Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off.

INDIAN LAND DECISION
White Men Who Married Cherokees Prior to 1875 Will Get Land.
COURT OF CLAIMS VIEW IS UPHELD
Men Who Desert Wives Have No Rights, According to Opinion Handed Down by Chief Justice.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The supreme court of the United States today affirmed the decision of the court of claims in the case of Daniel Redbird, the Cherokee Nation and others against the United States, known as the "white man's case."
The cases involved the long pending claims of 2,600 and 3,000 white persons to participate in the distribution of the lands and the funds of the Cherokee Nation because of marriage with members of the tribe.
There are over 4,000,000 acres of land and the tribal funds are extensive. The decision was favorable to the Indians.
The Indians strenuously resisted the claim, contending that they had never by law recognized property rights on account of intermarriage. In passing on the cases decided today the court of claims held that the tribal lands are not communal lands, but that whites who acquired citizenship by marriage prior to 1875 have equal interests with the Indians. In the case of marriage into the tribe since that time it was held that no right of property had been acquired except by those who had paid into the common fund the sum of $50.
The court of claims also held that white husbands of Cherokee women who have abandoned their wives have forfeited all rights as Cherokee citizens, including that of participation in the proceeds of sales of Cherokee lands.
Today's decision affirmed that decision in all respects. The opinion of the supreme court was handed down by Chief Justice Fuller.
Georgia Murder Case.
The supreme court of the United States today affirmed the decision of the Georgia supreme court in the case of John G. Rawlings, under conviction in that state on the charge of murder, the effect of the decision being to compel the conviction of Rawlings unless his lawyers succeed in finding other means of securing a stay of proceedings. Rawlings, who is a white man and a preacher, was charged with employing negroes to murder a family of negroes. Two children were decapitated out of the house and shot, but the other members of the family saved their lives by remaining within the cellar of their home.
Oklahoma Case Settled.
The supreme court of the United States today dismissed the writ of habeas corpus asked for by George Moran of Comanche county, Oklahoma, convicted of murder in 1902, about the time that the county was being organized. Moran pleaded irregular on account of the chaotic conditions existing and also for other reasons. He alleged that in being compelled to exhibit himself to the jury he had been made a witness against himself, an unconstitutional requirement.
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AT JOB
H. C. Parkins Spends Quarter of Century Carrying Letters for Uncle Sam.
H. C. Parkins, carrier No. 2 at the Omaha postoffice, yesterday took a deep breath to commemorate his twenty-fifth anniversary of service for Uncle Sam. It was not so much the length of service that Mr. Parkins took pride in as much as the fact that during the quarter of a century he had been late only once to work, and when it is appreciated that "going to work" means several times a day for some of the carriers the excellency of Mr. Parkins' record will be more credited. One of Uncle Sam's hard and fast rules is punctuality. If a carrier is a few minutes late he loses the following half day. While Mr. Parkins' record of once late in twenty-five years is not a perfect one, yet it is such as to bring it into notice and is a mark for others to aim for.
PROPHET CURRIE IN TOWN
Comes Out of the West With Cheering Words on His Lips.
State Representative Frank Currie of Dawes county is in town. Mr. Currie is the only man in his county who has never failed in his political horoscopes. Yesterday at the Merchants hotel he made the prediction that Sheldon would carry Nebraska by a large majority as ever was given a republican candidate for governor. He also said Judge Kirkland would carry the Sixth congressional district by a large vote. Mr. Currie is one of the few political men whose predictions invariably come true. In his county he is known as "Prophet Currie." Incidentally he thinks it would be possible to tell, after tonight, whether the democrats had taken time to nominate a candidate for congress or any for the legislative branch.
Notwithstanding his non de plume at home, Herr Currie makes, on coming to be Elijah II or anything of that sort. He is nothing but a "plain, blunt man," as a great Nebraska statesman, in an unguarded moment and in the heat of excitement, once exclaimed on the floor of the lower house of legislature.
Battleship Damage Slight.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The report of Captain Seaton Schroeder, commanding the battleship Virginia, on the collision of that boat with the Monitor of the Old Dominion line in Hampton Roads last Saturday, was received today. It confirms the press report of the accident, showing that the Monitor was drawn into the port quarter of the battleship by the suction of the screws of the latter and that the damage to the battleship was trifling.
