W. B. Craven, democrat, and during the campaign Vice President W. F. P. Banks and Secretary Shaw made speeches in that district. The vote will be light. Little interest is manifested.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—Apathetic conditions prevail in the congressional campaign in this state. The only show of fight made against the democrats is in the Seventh district.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—In the congressional election tomorrow the vote will be light. The democrats will carry without doubt all the districts of the Ninth, now represented by a republican.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5.—The contest in Tennessee between M. R. Patterson, democrat, and H. Clay Evans, republican, for governor, is close. Both parties claim the election by from 20,000 to 30,000.

The vote is expected to be light on account of serious dissatisfaction in democratic ranks upon which hope of republican success is based.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 5.—Three judges of the state supreme court will be elected by the last legislature and eleven congressmen are to be elected tomorrow. Except in the First congressional district the democrats have no opposition. It is not likely that a heavy vote will be polled.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 5.—Chairman of the democratic executive committee is confident that the republican congressional nominee of the state will be elected by increased majorities tomorrow; that the vote will be large.

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 5.—It is generally conceded that the full democratic state ticket and the democratic candidates in all congressional districts will be elected in tomorrow's election. Good weather conditions are expected.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 5.—Mississippi will return the democratic candidate in each congressional district tomorrow. General agency prevails and a moderate vote is expected.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 5.—After an active campaign the republicans claim four of the five congressional districts. There has been a lack of interest apparent throughout the state.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—Senator James B. McCreary today claimed a majority in tomorrow's senatorial primary over Governor Beckham of 23,000. Governor Beckham's managers say the governor will succeed to McCreary's seat by 24,000.

Samuel W. Hager, who is running for governor against B. Hayes, says he will win the primary 3,400. The democrats expect to elect three or four congressmen, but the republicans say that a solid delegation is likely to be returned.

California Predictions Vary.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—With election only a few hours off, predictions as to the result in California vary as widely as at any time during the campaign. The republican managers assert that Gillett will be elected governor by nearly 30,000 plurality, the democrats claim they will have over 8,000 plurality, while the leaders of the independence league declare that Langdon is a sure winner. The labor union, socialist, prohibition and other parties in the field are making no statement as to their strength, but some counts on making a good showing in the returns. The democrats expect to elect three or four congressmen, but the republicans say that a solid delegation is likely to be returned.

Arizona Against Joint Statehood.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 5.—The total registration in Arizona is 32,000. It is expected that the vote will total 20,000. Those favoring joint statehood claim 35 per cent of the vote, but their opponents concede not to exceed 10 per cent. The democrats in congress. Democrat claim Smith will be elected for congress by 2,000 and the republicans claim Cooper by a small plurality. If it goes for Cooper the vote of republicans for Smith will be offset, it is claimed, and Cooper will be victorious.

NEW MEXICO FOR JOINT STATEHOOD.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 5.—Indications tonight are that New Mexico will return a majority for joint statehood tomorrow from 8,000 to 10,000. Reports have been received from all the counties of the territory and indicate that with a few exceptions the vote will be favorable to statehood. Later the reports from Arizona would seem to warrant the belief that joint statehood will be defeated in that territory by a large vote.

Constitutional Fight in Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE, Okl., Nov. 5.—Tonight witnessed no change in the attitude of the republican and democratic leaders as to the result of the battle tomorrow for constitutional delegates. Chairman Hamon at republican headquarters says indications of the past two days justify the prediction of an eighth vote toward the party candidates. The fight centers in the southeast.

A DELIGHTFUL JOURNEY Taken by Any One at Small Expense.

A bright young lady was telling a friend, recently of her trip along the most delightful road she ever traveled, the food route. She said: "For a number of years I have been a sufferer from indigestion with its attendant ailments, but my case was not sufficiently serious to cause alarm, until two years ago.

"In the early part of this summer my stomach was in such a state I could take very little food owing to the intense suffering it caused, consequently I was losing flesh rapidly, and growing weaker every day. I had read about Grape-Nuts in the papers and magazines, and two months ago persuaded myself to try a package. I read the little booklet it contained and resolved to follow instructions as closely as possible.

"The result was so wonderful when I saw that I met a friend whom I had not seen for three months. Her first inquiry was, 'Where have you been all summer?' I said, 'For the past two months I've been traveling along the road to 'well-being.' "What are you doing?' she asked.

"I've been eating on Grape-Nuts and drinking Postum Coffee, I replied.

"Oh, she said, 'you are looking so well I did not know you were first night.' "Whereupon I told her all about it—advising her to pursue the same course and continue it indefinitely, as I shall do.

"I am now using Grape-Nuts in some form three times daily, and Postum Coffee twice a day, and I shall improve every opportunity by advising others in like plight." With these words she turned to the creek, Mich. "There's a reason."

TO GET A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Broom Quinine Tablets. Eukrasin (found in) if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box.

lying districts of the Indian Territory where the status of neither party is known. An effort will be made by the various chiefs to get out the full Indian vote.

Light Vote in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 5.—The indications tonight are that a light vote will be cast in tomorrow's election, except in the second congressional district and the city of Minneapolis, where more interest has been taken in the campaign than anywhere else in the state. In the second congressional district Congressman McCleary is making a strong fight for reelection, while in Minneapolis, where municipal officers also are to be elected, the question of "old or no old" has made the fight an intense one. Governor John A. Johnson returned today from a speaking tour throughout the state and expressed confidence in his reelection. It is generally conceded that the republicans will have a plurality of 50,000 or more on all other state officers. The republicans admit that their candidate for governor was given the balance of the ticket, but maintain that he will still win out by about 10,000 plurality.

Michigan Republican Candidate.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 5.—The night before election Michigan finds the republican party confident of the victory of their state legislative and congressional tickets, and discussing the size of their majorities. Charles R. A. Kimmerle, the democratic gubernatorial candidate, does not concern republican voters, but gives out no figures on an expected democratic majority. Interest continues to be intense in Detroit in the street railway franchise situation and Mayor George P. Codd and his democratic opponent for the mayoralty, City Treasurer Thompson, are expected to be in the city until well into the night, Codd advocating and Thompson opposing the proposed new franchise for the Detroit street railways.

Solid Delegation from Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 5.—On the eve of election it is reasonably certain that Kansas will elect a solid delegation of eight republican congressmen, although in several districts majorities will be cut down on account of the fight which has been made by the democrats. Long and Hays, republican, will be elected in the first and second congressional districts, elect a republican legislature and carry the state for the general ticket by a majority varying between 10,000 and 15,000. Chairman Evans of the democratic state committee asserts that the republican party will carry the state by not less than 30,000 majority.

All Confident in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 5.—The close of the campaign tonight found both the republican and democratic managers claiming victory in Missouri. The final estimate of the republicans was given out by Secretary Joseph McCoy of the republican state committee, who predicted that his party will carry the state by a 10,000 majority.

Taft Speaks in Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 5.—All over the state the political campaign was in active progress tonight